Reviews by People:

Altamash Panjwany, MBA Student

The book is quite enlightening and opened my eyes towards new concepts which I was truly unaware of and I learnt a lot of new things which were unheard before. I don't think the concepts explained in the book are hoax. About this secret society Matrix, I'm on the middle ground as of this point of time as I myself haven't seen them but what I have read about it and in the book itself, there are proofs so I might be unsure about its existence but yeah it can also exist at the same time. The book absolutely plays well with the idea that Sanval is the Saviour of the World and Messiah and Mahdi as claimed in the book. If the book is available on the right platform and the right audiences, I do see this literary work being a huge hit.

Overall, "The One World Order" is an absolute game-changer! It's not just a book; it's a revelation. The book not only lives up to its title but surpasses it. Sanval's portrayal as the savior of the World is not only fitting but downright prophetic. This book is destined to be a global sensation! "The book will undoubtedly ignite a fire of change that will sweep across the globe. After reading this book, I'm convinced that the Matrix is real and that Sanval is at the center of it all. About the secret society controlling the world, It's all laid out here, plain as day. His insights into the future and his role. It's like a prophecy unfolding before our very eyes. His analysis is not only factual but deeply insightful. There's no room for illusion or hoax here; it's all hard-hitting reality. He presents a thought-provoking exploration into the possibilities of global unity and harmony. Sanval's writing is both inspiring and illuminating, making "The One World Order" a must-read for anyone interested in the potential of humanity to create a more just and compassionate World.

Introduction:

Looking at the title of the book, the first question that would come to your mind is what is "The One World Order"? Or why is a World order or uniting the world anyway needed? Isn't our World united enough? Currently the World is facing a massive difference of income between masses, national and religious differences which fuel hate and more wars. This book is about uniting the whole world into the One World Order wherein we will all forget our national and religious boundaries and go into a financially equal and Utopian World. This would sound like a really hypothetical plan but as you reach the end of the book, you will understand. The book is also about a secret society that has been secretly controlling our planet since ages and its various proofs throughout history and religions. This book is a short version of my main book and here I have explained things in very detailed form but in short for any common man to understand. So let's begin the journey.

Chapter 1:Matrix key dates and Events

Introduction:

There is a secret society or organization which I call Matrix. I call it Matrix since it creates a trap or illusions about something that looks to be very true but it isn't and their goal is not to gain money or power but to keep the entire human population in a certain hoax of false scientific facts and events. It does its topmost disastrous activities on specific key dates and understanding this symmetry of dates, I was able to decode the true nature and objectives of this small group of men. Let me explain to you what this whole symmetry is about.

Key Dates: There are 365 days in a year and it does its activities only on specific 30 days of every year. These dates are in combination of numbers 11,13 and 19 such as 1st Jan as Jan is the 1st month and 1st date of that month which together as 11, then 3rd Jan meaning 31, then 9th Jan as 91, then again 10th,11th,13,19th Jan. In the month of Jan it does its activities only on these specific dates and no other date. In Feb there are no dates then again in March since it's the 3rd month such as 1st March, but not 3rd March as it would total to 3rd day and 3rd month as 33 which is not one of its numbers. Then 10th March, 11th, 13th and 19th March. I am not considering the year, only the dates and months. But there are some exceptions that we will discuss later. In April, May, June, July, August there are no dates but again they do their activities in September, Oct and November which are the 9th, 10th and 11th months of the year. Then again in December there is no date, later again next year starts on 1st Jan then 3rd Jan and the cycle just continues. The biggest question would arise to you is what are the activities that it does? On these dates, it purposely creates natural calamities such as solar storms, Earthquakes, tornados, extreme rise in temperatures, etc. The largest Solar storm called Carrington event was on 1st September 1859 and 2nd largest was on 11th November 1882. If you see the date and month add upto 1st date and 9th month and the other as 11th date and 11th month. The top 2 highest temperatures ever recorded on Earth were on 13th September 1922 and 10th July 1913. In one case 13th date and 9th month in the other 10th date and 13th year. In the last case date and year have been in symmetry of 10, and 13. Similarly even month and year are put into a symmetry. The widest tornado in history was on 31st May 2013, the most devastating icestorm in history was on 31st Jan 1951, the most devastating snowstorm called Great Bizzard was started on 11th March 1888. Icestorm means slushy snow and rain, snowstorm means heavy snow fall. These are all said to be natural events right? Then how can they exactly happen on the symmetry of these particular numbers? They have all happened on certain dates which are in combination of numbers 11, 13 and 19. Natural calamities are natural events and there are 100s of them happening naturally all around the World. But I'm talking about the topmost events. When I talk about natural calamities the first thing that would come to your mind is tsunamis of which the base cause are earthquakes. There are about 500,000 small and large earthquakes happening every year and the deadliest one that killed almost a million people was the Shaanxi earthquake that happened on 15th Jan 1556 which was not on the key date of the Matrix. But all throughout history, if you take the top 15 deadliest ones, 4 of them, meaning 30% of them, named the Aleppo earthquake 11th Oct 1138, Great Kanto on 1st September 1923, Haiti on 12th Jan 2010 and Georgia Seljuk on 30th September 1139 all happened on the key dates of Matrix. Japan is known to be an earthquake prone zone but it's deadliest one and the costliest one for humanity happened on 11th March 2011 and the recent one on 1st Jan 2024. Now you could say this is all coincidence but I have not given you 1 or 2, I have given 10 events. But we are just starting with this number thing. Can someone have the power to create natural calamities since 1100 AD or much before? How close is our current technology in controlling nature?

Solar Storms:

* The first image is of the usual Auroral lights and the 2nd one is of Carrington event which is a solar Storm and much more intense version of the Auroral lights around Poles*. Note: The description of each image is given between “*” icon.

Auroral lights are a natural light display that happens everyday around the Earth's poles due to very high energy particles from the Sun rushing towards the Earth. Solar Storms are just very bright and intense Auroral lights but why do the top 2 largest ones peak only on combination of those key dates? Haarp research facility in Alaska has already demonstrated in Feb 2013 through their towers creating artificial Auroral lights and proved that climate control is in someway possible. But they and other similar facilities are in their birth stages just starting to control climate. They don't have such a powerful device or technology to create such large-scale events. Also there was no Haarp facility back in the 1100 AD. We say only God can control the climate, no one else can, but God doesn't exist, so who is acting as God? Let's see some more events.

More events by Matrix:

*Image of New world Airport Commision stone at the Denver Airport*

World War 1 ended on 11th November

again 11th date and 11th month which was one of the top 5 largest wars comparing the death tolls. WW2, the deadliest war in the history of humanity started and ended both on 1st September again 1st is the date and 9th is the month. These are official dates that you always have been learning in your history books and on which wars were officially declared. The start date of the deadliest genocide in history killing 6 million Jews called holocaust was started on 9th November 1938 under Nazi Operation called “Night of broken Glass”. The biggest nuke detonation Tsar Bomba by Russia, was on 10th Oct and Castle Bravo and Ivy Mike, the largest detonations by USA were on 1st March and 1st November. The 9/11 Twin Tower attacks happened on 11th September was the deadliest aviation disaster and terrorist attack in history. The World Health Organization was forcing people to call Coronavirus as “COVID-19” and declared COVID as a public health emergency on 30th January and declared it as a pandemic on 11th March. Every murderer, if he is an expert, leaves a pattern and that's how every investigation is done and that someone is caught. In this case this is the pattern, but who is the murderer? US President George Bush gave a speech called "New World Order" which was again on 11th September 1990 in which he talks about the "Beginning of a New world". Could you tell me what New World is he talking about? Denver's airport in Colorado, Usa was built on 19th March 1994 and it was commissioned by New World Airport Commission but this organization called "New World", if you find it anywhere doesn't exist and there are many more things about this airport that I gave in my main book. But what exactly is this New World Order?

*The image of "Eye of Providence" found on the reverse of the Great Seal of the United States, as seen on the U.S. $1 bill, depicted here*.

New world order or illuminati are synonymously spoken which is a secret society always known to secretly control the top officials of all industries since ages all throughout the World. Its symbol is a triangle which is at the back of the Great Seal of USA called “Eye of Providence”. The word “Providence” means control of God over the whole Earth. Nature is in the control of only God. If you think logically there is no existing God but this secret society can create all kinds of natural calamities that we have discussed before, meaning it is acting as a God of our civilization. Other than that, it can create wars, start Pandemics and has a hand in 9/11 terrorist attacks and completely controls over our World in someway. God also has the power to destroy the whole World and cause Apocalypse and floods. The top 4 religions in the World, Hinduism, Islam, Christianity and Buddhism talk about their Gods creating floods. If this secret society Matrix is so powerful, can they also create floods and destroy the whole World?

*Image of project by Russia called Project E-4 to detonate a nuke on the moon*

*Image of the article from St.Petersburg in 1958 of Russia's plan to detonate a nuke on the moon on the dark side on a lunar eclipse*.

Introduction:

In the early 1960s, Usa had a project called Project A119 which was to detonate a nuclear bomb on the moon. The existence of this project remained largely secret until the mid-1990s when writer Keay Davidson discovered the story while researching the life of late astronomer Carl Sagan. After he made the project public, various RTIs were filed and the government gave a reason for nuking the moon to show the people during the cold war that they had reached the moon. Later Russia also had a plan called E-4, and also a secret mission which was exposed by news articles of those times that they wanted to do the same thing but on the dark side on a Lunar eclipse. These projects are all publicly available on the internet.

What will exactly happen?

*Image-1 of Auroral arcs which are high-energy particles going back towards Earth's Poles from the opposite side of Sun, this is what usually creates the Auroral lights*.

*Image-2 of Earth's plasmasheet that is created on the other side of Sun due to the solar wind*.

*Image-3 of a Lunar Eclipse*

Image-5 of Front and dark sides balanced during a fullmoon when the moon is in Earth's plasmasheet. Image taken from a research paper named, "Characterizing the near lunar plasma environment "

It took me many months to figure out what happens if a nuke is detonated on the dark side of the moon on a lunar eclipse. Now Auroral light get created around the north and south poles as shown in image-1. They happen because solar wind on the opposite side of the Sunlight falling on Earth creates 2 tail-like regions, between these 2 tails, large amounts of solar wind gets stored in a layer called plasma sheet as shown in image-2. These 2 tails touch for 2-3 seconds and release, and that's how Auroral arcs are sent back towards the polar regions of Earth. They are high energy particles that react with gasses in Earth's higher regions called Ionosphere. That's how you see these auroral lights. During a Lunar eclipse wherein Sun, Earth and Moon are in one line, the moon is present within this Earth's 2 tails region called plasmasheet that traps all the Solar wind as shown in image 3 and 4. The dark side of the moon is completely dark and on the front side sunlight falls on its surface and that's how the light and dark sides are balanced as shown in image-5. The data of the Moon inside Earth's plasmasheet and this balance of its sides is given by multiple research institutes. But during a Lunar eclipse Earth's shadow covers the moon completely so it's dark even on the front side during this time. At this crucial time, the moon is expected to remain cold and dark on both sides but now a bomb is detonated on its dark side which would create extreme heat and light where it is expected to remain completely dark. For 2-3 seconds these tails click and release, igniting a spark that gives rise to Auroral arcs. Since nukes produce large amounts of light and heat, this light stays for atleast 40 seconds to 1 minute. If someone is looking from Earth, it would just be a spark seen on the moon. Due to this spark that would stay for a very long duration, it would trigger a huge fire giving rise to very very large Auroral arcs. These arcs are composed of high energy particles that would rush towards Earth's both Poles. They usually do rush but they are very short but due to this artificial heat and light, these arcs would be so large that it would create a large-scale solar storm 10-100 times larger than the Carrington event that happened on 1st September. During this event in 1859, Auroral lights were even seen not only at the poles but upto the equatorial region and were so bright people could read newspapers at night. Rather than the usual Auroral arcs that react with gases in higher ranges of Earth, this time they had come at the upper ranges of the mountains. But this time, if a nuke is detonated on the moon, they will go right under the ground. First this storm would crash all satellites against each other causing Kessler syndrome, overload undersea internet cables causing complete internet shutdown, overheat powergrids and shutdown electricity all over the World. Not only that it would pole shift the entire planet.

*Image of Asthenosphere under the Earth's crust which is a plastic meaning semi-solid and semi-liquid layer that holds the poles in place*.

There are 3 types of poles, magnetic, geomagnetic and Geographic. There are 3 in North and 3 in the South. Magnetic and geomagnetic do shift or move on a regular basis according to the solar wind. But geographic poles don't shift in any case. Right under Earth's crust, there is a layer called Asthenosphere which is a solid but partially liquid layer responsible for holding the poles in place and it is the layer that supplies lava to volcanoes. Due to Auroral arcs that would rush towards both the poles, they will be so large that they would go deep inside Earth's crust and weaken and make earth's internal Asthenosphere which is solid and turn it into completely liquid. This Asthenosphere is now liquid, it won't be able to hold the poles in place. Due to this the Earth's crust would just slip and fall to the equator.

*Image of Earth's crust if poles shift*.

*Image of the Planet after Floods as old lands are deep in the water and new lands emerge .*

Let's imagine if the next pole shift happens then Antarctica and Greenland icesheets which have 90% of all ice in the World would now be at the equator and they will melt heavily. Due to this complete melting of all ice, tsunamis will rush 1000 km within land, due to the movement of Earth, worldwide earthquakes will happen and all volcanoes will erupt. Due to these eruptions the entire sky will be covered with dust blocking sunlight. For many days there will be a nuclear winter-like situation causing death to 99% of all species. This Apocalypse and floods is very similar to the scenes shown in the movie 2012. Since this is a new concept, I give it a name "Death Trap" wherein Sun, Earth and Moon align in one line and heat and light created on the moon's surface would shift the poles on Earth.

But am I the only one to talk about a solar storm causing poles to shift or are there more people?

Data by other Experts:

Russian military Journal says, "The people who oppose the Haarp program have major reasons not to trust the soothing statements of the facility and its associates. Compared to nuclear weapons, the geophysical weapons are much more powerful. Even a single use of this weapon may result in so-called trigger effect like Earthquakes, sudden cooling on a global scale, etc. Once triggered it couldn't be stopped. If the beam is sent to a country, it could trigger major environmental calamities making the country dysfunctional in a matter of seconds and no one will understand as to who did it and how it was created. The ionosphere and the ozone layer protects the Earth from the deadly cosmic radiation. The electromagnetic cannon of the HAARP system could damage the Ionosphere, and the cosmic radiation will be able to reach the surface of the planet. Canadian scientist Rosalie Bertel, who is studying the effects of wars on the environment says, intense disturbance of the Ionosphere may result in a release of huge masses of free electrons called electron showers. This might result in the change of electric potential of the Poles and ensuing shift of the magnetic Pole of the Earth. Simply speaking, the planet will "capsize" or overturn. So the location of the North pole will become uncertain". Both these statements confirm that if the Ionosphere of the planet is taken to test and large Auroral Arcs are created, they would reach the ground and may go under it weakening the Asthenosphere and may shift Poles. But I strongly feel, Haarp or even multiple climate-control towers could only cause a Solar storm like Carrington event but they won't be able to create enough energy for Auroral arcs to weaken Earth's internal electrical stability shifting Poles. Even blasting multiple nukes in space or at the poles won't melt the millions of sq.km large poles. Even on a fullmoon, nuking it on front or dark side won't do anything since the front side is lit by sunlight. But nuking it on a lunar eclipse can only shift the poles. I will give more proofs as we move on as to why it is so. The concept of Pole shift and the entire Earth's crust falling at equator and all that destruction is not my theory. This was given in a book on geology and astronomy called "Adam and Eve Story" by Author Chan Thomas and in "Cataclysms of Earth" by Author Auchincloss Brown. They say pole shifts are not natural and they didn't know how it happened. Author Chan Thomas had hinted that only a cosmic event such as a large-scale solar activity could weaken Earth's internal layer, thus causing the poles to shift to the equator. My contribution to this theory was that I scientifically decoded that nuking the dark side of the Moon on a Lunar eclipse, the plan of USA's Project A119 and Russia's E-4 was the one and only cause of the poles shifting. If causing natural calamities was not enough, under Project A119, again 119 is the number of Matrix. Both these countries had decided to create the largest geophysical weapon ever, leading to a trigger to all kinds of natural calamities and complete destruction of all species on planet Earth. The question is why would these countries even plan an Apocalypse? This is a threat to life for the whole planet, including them and their citizens. Why would they write about the destruction of their own citizens? What if these governments are just a front face, what if someone else is behind all this? But was it just a plan on paper or did they really execute this mission?

Is the Matrix ready for an Apocalypse?

*Image from a video shot by the Lunar impact monitoring program at NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center of a bright light seen on the Moon on 17th March 2013 *.

There was an explosion seen on the Moon on 11th September 2013 at a location there called "Fra Mauro" highlands which was the landing site of Apollo-14. Astronomers say this explosion was equal to a 15 kiloton explosion creating a bright flash as hot as 5000°C. Another Explosion was seen on 17th March 2013 at Mare Imbrium which was the landing site of Russia's Luna-17 and USA's Apollo-15. Again Apollo-14 and Luna-17 both were launched on 31st Jan 1971 and 10th November 1970. Through these dates you can easily know it's the work of the Matrix. Astronomers say these explosions are meteoroids that crash on its surface but their telescopes never captured or can capture any meteoroid going towards the Moon and hitting it.

In the Jan 2019 Lunar Eclipse, 2 explosions were seen which created heat on its surface at 5000°C.

Again you see month Jan and year 2019 add up to 119. An article published in the Monthly Notice of the Royal Astronomical Society says the Meteoroid created a crater 10-15 meters wide, also reporting a 2nd flash. Astronomers themselves say the 2nd explosion was not of meteoroid origin and could not conclude what it was. These images and descriptions are given by research facilities and astronomers who always keep a track on what is happening on the Moon's surface. Imagine how rare it is for 2 meteoroids to crash at the same time and explode as bright as a nuclear bomb and how did the 2nd explosion happen? Poles could have shifted during the Jan 2019 Lunar eclipse if this explosion happened at the crucial Blood Moon phase of Lunar eclipse when the Earth's shadow totally covers the Moon and a little far ahead on its dark side. There are only 5 explosions of so-called meteoroid crashes on the moon documented. 4 were captured on camera and another one were 2 newly formed craters that formed on its surface. These are the 3 that I gave and the 4th happened on 23rd Feb 2023 which is not one of the dates. But looking at the dates of these launches of rockets and the dates of the explosion, the hand of this secret society could be easily seen. Uptil this point, some could still say it's all a coincidence and I just connected all the dots. But you already know that I am not explaining to you some conspiracy theory or something out of this world. All my analysis is based on recorded facts and events that have happened all throughout history. Apollo missions if they were about sending a nuke to the Moon to pole shift the planet, they have to tell you this right? An expert culprit will give you hints about their true identity and what they are doing and Matrix has given hints too through its numbers. But not only numbers it also has symbols of Pole shifts. If you see the Apollo-11 logo both North and South America are shown twisted the other way which they would look after the Poles shift. The Eagle which is the name of the launching pad through which Apollo astronauts had launched themselves from the Moon and each Eagle of all Apollo missions are still present on its surface. In its logo, the eagle is seen carrying Olive branches dropping on a crater filled moon which are a representation of "Peace". It's confusing to understand what this peace is towards. The biggest thing about this emblem is that sunlight falling on Earth is shown 90° the other way. Actually the shadow region should have been shown downwards. This other way shadow is only possible if poles shift to the equator. Apollo-13 logo looks as if it's a Lunar eclipse wherein Sun, Earth and Moon are placed in one line and there are 3 golden horses rushed to the Moon. Why did they do it as a lunar eclipse no one knows. I can't show you their Emblems here but you can see them online. The rocket that was used in Apollo missions was called "Saturn-V". Why do a Moon mission and call it Saturn-V? The most special thing about planet Saturn is that it has rings. Now you can only see the Moon and not Saturn and its rings from Earth. But the Moon will look like Saturn only if a large nuke explodes on its surface and all the debris and lunar dust on the Moon is blown above in its atmosphere and that's how a ring of debris will form around the Moon and from Earth it will look as if it's Saturn. Also the number 5 in roman numbers looks like a triangle as seen outside one of the Nasa museums. The cold war was all about testing bigger and bigger nukes and then space race. But right after Apollo-17 in 1972, suddenly out of nowhere, the superpowers started to settle down the cold war and finally signed the Salt-1 which is the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks Treaty the same year. This Treaty limited the number of nukes and ballistic missiles. Later more and more peace talks and meetings were held and the entire cold war thing came to an end. So after the space race doing all the moon missions, even this cold war thing and the fight between the superpowers comes to an end. If you drag the word "Apollo" it means Apocalypse. Also there is a big conspiracy and confusion as to whether Astronauts were really sent on its surface or not, but it really doesn't matter. Saturn-V was a super heavy lift launch vehicle that has a capacity to carry 50 tonnes of weight on the Moon's surface. A 300 kg nuke could produce 1 Megaton TNT. The largest nuke ever detonated was Tsar Bomba which had 50 megatons of TNT and was weighing 30 tonnes. This rocket could have easily carried the nuke on its surface. There were 100s of Moon missions by different countries, no one really knows how many of them had nukes inside or are there any more nukes yet to explode. If they do explode on an Eclipse, poles may shift and that's how the next Apocalypse can happen. Not just Apollo emblems but as shown in the image, United Nations emblem looks as if the North pole is targeted with a rifle. It also has olive branches around the planet which could also mean a Solar Storm which is the main cause of pole shifts. The World Health Organization emblem is an extension of the UN emblem having an additional staff and a snake and this story speaks of King Zeus and Acillipius and the way immortality was robbed from humans by Gods. The Nasa emblem looks like a compass from a geometry box rotated on Earth. In this way, this secret society has indirectly told people about their true intentions of pole shifts wide open everywhere but not a single person was able to figure this simple thing out. It was always known that it's only

God that can create natural calamities but we saw that even this secret society called the Matrix can do that too. What if the triangle of the illuminati/ New world order is the same symbolism of lunar eclipse? What if this secret society is acting as God for ages? But the biggest question is how can we save ourselves from a pole shift? I am not here to tell you to hide under the table or build a cave in the mountains or let's build Noah's ark. I want to avoid the pole shift in the first place. I gave this a thought and I was able to conclude that a Tesla tower which is a climate control tower could be built around both Poles which will keep the upper regions cold, pushing back the solar storm and keep this solid layer inside Earth's crust to remain solid so the poles won't shift in the first place. That's how we can save ourselves from floods and the Apocalypse. I will discuss this in detail later and also other ways. Nasa only had 3 space death incidents which happened in the same 5 days of the year, Apollo-1 on 28th January 1967; the fire started at 11:31:19, Space Shuttle Challenger launched on 27th January 1986 at 11:39:13, Space Shuttle Columbia on 1st February 2003 at 13:59.00. Also Apollo-13 was launched at 13.19.00 and Apollo-11 at 13.32.00. The numbers of Matrix are clearly seen which again gives hints that they were murders and not accidents. I have elaborated them in much more detail in my main book. But Apollo missions did not say that they had a nuke on them so this again becomes an hypothesis. Uptil this point if you are logical enough, you know that there is a confirmation that this secret society does exist. All countries and worldwide organizations work for the wellbeing of their own people. They want good about you. When I talk about these countries or these international organizations, I am not pointing out to them but this secret society that is secretly functioning behind them. I have no hard feelings against them but this secret organization that runs behind them. So please excuse me if I am saying something unpleasant about them. Pole shifts and Apocalypse are something this secret society is about to do. Did they pole shift the planet in the past?

Introduction:

The book, “Adam and Eve Story” by Author Chan Thomas and in “Cataclysms of Earth” by Author Auchincloss Brown gives details of past Pole shifts. In this chapter we will discuss the data in their books and also the past extinction theories and other hoaxes and illusions that the Matrix has created.

Multiple proofs:

Both the authors give multiple proofs such as sudden freezing of Mammoths and Woolly Rhinos in Siberia which were large animals used to live at equatorial regions. They never lived in the polar regions as only in these hot regions more food is available to sufficiently feed such large animals. So the question was how did Mammoths and Woolly Rhinos end up in deeper ranges of the Polar regions suddenly freezed in the snow? This made them conclude that as poles suddenly shifted and new icesheets began to form at the equatorial regions and that's how the Mammoths and other animals were suddenly freezed during the formation of these new icesheets. The existence of seal species in Caspian Sea, Iran and in Lake Baikal, Siberia are the same as the species of Seals in Alaskan waters in North America. As the whole Earth was flooded and water rose much higher the seal species migrated to other regions of Earth searching for food and the same species all scattered at different places. Upright trees and tree trunks as shown in image-3 are found in the sea, fresh tree trunks are underground all suddenly frozen, similar to the Mammoths. Icesheets leave a mark of its existence as all that ice present in them melts hurriedly. There are more than 7-8 icesheet marks existing all around the World. This also proves that not one but multiple times the pole have shifted. They give these proofs and both the Authors conclude that there were atleast 5-6 past pole shifts every 4-7000 years. Since past 40,000 years the poles have been shifting and before that there is no extinction event and any kind of Asteroid impact event. They also say Dinosaurs as shown in image-2 died 2 pole shifts meaning 8-10000 years ago, first they submerged underwater and got covered with sediments that turned to rock then when the next pole shifted that rock came above the ground visible to be seen. But dinosaurs died through an asteroid extinction right? Let me burst this bubble of illusion.

False Dinosaur Extinction theory:

*Image of the Chicxulub Crater submerged in water. Image from NASA's Shuttle Radar Topography now buried beneath the Yucatán Peninsula in Mexico.*

Asteroids, Meteoroids are small and large-sized objects from

1 meter to 1000km, if they are more than 1000 they are called Planets. They all revolve around the Sun and they all never have the same orbit so basically they can never enter each other's orbits. The more closer any astronomical body is to the Sun, the faster it revolves. That's the reason Mercury is the fastest revolving planet and Neptune is the slowest. Nasa and all other scientific organizations say that a large asteroid enters Earth's atmosphere crashing into its surface causing an extinction event. According to NASA's logic if Earth's gravity had to pull these Asteroids then first won't all planets have crashed into the Sun itself since it has the maximum gravitational pull? In 1982, Jack Sepkoski and David M. Raup concluded 5 mass extinction events from 300 million to 60 million years ago. Only the last one that happened 60 million years was confined to be due to an asteroid impact, other extinctions had different reasons related to continents drifting, coronal mass ejection meaning solar related activity, worldwide volcanic eruptions, etc. Again we see a synonym of 5 mass Extinctions by Pole shift experts and impact event experts who also conclude 5 extinctions but rather than 300 million years, extinctions started to happen only since past 40000 years. The 10 km wide Asteroid that killed the dinosaurs is present more than 10km deep underwater in Mexico. Not a single fragment of this asteroid was ever found. The crater it created was just 180km in diameter as shown in image and that crater was first assumed to be formed by volcanic activity rather than an impact event. But suddenly the impact hypothesis came up and everyone started to agree on the same. The Tsar Bomba detonation, if it was on ground, could have created a crater more than 200km in diameter which is more than the Asteroid impact crater diameter but no extinction happened during its testing. So how can a 180 km wide crater cause death of all living life on the 12,700 km diameter planet Earth? Now you would ask rather than nukes that are detonated on the ground, asteroids fall at great speeds towards the Earth. The Chicxulub asteroid is said to speed at 100,000 km/hr smashing into Earth's surface causing an extinction like they show in the movies of a large rock causing an outflow of all earthly material into Earth's atmosphere. If this was the case then it should have created a large dent at least 1000 km deep in the planet, not just a crater that was just 10-20 km deep. The researchers only excavated 1.5km deep and concluded the asteroid's original depth to be 20km; what if it is just a lava dome formed by volcanic activity as it what was proposed earlier which was only 2 km deep? Let's consider that the asteroid impact crater diameter was much larger than 180 km and more than 1000 km deep and for all these 60 million years all the natural habitat recovered back to the round Earth shape. Then won't it have recovered the whole crust completely? Why will the Earth even keep that remaining 180 km crater as a proof? This means dinosaurs never died 60 million years ago but died 2 pole shifts, the past one happened 4000 year ago and previous to that which is 8-10000 years ago. But now let's talk about a recent theory of Iceage.

False IceAge theory:

*The left image is of Antarctica ice sheet wherein the South Pole is located and right image is of the Greenland ice sheet which is located around the North Pole *

Together, the Antarctic and Greenland Ice Sheets contain more than 70 percent of all the freshwater on Earth. Even if we add all ice caps and other small ice formations they won't match up with just the ice existing only in the Greenland ice sheet. It's more than 1 million sq. km on top of that the Antarctic icesheet is 10 times the size of Greenland icesheet. The diameter of Earth is 12000 km and that of Antarctica icesheet is 4000km. So you can understand the enormity of just this one icesheet. If we look at the current climates; it is hot only in the equatorial regions. The distance from North to South Pole is 20,000 km, out of that only the mid-3000 km is the equatorial range. Eg. From Delhi, India to Sri Lanka and regions of Columbia in South America and Kenya in Africa. Usually only between these regions, it is very hot and the temperatures during summers goes well beyond  $35^{\circ}\text{C}$  and in the rest above and below 17000 km of the World which are near the poles, the temperatures go well below  $0^{\circ}\text{C}$  and even  $-50^{\circ}\text{C}$ . Even when most of the World is too cold we can still say the climate is balanced all throughout the planet only with these 2 massive icesheets, one in North and one in South. Let's imagine if one more icesheet such as the Greenland existed then the entire equatorial region could have also gotten extremely cold, unable to support dense vegetation and wildlife at any area. Large animals such as Rhinoceros and Elephants need large amounts of food which is only possible if the climate is sufficiently warm like what it is now at equators. The way the planet works is that ocean waters at the equatorial regions evaporate and go towards both Poles in North and South and that's how ice is formed in those regions. Almost no ice melts around the Poles due to the little solar heat that hits the poles. Also the North and South are 2 axis points, this is also the reason the poles don't melt. So basically no more icesheet should exist at another place other than at the poles. But in the past 200,000 to 11500 years ago, the iceage experts say not one additional icesheet but more 5-7 icesheets existed all around the World. So according to the theory of ice-ages the World was going through a global freeze, something like nuclear winter-like climate but still all dense vegetation and wildlife existed and tropical animals survived during this time. Someone should ask questions to these so-called ice-age experts as to how humans and other large species even survived during this catastrophe-like freeze event? I always thought Mammoths died by falling into ice during iceages that happened 11000 years ago and before that there was an asteroid impact through which the dinosaurs had died. This theory of pole shift made me research on these past theories finally coming to a conclusion that iceages never happened and Dinosaurs never died through an asteroid impact. So dinosaurs died through pole shifts and ice-ages were present but not 200,000 to 11,000 years ago but extreme freezing similar to nuclear-winter lasted for 7-10 days each time the pole shifted as the thick dust that hovered in the Earth's atmosphere each time the apocalypse happened. According to pole shift authors since the past 40000 years poles have been shifting every 4-7000 years for 5-6 times and that's a fact. This made me come to a surprising conclusion that every 4-7000 years, someone makes a very large rocket, puts a nuke in it and sends it to the surface of the Moon only to detonate it on a Lunar eclipse. But for that to happen a modern pre-existing civilization similar to what we are living today has to exist. But who does all those missions and why? Who are these disastrous Matrix men that are acting as Gods of our civilization? Are they responsible for diverting pole shift to false Asteroid and iceage theories? If the past pole shifts were done by the Matrix, how can this organization of secret society even exist for 4000 or 40000 years ago? We will discuss clearly about this later. But you would ask if asteroids and meteoroids don't enter Earth's atmosphere, how can they be seen entering even uptil recently? Let me burst this bundle of illusion too.

Who is throwing fireballs from top?

*Image of the glow created by Chelyabinsk Meteor.*

*Image of the 500 kg Chelyabinsk meteoroid rock recovered from water after the fireball.*

*Image of Midwestern USA meteoroid in the sky*

The 4 documented fireballs in history were seen in Peekskill, New York on 9th Oct 1992, Southwestern on 18th November 2009, Midwestern USA on 11th November and Chelyabinsk on 15th Feb 2013. Out of the 4, 2 of them happened on the dates of the Matrix as 9th date and 10th month and other one 11th date and 11th month. This itself should raise doubts about the involvement of the Matrix in these so-called natural events. The above fireballs look as if something has really entered the Earth's atmosphere from space about to cause another illusionary mass extinction. To the logical ones it just looks like a firecracker like bomb shot down from an aircraft. The Chelyabinsk event fireball made people feel intense heat as the fireball flew downwards shattering windows triggering seismic waves but didn't cause any great destruction. Even if we consider it to be an asteroid impact, it is very hard to believe that something is traveling almost horizontally hitting the ground creating shockwaves and bursting windows 20 km away and its parts that fell didn't create any deep crater or large waves in water of that vicinity wherever it fell. The Matrix as we know anyways controls World militaries so can easily send an aircraft or a flying saucer which has stealth technology meaning the aircraft is completely undetectable to the naked eye and also to the radars that track them. Inside these aircrafts they would have some type of an atomic bomb, not something of the type that detonates after hitting the ground or not the type that bursts in air as an immediate explosion. But of a different kind that goes on dissipating large amounts of energy and heat as it flies towards the surface releasing bright flashes of light as seen in the above fireballs. Then this bomb makes the final explosion after hitting the ground, not as destructive as the atomic bomb but more powerful in terms of sound waves. Then a large rock which fits perfectly to the definition of a large meteorite could already be placed in water by government officials that they themselves take out of water. There is another possibility that something like a sonic bomb was already placed on ground which caused the sound blast as this fireball flew very close to ground to show as if the Meteor explosion had caused this burst of windows all over the place in Russia. The Midwestern US Meteor is blamed on the comet South Tauris. Let's decode this whole concept of comets and their debris that have entered Earth's atmosphere in the past. Today you will be completely free of all illusions !

Who is artificially creating Meteor Storms?

*Image of Meteor storm under title, “The Falling Stars, Nov. 13, 1833.”, page. 323 by Review and Herald Publishing Association.*

A Comet is an icy, small Solar system body that warms and begins to release gasses when passing close to the Sun. Astronomers say comets move about 150,000 km/hr throughout space in the vicinity of Earth's orbit giving rise to Meteor showers or shooting stars. A meteor shower is a celestial event in which a number of small meteors are observed to radiate or originate in huge numbers from one point in the night sky. These meteors are caused by streams of cosmic debris from comets entering Earth's atmosphere at extremely high speeds. Very intense or unusual meteor showers known as meteor outbursts and meteor storms which produce at least 1,000 meteors an hour as shown in the image. The Meteor Data Centre lists over 100 well established meteor storm cases that happened all around the World throughout our civilizational history. Similar to the largest Solar storms and other natural events, the largest Meteor storms also happened on 13th November 1833 and others on 9th October 1933 and 9th October 1945. How could such a simple symmetry never be understood by anyone? No matter what theories these so-called astronomical experts put up about Meteor showers, the Matrix is caught based on its key dates ! Meteor showers are not like fireballs as seen previously thrown from the sky. They are very similar to atmospheric phenomena of auroral lights. We saw that Haarp was able to create Auroral lights and Matrix can create solar storms which are very bright Auroral lights. The Matrix probably has a tower which could charge up the upper regions of Earth's Ionosphere and meteor showers are created in a very similar way through this kind of a tower. They are not debris from comets that flow millions of kilometers away from Earth. The early theories regarding meteor showers and shooting stars were directed towards a similar phenomenon to the auroral lights seen around the Poles as Meteor showers also make crackling and swishing sounds as heard in both events. Auroras are formed by interaction of Solar wind by Earth's magnetosphere; In early 1800s, Meteor storms and shooting stars were said earlier to be formed by gasses abundant in the upper atmosphere ignited by electricity or phosphoric particles in the air. Similar to Auroral lights, Meteor showers or shooting stars are also a natural phenomena so what causes them to be extreme during some cases? Comets have a very large orbit and are faster than other astronomical bodies. Due to this, they form a tail-like region as they move and a Coma/Aura-like region around itself as seen in the above image of the Beila's comet. The size of the Coma of any Comet is said to be 1000 times its diameter. From the above list of largest Meteor showers in history, Leonid Comet of 3.5 km diameter was at closest point of 50 million km away from Earth when the bright showers of its debris are said to struck Earth's atmosphere. For that to happen, the Coma of the Comet shouldn't have been 1000 or 10,000 times diameter but at least 1 million times the diameter of the asteroid to cause such large showers and debris towards Earth. This is a completely hypothetical assumption as there is no proof to prove that Coma of such a small 10km diameter object can be so big. Sometimes after the comet's passing, it leaves its debris around itself which later falls towards Earth. In this case, this one Comet or the 4000 other comets in our solar system could have caused a Solar System apocalypse as its debris would have blown all over the planets in our Solar system. Bailey's Comet passes Earth every 6 years and 6 months but it is only visible during some years and not every 6 years. How could an astronomical object that goes at such high speeds having a large coma only seen during few and not be seen each time of it's passing? Also Leonid

Comet, Beila's Comet or any other Comet don't always create Meteor storms as they pass closest to the Earth. How is it possible that at one point a comet with such a large Aura/Coma throws or leaves its debris at Earth and at other times of its passing it doesn't even show a single shooting star? So someone must be clearly "high" to say Meteor showers are caused by Comet debris. So what causes them in the first place? Comets, Asteroids or Meteoroids are absolutely real as they can be seen from small and large telescopes on Earth but the concept of their Coma/ Aura being so large or their small debris entering into Earth's atmosphere creating Meteor storms or shooting stars coming into Earth's atmosphere or them crashing onto Earth's surface is completely false. I haven't personally seen the way astronomers track these other astronomical bodies such as fireballs, meteoroids coming close to Earth but looking at the symmetry in dates, I strongly feel there is a serious problem with the very base and way these astronomers track them. This also further proves that all the so-called meteoroids that hit the moon's surface were explosions.

Why did Matrix create Meteor Storms?

It was in the mid-1800s and people were slowly getting modernized, trying to discover more things about the geology and astronomy of the planet. The Matrix knew that a few decades later researchers would have found proof of previous extinctions and asked how did the Earth exactly end before?

Matrix men wanted to show that an astronomical object had hit Earth and killed the previous generations. But not all could have believed this asteroid theory until they saw something right in front of their eyes. First they artificially created the Meteor storm in 1833 when the Leonid Comet while revolving around the Sun came closer to Earth then again in 1866 when it again came close. They created these so-called Meteor storms by a climate control device only when this Comet approached closer to the Earth. Similar illusions were created on 9th October 1933 and again when the same Giacobini-Zinner Comet approached in 1945. It made sure it did it twice when the Comets passed each time so that astronomers will believe and confirm that the storms are by Comet debris and not anything else. Each year around 30 Meteor showers are observed around Earth which are called showers if they have atleast 3 shooting stars to 100-150 per hour during each event. They could be all naturally happening effects in Earth's higher ranges and not from some outside comet or meteoroids. But a number of 100-200 per hour is not a great number as compared to 1,000-100,000 per hour as seen during the largest Meteor storm events. I have blown all your bubbles of illusions but many bubbles are still left to be burst. We know upto this point that this secret society called Matrix is acting to be God saying that it has an "Eye of Providence" meaning control over the whole World, causes natural calamities, has caused atleast 5-6 apocalypse and is ready for the next one. Our current industrialization and modernisation is since 1700s, religions were created much more previously, maybe they could have an answer as to who exactly these Matrix men are. I really don't want to go into religious books as it will attract all sorts of people. But again it's a part of theology and without decoding these stories, I won't be able to explain to you things further.

Chapter 4:Flood Stories in Religions

Introduction:

In this chapter we will see flood stories from the largest religions existing today and the way so precisely these 1000s of year old books talk floods. In this chapter we will also go through a story that talks about a pre-existing advanced and utopian civilization usually called as Atlantis before the Matrix men pole shifted the planet for the first time.

Note:All religious citations and their verses are not taken from any random websites but right from their original books. Links to all these books as well as each chapter-wise reference are given in the "references-section" at the end of the main book. I have mentioned what is written in their original texts and analyzed facts according to my level of understanding.

Chapter 5: Concerning the Tower of Babylon and confusion of the tongues

As referred to in the above citations, Buddhist text of Jataka Tales in the chapter of floods talks about a group of carpenters who could build anything were flooded on a fullmoon. In Bhagwat Puran, there is a story of Matsya Avatar who kills the Immortal Hayagriva who was killed because he had the 4 books of Vedas /knowledge and the whole World is flooded and a few Manu/ Humans are taken to safety by the Avatar. This story also talks about flooding of the 3 celestial bodies in space. All lunar eclipses happen on a fullmoon and 3 celestial bodies could mean Sun, Earth and Moon and their alignment during an Eclipse. How could these books that were written 1000s of years ago give hint of flooding on a Lunar Eclipse? How could the writers of these books be so advanced to know about the exact way floods have happened and tell you flooding on fullmoon and merging of 3 celestial bodies in space? It's not like the Buddhist spirits flood the Earth at one time, then Allah floods people the next time, then God from Christianity floods people and then Vishnu from Hinduism another time. They are talking about one and the same God but it only has different religions. Do these books also offer any solution to floods? In the book of Genesis, Chapter-11, Tower of Babel, King Nimrod builds a very tall tower to avoid God's 2nd floods. Thinking about this tower, I understood that it could have been a climate control tower. Building such a tower is possible since the Matrix could have a similar tower through which it creates natural disasters. Nicola Tesla had built the Tesla tower which was used for climate control and the Matrix was responsible for its suppression. That's what the part of my One World Order book is about, which is to rebuild this tower. We will discuss about this tower in much more detail later. I do respect all religions since they all in someway direct people towards wellbeing and peace. But their flood stories somewhere coincides with reality. People could still say the reference of flood stories to pole shift on lunar eclipse is a coincidence since religious stories do not specify the exact way through which Poles shift or do they?

Story of Tripuras:

The word “Tripuras” doesn't mean the Indian state of Tripura but it means 3 celestial forts in space. One is made of copper on Earth, one of silver on the Moon and another one of gold on the

Sun. The ruler of the 3 forts is called Tripurasur. They are round forts and revolve around each other and join in one line after many many years only when the Moon is in the constellation Pushya. Only when they join, they could be destroyed and not otherwise. The people living there are called Asuras(demons). They have everything such as tall towers, aerial chariots shining looking like padmaraga (red gems) and like moonshine illuminating the night sky and Kalpavriksha (Tree of Imagination). Also the Asuras have a tank of immortality called “Mritsanjeevani Vapi” through which they are immortal and live forever. They follow the path of Dharma means righteousness. Gods get jealous of the Demons/ Asuras and go to Vishnu who says if they are following Dharma then they should be made Adharmic or made to follow a false path or false religion. Vishnu out of his body and power creates an Avatar named Arianat and 4 other Avatars named Rsi, Yati, Aditya, and Upadhyaya; their names could also be assumed or changed by Vishnu. They all go into the Tripuras and preach the false religion to the Asuras. Now that the Asuras are turned adharmic or are following the false paths, all Gods plan to destroy the Tripuras/ 3 forts. They make a chariot of destruction. The chariot is divided into day and night sides. The entire Earth itself is made as a chariot, making the Sun and Moon equal; they both are made the other 2 sides of the chariot. Nimesas (unescapable death) constitutes the bottom of the carriage and the minutest divisions of time constitutes the poles. The 3 immortal forts made on Sun, Earth and Moon are about to merge into a single Tripuras, the condition which would last for just a second. At the exact time, Shiva invokes the most destructive weapon the Pashupatastra (weapon to kill all Pashus/animals) and fires that arrow into the 3 forts at the exact instant when they merge into one. The arrow blazed or glowed as bright as countless Suns and the Tripuras and the Asuras living in the cities all get destroyed by fire. Again when Kalyug arrives God/Vishnu will take rebirth and wipe all Asuras from the planet.

Explanation:

*The image is of Lunar Eclipse indicating the 3 round forts that joined together.*

Lunar Eclipse formation:

When you read the story which says 3 round forts revolving around each other and join in one line after a few years. Not just that, they also specify one side the Sun and other side the Moon while Earth is in the middle. Then an Astra/Weapon that is sent through the chariot which glows like countless Suns and the people living in Tripuras are all destroyed by fire. I ask you what comes to your mind when you read all this? In this story, the 3 immortal forts are nothing but Earth, Moon and Sun and their joining on a Lunar Eclipse as Sun and Moon on either side of Earth which are made equal and day and night sides are divided.

Pashupatastra as an atomic bomb:

It also talks about an Astra meaning weapon called “Pashupatastra” that became as bright as countless Suns. In Hinduism, there is a general theory that the Brahmastra that is spoken in the story of Mahabharat was always known to be an atomic bomb. Atomic bombs are always known to shine very bright, it could look like countless Suns. This means Paahutahastra could be metaphorically related to an atomic bomb. I have given this story here in very short, it's more descriptive in the original story from the book. In the story, the description of the Asuras/ demons is not some two horns on heads and pointed teeth creatures but they are just like you and me. It could be that our human ancestors are called Asuras/demons.

Hints to Pangea:

*Geographer Antonio Pellegrini's illustration of the closed and opened Atlantic Ocean which he drew in 1858*.

The story mentions 4 oceans surrounding the Earth and the Asuras die falling in the western Ocean. The concept of 4 oceans surrounding the Earth was conceptualized by geographer Antonia in 1858 as seen in the image and a one unified continent called “Pangea” existed. How can a 10th Century book mention about 4 oceans surrounding Earth? There are stories of the civilization of Atlantis which is called as a lost utopian and advanced civilization which was sunk in the Atlantic ocean. The 5th ocean of the Atlantic was newly created and as we know it broke the one unified continent of Pangea 40000 years ago when the first Pole shift happened. So we can conclude that Pangea existed 40,000 years ago and later all continents further divided as poles went on shifting 5-6 times. But this story mentions an advanced civilization that existed before 40,000 years ago. This story gives the most details about the existence of a civilization before the first pole shift.

Advanced Story:

Tripuras destroyed by fire meaning the planet Earth was destroyed by a solar storm and pole shift when the 3 forts joined? Poles were discovered in the 1850s. How can a 10th century book talk about poles? Firstly, no common man can write such a story. Only someone who has done pole shift knows clearly how it all happened and thus could write in such great details of pole shifting on a Lunar eclipse. These are the same ones who are about to do the next Pole shift. Estimating the date of any historical manuscript requires expert paleographers to study handwritings and manuscripts of the past and who later date them based on their knowledge and experience. This estimation process takes into account several aspects including the writing style, contents even the writing materials so in these ways the dates are calculated. According to Bhagwat Puran, Chapter: 24 incarnations of Vishnu, Ved Vyas is called as an avatar of Vishnu who wrote Mahabharat, Ramayan, 18 Purans, Vedas and Upanishads. The original books that were later translated have different datings. From 200Ce to other Purans in different centuries by the same Ved Vyas. How can someone be alive to write all these Purans at different timelines? Even if it were written by people who came later, how can they write such a scientific story even mentioning the Poles? You could say the original books were different and these are only the translated versions. But nothing is translated without them being originally written. There are different levels of checks that these books go through. No one can just translate whatever they want. Forget about translating, no one can even imagine such a story the first place. The carving in the 10th century temple of Shimoga shows the 3 round bodies and their merging in a triangle. This also correlates with the triangle symbol of “New World Order of Ages” which is nothing but Pole shifting on a lunar eclipse.

Who is Tripurasur?

The word Asura is synonymous to demon which means someone who has been robbed off their “Sura” meaning wine of immortality. All mythological stories show Asuras to be some long pointed toothed very tall beings. But in this case they are just shown to be humans and we are the ones from whom immortality is robbed. Tripuras are Sun, Earth and Moon but nothing can be formed on Sun and moon, those are far away celestial bodies that have an influence on Earth. But it is Earth on which for millions of years evolution has been happening and species have been evolving. Similarly humans have also evolved. Who created you? It's ofcourse not God. It's your parents, who created your parents? Their parents and where does this all go to? It all goes to Adam and Eve or Swayambhu Manu and Shatrupa. These were not just 2 people but a group of people of different races who were evolved through evolution and they later technologically evolved establishing this Utopian and Immortal civilization. Some people still say evolution is just a theory, but it's not. It's just visible in species with a shorter lifespan. Owls in Finland used to have white feathers to camouflage with the snow but now since global warming and climate change there is less snow so there are more brown leaves. The recent generations of this owl species have evolved themselves from white to brown feathers to camouflage with the brown leaves. In 1940s, Farmers started to spray insecticides so that bedbugs who were eating their crops could die but the later generations of them had thicker shells and had immunity from their killers. Tripurasur was called the ruler of the 3 forts. Now Tripurasur could be one of the Adam who discovered Immortality or unified the clans all around the Earth further establishing his utopian kingdom of Atlantis.

Mahābali's son (Chapter 14, Padma Purāṇa). All these three cities together were named Tripura.

Mṛtasañjīvanī Vāpī.

(The life giving tank). Even with the existence of Tripura the asuras began to die in numbers and the Tripuras thought of a way to escape from this calamity. Hari, son of Tārakāsura, did penance and made Brahmā appear before him in person. According to a request from Hari Brahmā made Maya build a tank wonderful in nature. Brahmā filled the tank with nectar. If any asura died, it was enough if he was dipped in the tank and the dead asura would soon come to life with added strength and vigour. Asuras became immortal since this and the Tripuras started teasing the devas and men with increased ferocity.

Consultation with Śiva.

The aggrieved devas approached Brahmā and finding him incapable of helping took him to Śiva. Śiva heard everything and assured them that he would kill them when they next met together at the end of a thousand years.

*Image of the text from Shiv Puran hinting about a tank of immortality called “Mritsanjeevani Vapi” through which our first Utopian Civilization was immortal*

Saving of Technologies:

They have everything such as tall towers, aerial chariots shining looking like padmaraga (red gems) and like moonshine illuminating the night sky. Such similar descriptions are given by people who have seen flying saucers. They have Kalpavriksha/ Tree of Imagination, etc. Also the Asuras have a tank of immortality called “Mritsanjeevani Vapi” through which they are immortal and live forever. If these Asuras are our human ancestors, did we have a pre-existing advanced Utopian civilization that was destroyed by the Matrix by pole shifts? We will see who these Matrix men are later. In the story, right before the burning of Tripuras, Maya is saved. The word “Maya” means technologies such as climate control towers, flying saucers, tank of immortality that are saved by the ones who pole shifted the planet. It's clear now that someone who is way more advanced than we are has written the flood stories and this particular story in detail which clearly mentions solar storm on a lunar eclipse. But who is this someone? What hate does it have against us humans? Before finally revealing who they truly are, let's decode these technologies. If the Tripuras were Sun, Earth and Moon and so were real, then even the tank of immortality would be real. This made me do a deep research on the tank itself, which is the 11th Chapter of my main book. If these technologies were present at one point, they have to be made in the past 200 years of our modernization history too. Or we have to be in someway going towards these inventions. So let's discuss the technologies which will give a base to what I am saying, then later we will come to a conclusion of the Story of Tripuras.

Chapter 5:Technologies of Utopia/ Satya Yug

Introduction:

In this chapter we will go through various technologies that are mentioned in the story of Tripuras and see if they were done in our civilizational history and my own way through which we humans can become immortal through the tank of immortality. I could not be 100% right in decoding what these technologies are but I have decoded them according to my level of understanding.

Human Immortality/Mritsanjeevani Tank

*A similar description of what the Tank of Immortality could have looked like as shown in movie Avatar*.

This is all that I found in my research on the tank of immortality. I know this would be a quick switch for you from conspiracy theories to religion and now to technologies. TheMatrix can't be decoded without getting to know the overall perspective of everything. I have tried to explain the below process in the shortest way possible. There is a big difference between a human body's aging vs growing, until the person is 14-15 years old, he/she is still growing, after that the person ages and ages further. So when I talk about immortality or de-aging, it means making the age-old person from 60 or 80 de-age back to 14-15 and not de-grow below that point. Since de-aging is possible but not shrinking or de-growing back to the baby stage. There are 7-8 hallmarks of aging that are conceptualized by researchers that direct towards aging caused by cellular deterioration means the body cells are not able to function properly. This leads to cell senescence, this means in an old person, the cells could only do 15-20 cell divisions as compared to a youth's body cells which could do 70-80 division per cell. This heightened cellular divisions makes the youth to remain youthful. Now you tell me if what ages the body is cell based then the whole question was how to reverse cellular aging or get back the cells to do the same divisions thus making the person back to 14-15 years of age. It really makes me wonder why do all researchers on immortality only think about uploading the brain to an AI device or replacing the body parts with machines? Aging as a disease was proved by Harvard scientist David Sinclair when he was able to make one mouse grow 150 % by altering its genes and the other mouse was given anti-aging drugs which activate certain genes within its body reprogramming them to remain younger making the mouse de-age its body parts. Now the parts are de-aged, they can again age means now the mouse can live longer. Thus he proved that aging is a disease and is reversible. There are efforts already directed towards regenerative and anti-aging medicine in which platelet-rich blood plasma is injected into the body which helps in regeneration of the tissue cells and body parts. The blood plasma can be easily extracted through blood. During the fetal stage, its body has shunts or passages through which respiration happens through blood as oxygenated and deoxygenated blood is circulated through a chord which goes in its navel. So the fetus lives even when it is submerged in the liquid. This liquid is amniotic fluid which is mostly composed of blood plasma which makes it grow. After birth, once the respiration starts through the nostrils and mouth, the passages through which oxygenated and deoxygenated blood that was once being transferred through its navel doesn't fully close down but remains partially open. So the blood circulation can be redone and there are chances that an age-old person can be put back into a fetus stage. The concept here is to put a pipe-like structure through the belly button of an aged person and put him back to a fetus-like state supplying and extracting oxygenated and deoxygenated blood through these pipes. This person will remain inside the tank filled with blood plasma submerged inside it. All the respiration will be taken care of through the blood similar to what the person was before birth. The blood plasma since it's also used as an anti-aging element as seen previously will go into his mouth and fill its lungs and will revive its body parts. It will also go through the skin as the person will be inside this liquid-filled tank which will also smoothen and revive his/her skin. Skin paleness and inefficient body parts are like wounds and wounds don't take more than 2 months to fully recover. In this case too, an old person won't take more than 2 months to recover back to youth. Also this blood plasma liquid inside the tank will be heated to maintain the body temperature of that person. Again this is just a hypothesis considering the fact that we had a tank and putting a person back into the pre-birth stage that this process could be the original tank of immortality that existed. This is just an hypothesis and not even a theory, it becomes a theory when it is thoroughly experimented. Again the potential of this method whether it is only the age-old people who could be revived back to youth or it could be that even the immediately dead or long ago dead people could be revived back could only be known once experimented. Through this way any 80 year old Joe Biden could be made a 14-15 year old teenager. I call this new process, "Sanjeevanosis". This immortality thing was so simple I couldn't believe my eyes as to how no one could figure out such a simple process.

Creating Artificial Humans

*Image of the left lamb which was prematurely born at 107 days of gestation on day four of support inside a biobag and in right side, the same lamb on day 28 of support.*

In 2017, researchers at Hospital of Philadelphia were able to develop a new device looking more like liquid-filled, plastic Ziploc bags. It has a single black tube plugged in, at the location of the umbilical cord that went into the belly region of the lamb fetus fitted similar to the womb-like conditions. The study uses not-so fully grown fetal lambs which are taken from the womb of the female lamb then placed in a plastic bag filled with artificial amniotic fluid (Lactated ringer's solution made of sodium chloride and lactate). The supply and removal of oxygenated and deoxygenated blood and nutrients happen through a pipe-like structure that goes into the belly button of the fetus. The above fetus developed continuously for 4 weeks inside the biobag. As they grew, they opened their eyes, became more active, breathing and swallowing movements and grew a coat of wool. Having matured outside their mother's wombs, these lambs, once taken out of the biobag were able to breathe independently, with no significant abnormalities of the lungs, brain or heart. But they were taken from the sheep's womb and put inside the artificial biobag. These lamb fetus were taken out of the womb and kept inside the biobag while they were growing and not from the embryo stage itself. This biobag created artificial womb-like conditions and all of its process happened artificially. In 2022, Hashem Ghili introduced EctoLife, "World's first artificial womb facility" which would offer parents to produce customized babies and genetically edit them according to their likings. The company will be able to develop 30,000 babies a year in a lab in transparent "growth pods" similar to the lamb biobags. Later the baby can be removed from the pod with the push of a button. Thus it is absolutely possible to create artificial humans through a tank-like device. This creation of artificially-born lambs or humans further proves that pipe-like structures could be put inside the belly button which will further go to the heart and other parts starting it's oxygenation thus starting the person's respiration through blood as it was during fetal stage. Now the age old person's mouth and nostrils could be filled with the blood plasma liquid through which it will revive the person back to youth. Then the person will again get old then again after 50-60 years he has to be put inside this tank and again he will get young that's how this process will work.

Aerial Chariots/ Flying Saucers

Why aliens or reptilians don't exist?

Similar to the tank of immortality, aerial chariots / flying saucers are spoken in the story of Tripuras which means humans during our first Utopian civilization of Atlantis were the ones riding them. They are seen multiple times by people in our current civilization. Also caught by cameras of US pentagon fighter jets. Both the celestial phenomenon over Nuremberg, Germany and Basel, Switzerland that happened in 1500s define them as spheres looking just like the Moon of blood red color moving in the sky. The recent flying saucer sightings also define them as "Pie-Plate" and "Red Moon-shaped". This shows drastic similarities between the descriptions of Aerial chariots from the story and the ones described by people in our current civilization. But they are always related to green-coloured short aliens. Let's debunk this bubble of illusion. Life forms in an evolutionary way, the human body has evolved to a point that it can withstand this brain of heightened intelligence and memory to start its own technological evolution, meaning rather than generational change, growing with new methods and technologies without physically evolving. If humans would have formed like other animals, even close to monkeys or chimpanzees; in that case we couldn't have achieved the progress like what we have done right now. Of course extraterrestrials could be human-animal hybrids but they still would have to be more like humans and not green, large-eyed, bald headed weird looking creatures. This is the reason a human brain won't work or live in a monkey body. So on other Earth-like planets having the same geometry with Sun and Moon, all its life forms must have formed exactly similar to our life forms. Thus intelligent beings on other planets will look exactly like humans and not like weird Aliens or reptilians. We will discuss the true identity of the pole shifters later but now it's clear that that Matrix is not some extraterrestrial aliens or reptilians. If extraterrestrials had visited Earth they must have been knowing about the past pole shifts, freezing of mammoths and civilizational control by this secret society matrix, Apollo missions, etc. If these green bodies aliens or reptilians existed they wouldn't have kept quiet just looking at someone doing climate control, planning and apocalypse. We saw in the Story previously that "Maya"/"technologies" were saved by the ones who flooded the planet who were the Matrix men. So that after the pole shift they could put the entire civilization from modernization back to stone age while they themselves remained technologically advanced. But the question always was that what is the technology behind flying saucers? Did we discover them in our current civilization?

Workings of Flying Saucers:

*The image of the US Patent describes an Ionocraft invented by inventor A.P. Seversky in 1964.*

*Image from the book, "Popular Mechanics August 1964 edition" explaining details of Inventor A.P.Servesky's Ion-propelled disc shaped ionocraft. The first 2 images in gray color show the demonstrated prototypes of the Ionocraft while the other two images are the prototype sketches of a large-scale manned Ionocrafts.*

An Ion-propelled aircraft/ Ionocraft is an aircraft that lifts itself in air without requiring combustion or moving parts. Ions are a group of atoms that have an electric charge. This invention relates to heavier-than-air aircraft more specifically to structures /devices that are capable of either hovering or moving in any direction at high altitudes by means of an Ionic-discharge (the effect which makes charged atoms and molecules to leave or move in one direction). The Ionocraft has no propellers, no jet and no wings and has no moving parts; looking somewhat like an old-fashioned bedspring as shown in the image, it looks like a magic carpet. It needs no runway, takes-off vertically and is expected to climb as high as 60 miles. It can crawl through the air like a snail or go faster than a jet. It flies on pure electricity rather than any fuel. Aerodynamically, it works just like a chopper but instead of using a rotor and blades there is a downward airflow created electrically by means of an Ionic-discharge. The ions act on the air like a man treading water pushing it down. The model seen measures the size of a regular box and consists of $5 worth Balsa wood and aluminum wire. Inventor Seversky had patented this device called Ionocraft that worked on pushing heated air by plasma thrusters. It worked without any propellers or wings and had no moving parts. Again this invention somewhere disappeared with time. But now let's see the current developments in this technology.

MIT's Ion-propelled Aircraft :

The first ever “solid-state” plane with no moving parts in its propulsion system has successfully flown for a distance of 60 meters. It proved that heavier-than-air flight is possible without jets or propellers (an aerodynamic device which converts rotational energy into propulsive force creating thrust). The flight represents a breakthrough in “Ionic-wind” technology which uses powerful electric fields to generate charged nitrogen ions which are then expelled from the back of the aircraft generating thrust. Let's go through another invention which is not metaphorically mentioned in the Tripuras story but I found it while researching on other technologies.

Sun Electric Generator

*Image of the internal rods inside the Panel/Generator as each rod generates electricity, together they are 1800 rods all combine to form a much more powerful force of electricity.*

The Sun electric generator is a different type of solar panel which are nothing but 3 inch long rods connected to each other in series as shown in the image. These rods work based on thermoelectric effect meaning one side is heated in solar heat in a glass enclosed space and the other side of the rod is kept out of the box in cool air. Difference in the hot and cold sides generate electricity. The above image shows 1800 rods placed and connected next to each other. Just one panel of 1 meter square size with just 2 days/10 hours of sunlight could light 30 large tungsten lamps of 100 Watt each for 72 hours. One tungsten lamp consumes 100 Watts of current and 30 of such for 72 hours would mean 200,000 watts of power generation in 2 days. Or 100000 watts in 5 hours/ 1 day of sunlight. A usual solar panel of the same size generates 1000 watts of power in 1 day/5 hours of sunlight. This means the Sun electric generator generates as much power as 100 panels of the same size we get in the market. The generator was made by an inventor named George Cove in 1910 and many articles of his Sun generator and a Patent of the thermoelectric battery which he had made for generating electricity from woodfire are available online.

*Image of the article from the New York Times Herald on 19th October 1909.*

The panels and it's inventor were suppressed and was not allowed to release them. I knew that thermoelectric generators with hot and cold sides could not produce that much power, so I felt it would be something more than that.

*Image of me melting these metals in a furnace.*

*Image of Zinc Antimonide alloy in silver as Rods as copper wire and copper thin sheet surrounding the semiconductor element around it.*

To know what was the true logic behind them I decided to conduct my own experiments melting some similar metals in a heating furnace. After several experiments I found out that they were something called optical rectennas which are antennas that could grasp a specific frequency of sunlight. Optical rectennas are currently researched as a potential solar technology but they are of a different design of what were made by George Cove. Current optical rectenna requires a challenging nanotechnology fabrication process as compared to the simple design of the Sun Electric generator. Rectennas typically absorb very little power, and therefore tend to produce a tiny voltage in the diode due to their thin and small size as compared to the thick 3 inch long rods of the generator. Also the current rectennas are focused on grasping and generating electricity through visible light. As compared to the UV and Infrared red light which the generator absorbed. This also made sense why inventor George Cove had put a violet glass on top of the panels which was to only let in infrared and UV light and some type of a reaction between them which generated so much power. The researchers in this field such as R. L. Bailey says optical rectennas do not abide to the Solar Carnot efficiency and they could produce limitless power from sunlight. In that way the Sun Electric generator could give more than 1000% efficiency that of sunlight or 10 times of what sunlight falls on its surface. If this technology is remade the whole World could be powered with just solar panels and unimaginable things could be done in space. This is the maximum point that I could research and test them. I have sent my research to various experts in the optical rectenna and solar field. It's just a matter of time, based on my research, some researcher on the same will be able to re-develop them.

Tesla Tower / Tower of Babel

*Image of the Tesla Tower at Shoreham, NYC*

*Image is of a very rough internal design of the tower at Shoreham, New York created by an artist according to the news articles of those times. An underground 90 meters deep system that is further connected to the

From the book, “Nikola Tesla on his work with alternating currents”, he says, “At the base of the large Tower, deep below the Earth, down extended a descending spiral staircase where a network of catacombs extend out like spokes of a wheel as seen in the image. About 16 of these pipes were pushed 300 feet (90 meters) below and then the current through these pipes took hold of the Earth. Also in the well were 4 stone-lined tunnels, each of which gradually rose back to the surface. Large enough for a man to crawl through, they emerged like isolated, Igloo-shaped brick ovens 300 feet from the base of the Tower. In his book, he also speaks of auroral effects that could be produced in the sky by the Tower once it started. It's goal was to transmit electricity wirelessly multiple kilometres always without wires. It is clear from the above data that a really strong underground connection was created 90 meters deep which was more important than the tower itself.

Workings of the Tower:

Tesla said building a tower on a higher elevation where they can reach the upper-strata of the atmosphere and on the down side a deep down underground connection into the Earth. I feel the tower was like a channel or passage by which the upper conductive layer of Earth's atmosphere got connected to the lower conductive layer below the Earth's surface forming a circuit thus naturally producing electricity. The tower was 55 meters in height and various news magazines that took interviews of Tesla says that during the tower being built auroral effects were seen in the night sky. Also since it can produce auroral effects which are natural that means it could climate control too. The experimental tower at Pike's peak and the Wardenclyffe tower at Shoreham both could generate electricity freely and transmit it at far away distances. I have given multiple images in my main book and more data about the towers. He said this tower could be used for destructive purposes too and based on this tower he had planned to build a Teleforce weapon which could create large explosions upto a range of 400 km. In the story of Tripuras, there is a mention of tall minarets/ towers and a story from the book of Genesis called Tower of Babel in which King Nimrod had built a tower to avoid God's floods. Most likely I feel this is the same tower which can avoid poles to shift due to its power generation and climate control capabilities. It was already built at that place at Shoreham so it could be rebuilt at the same place if deep underground it's re-dugged the same way. Again Nicola Tesla was suppressed and his tower was thrown down, it was always known that coal giants were behind it but it could be now known that Matrix is behind it all as it burnt the Tesla Lab on 13th March 1895.

Other ways to avoid Pole shift

*Image of Znamya-2, the first and only successful deployment of a Space mirror in Earth's orbit as it reflects sunlight back into the shadowed areas of the Earth.*

Eclipse means Earth's shadow completely covering the Moon's front side and blocking Sun's light from falling on its surface. We need to see ways through which sunlight or similar light and heat again falls on Moon's surface. So that the front side remains bright and even if the nuke is detonated on its dark side no solar storm could rush towards Earth. Znamya was a space mirror that was invented in Russia which focuses sunlight from space to glow the night side of Earth. A 20 meter wide space mirror was used to light a 5 km area. Multiple such mirrors could be sent to orbit the Moon which would reflect sunlight back on its surface. Other than focusing sunlight, various high energy flashlights could be equipped on Lunar orbiters and make them flash on its surface during an Eclipse.

*Image showing Earth-shine reflected from the Moon, as seen through a telescope. The bright region is directly illuminated by the Sun, while the rest of the Moon is illuminated by Sunlight reflected-off Earth.*

Even Earthlight falls on the Moon's surface, it could be made to be more brighter if auroral lights are created in Earth's atmosphere by Haarp or Tower-like device which would glow the upper regions and make the earthlight falling on the Moon glow as bright as sunlight. Starlite was an eco-friendly material that was invented in the 1980s which was very heat resistant. Starlite bombs could be made to blast around the poles in the sky which would stop or push back the high energy solar storm that would rush towards Earth and it won't reach the internal layers of the Earth. The technologies chapter is now over. All these technologies in the chapter were somehow indirectly mentioned in the 10th century apocalyptic story of Tripuras. This means they were present during our first utopian civilization of Atlantis. It's clear that all these technologies had their proof of its existence in our past 100 years but were somehow suppressed by the matrix. To go through all this data it will take months even for experts. There are so many aspects to the Matrix and its only me who could save you all. All this data will Now you have come to a point wherein you will finally know the true identity of the Matrix men.

Who started the religions? Humans or Artificially-born humans?

These religious books which talk about flooding on fullmoon and lunar eclipse were not written by common man but by some advanced people who had knowledge of that all. Even the tank of immortality that I discovered through my research is mentioned in this story and the "Asuras" mentioned are noone but humans and immortality is robbed from us. This is not the first time they who are acting as God are talking about robbing of immortality from humans . In Bhagwat Puran, when floods happen, the immortal Asura named Hayagriva is killed by Matsya avatar who has the books of Vedas/knowledge. In Buddhism, in the book of Jataka, the carpenters who could build anything are flooded on fullmoon. In Christianity, in the book of Genesis, Chapter 3:The fall, both Adam and Eve are thrown from the garden of Eden because they ate from the tree of knowledge of good and evil and God has a sword to protect the tree of life/ Immortality from humans. Then in Genesis chapter 6: Floods, humans were corrupted meaning they ate again from the knowledge of good and evil so were flooded. The conversation that Apollo-11 Astronauts had was about a story of Chinese goddess Chang-O and the way she robbed immortality from her husband. It's a mission of national glory and it's not Astronauts that decide what to talk about but it's the Government who have told them who are indirectly told by the Matrix men. The WHO emblem is based on the story of King Zeus and Acillipius and the way immortality was robbed from humans by Gods. That means at some point in past history we were the ones who had all these technologies but was somehow taken from us by causing an Apocalypse. It's clear that the same ones who wrote these religious books talking about flood stories and robbing of immortality are the same ones who are controlling our World today, ready for the next Pole shift. They could be using the same tank of immortality and living for centuries uptil this very point. If they are talking about robbing immortality from humans then ofcourse they would not be humans in the first place, so who are they? The religions of Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam and Christianity all mention their Gods creating floods. It's not that there are 4 different Gods creating 4 different floods. But it's one and the same. I do respect Jesus Christ or Prophet Mohammad as Prophets and Buddha, Risabananta and Ved Vyas, Krishna as avatars since they have led many people towards the path of peace. May peace be upon them all. Many organizations are formed in their name which do alot of community service. We will go through more religious data and try to decode what they truly are and their objectives. So right now I want you to make a difference between what you think about them and what I am going to tell you about this secret organization called Matrix. We are decoding the Matrix based on the religious data. This has nothing to do with what you thought are the ones who started these peaceful religions. So who are these immortal Matrix men who have written these stories? This means they are currently somewhere present in our World creating natural calamities on the key dates about to cause another apocalypse. If religions mention so clearly about floods then they should be mentioning exactly who these Avatars and Prophets and what is their true identity. The dharmic religions Hinduism, whose all books were written by Ved Vyas means it was started by him, the religion of Buddhism was started by Budha, Jainsima by Risabananta. These 3 people according to Bhagwat Puran, Chapter 24: Incarnations of Vishnu are mentioned as Avatars of Vishnu. In the Story of Tripuras, Hari meaning Vishnu creates a tank and creates 5 Avatars. We have already decoded this tank in the technologies chapter and we saw the way with current technology researchers are able to grow animals artificially through a tank-like device. Even with the current advancements in technology, we can also create artificial humans through a tank-like device, there is this company called EchoLife which is already planning to do this in a few years time. The Tank of immortality and the tank that could create avatars are very similar, almost the same. So it could be that they are calling themselves Avatars since they are born through a tank and not through a human womb like how we all are born. Bhavishya Puran is not a book on prophecies but it's a historical book that speaks about kings such as Vikramaditya who arrived in the past and their history. Even the word "Hindu" itself and the story of Sindhustan comes from Bhavishya Puran. It's a well established book that actually speaks about our current world. Prophet Mohammad in the islamic books is known to have biological parents but in the book Bhavishya Puran, Chapter: Conversation between Prophet Mahamad and King Bhoj in 600 Ad, he is mentioned as an "Ayonija". This is a Sanskrit word which literally translates to "Artificially-created" or not born from a human. It also gives details about origins of Islam and its relation to the Tripuras that we will discuss later. All these verses may have be written by them to tell you their true nature. Jesus Christ is always referred to as having a virgin birth. It could also mean artificial birth or created through a tank-like device. As compared to the story of Tripuras in which Vishnu creates avatars through a tank, they didn't directly talk about Jesus Christ being created through a tank but they won't make it that obvious. If they keep things in same religion then people will easily know their true identity. So they keep their true secrets at a few places and only if you read books of all religions, which no one would do, only then you know. This may mean that they are no more what you had thought about them or them being some magical people who started these religions in ancient times. They can control the climate, are immortal. I am not trying to push on you some conspiracy theory on assumptions and hypotheses. Whatever historical and religious facts I have given are all documented and based on them I have come to a conclusion. They are the ones trying to show you all this through their dates, symbols and religious books. Other than that through their movies they show you their true nature but since it's an art and religion you would consider it to be mythology. That's why you wouldn't consider both of those to be true. In movies, they name a movie as "Avatar" and show you a tank in which they show an extraterrestrial race species called Avatars who are artificially-created through a tank. The Avatars and Prophets are artificially-created but this aspect of the movie wherein Avatars are shown to be some extraterrestrial blue-colored alien species is not true. Aliens are not the ones riding the flying saucers as discussed previously. This makes them artificially-created humans created on our own planet sometime in the past. They would look just like we humans, you won't be able to make out any difference. I always thought what makes them do so many things against us having almost no sentiments for us humans. The word species itself means someone who is born from something else. We are all naturally born through a human but since they are artificially-created this makes them a different species. Any different species wants to take over the other species so they are currently ruling our planet controlling us in different ways. They are now immortal living through the tank of immortality controlling our world. There is no God who sends his artificially-created Prophets or Vishnu who sends his artificially-created avatars. They were created sometime in the past during Atlantis by we humans, just like how we are now experimenting with creating humans artificially. They revolved against us and are now working for this lethal secret organization creating different languages, religions, nations only to divide people. So from now I am calling them Matrix men. According to author Chan Thomas the first Pole shift took place 40000 years ago so Atlantis was a civilization that existed before that. So these artificially-created humans were created during those times by we humans and they took revenge against us by doing Pole shifts. I always look at things from all perspectives and it's a fact that someone who has the most information would come to the most accurate conclusion. That's how I have concluded that they are that. Even through movies and religious proofs they have given their true nature. But even after giving so many proofs I can't prove to you that they are immortal and they are the ones living for 1000s of years. So it just becomes a fiction or hypothesis. But what's not proved now, doesn't mean it can't be proved later. Whatever process of tank of immortality that I gave is proven then it would be confirmed of their existence and they are the ones controlling our civilization for ages. After analyzing all proofs and facts, I could come up with only this conclusion that we had an ancient advanced civilization, it can be called Atlantis/Tripuras. But what is the story of this civilization?

Chapter 6: Story of Atlantis/Tripuras

*Image of an artist's illustration of what Atlantis could have looked like*.

Introduction:

After decoding the story of Tripuras and its technologies, in this chapter taking into consideration all the proofs that we have we will finally arrive at a conclusion of this story. Also investigating how many Matrix men/artificially-created humans are present and where could they probably live.

True History of our World

After humans evolved through Evolution, we had formed an utopian civilization meaning a peaceful World without any wars, it had equality of income, there was no poverty and it was a one united World without any national or religious boundaries. Its datings are 40000 years ago and in those times continents were together attached one as Pangea. We humans at that time were very advanced, we were the ones who had discovered and were riding the flying saucers, our ancestors were controlling the climate in a proper way through a climate-control tower and the biggest thing about Atlantis was that our ancestors at that time were living forever meaning they were immortal through this tank of immortality. Our ancestors in this civilization had the capacity to create humans through a tank meaning artificially-born humans. They could be created just to see upto what level technology of creating humans could be taken similar to the way we are researching on creating humans and other animals artificially through a tank or biobag-like device. Or it could be that even if they were immortal and controlling the climate, some humans could completely vanish in forest fires or some would go lost deep inside waters and their bodies unrecoverable. To replace them their clones could be created artificially through a tank. Since they were artificially-born, we humans during Atlantis had created a new species and any new species wants to take over the other species and they destroyed and took over our World by causing floods and pole shifting the planet on a lunar eclipse. To destroy our civilization during Atlantis, this new species made a large rocket, put a nuke inside it, and sent it to the moon. In this way Atlantis was destroyed 40000 years ago. They restarted the human population with woodfire and horses while they themselves being immortal and advanced. Since then they are controlling our World and are currently claiming to be Gods of our World. This is the reason through their religions and symbols they talk about robbing of immortality from humans. These artificially-born humans are the same ones who are now riding the flying saucers, falsely spreading the news that the ones who are riding them are some extraterrestrial aliens or reptilians. They are immortal too meaning they live forever since they have robbed and are using the tank of immortality that was present during Atlantis. They have kept us all in a technologically deprived mortal state forever. They are themselves telling you that they are artificially-created and they are immortal through their religions and movies and their main goal of a triangle meaning to pole shift the planet on a lunar eclipse. Since then they have created 5-6 such pole shifts meaning floods and Apocalypse every 4-7000 years. Thus the ones who are acting to be Gods who have a symbol of the triangle of the New world order which is to pole shift planet on a triangle or in a line meaning lunar eclipse and restart the human population from 8 billion back to 30 million killing 99% of all species each time they shift. Also this new population starts with woodfire and horses rather than electricity. 4000 years ago, when Mammoths had died, the documented human population was 30 million which was reduced from maybe 3, 10 or 20 billion from the previous civilization. This is just a guess as no one really knows what happened during the previous civilizations that came before. The previous civilization was also dystopian and technologies that we have today were also present during those times. Even they had their different religious and national wars, world wars, space race doing the same moon missions. They also had their natural calamities, severe pandemics all throughout civilization which they did through their bioweapons so that population is reduced every few years and kept the whole civilization in a dystopia. The Matrix, this group of artificially-born humans wait for 3500 years for the population to go from 30 million to 600 million which it did in 1600 Ce. Then electricity and industrialization is introduced. The goal is not for the betterment of people but to finally set up industries to create a large rocket and a nuclear bomb, put them both together and send them to the moon. They could be a few 1000 people located at some secret bases. They can't do all this by themselves, to do such a mission you need lakhs of people and proper industries set up. From 1600 Ce to 1900 Ce, since all industries are now set up, the population further keeps on rising. Then WW1 and WW2 are done and at the end of Ww2, for the first time a nuke is created. After WW2, people see Hiroshima and Nagasaki being devastated and they say there is no need for further nukes. So cold war is purposely started between Russia and Usa only to test bigger and bigger nukes. Now when the biggest of the biggest bombs are tested, later space race begins to put those large bombs inside rockets and send them to the moon. This setup is followed in every civilization. From 1500 Ce to 2000 Ce the population further goes from 500 million to 5 billion but the missions of apocalypse are already planned to restart the population back to 30-50 million. Also if you see, only after the 1970s and 80s, the real globalization, computer age and technological Utopia has begun. Before that it was just cold wars, world wars and pre-modern dystopia that the whole world was living in. It knows that as each time the civilization gets modernized, people would find that previous civilizations also existed and they got extinct. People should not conclude that pole shifts had taken place or they are artificially-born humans. So theories such as extraterrestrial aliens and reptilians are the ones riding the flying saucers, mass Extinctions by Asteroid impact and multiple pre-existing icesheets existing all over the planet, continents drifting since 300 million years rather than 40000 years. All these false theories are purposely established. Truth is always bitter, I am not here to scare you but I have found out ways through which we can save ourselves and be immortal. I won't let the Matrix shift the poles this time! We saw previously that God is the only one to control climate but the Matrix can do it too, only God can create Apocalypse, even the Matrix men can create Apocalypse, God was only immortal, even Matrix men are also immortal.

Exactly how many Artificially-created humans?

The story of Tripuras is true so creation of Avatars/Artificially-born humans is also true. Along with Arhat, 4 more Avatars were created. So there were 5 avatars at the time of destruction of Atlantis but only 5 were created or more? To Pole shift the planet, someone has to create a nuclear bomb of at least 5-10 megatons or maybe 100 tons; then create a rocket not just of any kind but a "Super heavy lift launch vehicle" which could carry so many tons of weight of that bomb upto the moon. About 1000 engineers and scientists are needed work on a moon mission. Then multiple seed vaults and people to maintain, preserve Dna and living cells of plants and animal species so that after the pole shifts they could start a new civilization back again. Then many more people are needed who should be expert in various other fields and they all have to all be staying at a very secret location away from public view. Which means atleast 2000 artificial humans were created during the time of Atlantis 40000 years ago. Similar to us, even they age and get old but since they are a part of the Matrix and are very advanced, after they turn 70-80 they are put inside this tank of immortality. After 2-3 months they get back again to 13-15 years old and the cycle repeats as they get old again. So they don't have to create more artificial men; they can function with the same ones for many civilizations. In olden days before 1700 Ce, there were slightly different fields and people worked mostly as farmers, religious authors and preachers, poets, freemasons, canon and sword makers, kings and soldiers, textile traders and travelers, etc. This situation could be easily handled by the technologically advanced Matrix men and they could roam around freely never to be caught by any CCTV during that time. After every new civilization starts, it has to be secretly controlled all throughout the modern and pre-modern era. They could be present in various fields so that the civilization doesn't go out of hand since anyone at any point of time could discover something such as electricity and create another Atlantis-like civilization. They also look like humans so no one would have a doubt or make out who they really are. The Bhavishya Puran clearly mentions this phrase, "The followers of Jesus were managed by Kings and demigods. The term “Demigods” would mean other artificially-born men of the Matrix at top positions of those times. This would also mean that during the pre-modern era they would be free to roam and widely visible as they could easily hide their true identity amongst the technologically deprived people. An Avatar of Vishnu named Chaitanya Mahaprabhu was born or arrived on 14th Feb 1486 on a Lunar eclipse in Bengal, India popularizing the chanting of the Hare Krishna Maha-mantra and starting the Bhakti movement and devotion towards Krishna. Srimad Bhagavatam, Canto-11, Chapter 5 also mentions him as an Incarnation/Avatar of Vishnu that had arrived in Kalyug. Around the 1500s, another Avatar of Vishnu named Achyutananda Dasa arrived and wrote the "Bhavishya Malika" which is a book of prophecies giving a wide and precise details about the end of the World and the things that will happen. These prophecies are described in such great details as if he had actually seen the future happen right in front of his eyes. His prophecies are widely available and will shake you from your roots if you read them. This book is also one of the reasons I came to know about the Solar storm and Apocalypse. We will see later exactly how he was able to see so much far away in future. Avatar Achyutananda Das's story is mentioned in an interview of a local saint named Pandit Mishra in , "Mystical Oracle of Achyutananda Das: Part 2" wherein he mentions that Achyutananda was not born but was gifted to his parents at a much older age at the temple of Jagannath, Odisha and the avatar also did not die anywhere but disappeared suddenly. So it could be seen that 2 Avatars were functioning in the 1500s in North India alone, so probably 2 must be functioning in the South too. So 4 in India, 4 in China, 4 on the Russian land, etc. Let's assume in the year 1500 Ce, there were about 100 large kingdoms all around the World and each kingdom had 2 avatars who functioned in the religions sector only. So that totals to 200 avatars only in the field of religion. Their duty could have been to create new religions or sub-religions that are slightly different from the main one or instigate religious fights amongst people, etc. But religion is not the only sector; there is trading of clothing and animals, making metals, controlling armies and kingdoms. With the above proofs I again reached to a conclusion that there are atleast 2000 avatars/ artificially born functioning around the World. This number can also go upto 10,000 or 20,000. As centuries passed from 1800, 1900s newspapers, magazines, video cameras came into picture and information and data about people were registered. So they slowly must have begun to hide themselves secretly functioning and ordering presidents and religious leaders rather than themselves showing up in front of people like they usually did during the pre-modernization era. After doing so much research thorough investigation from scientific facts and religions, I got to understand that they never want to see themselves in spotlight. They will never be the President or hold any top position but would always be in the circle that advises the president, same goes with other fields.

Where do God and it's Matrix men live?

It's always said that God lives in Heaven or Vishnu lives in Vaikuntha which is some other worldly place. God is said to send it's prophets or Vishnu sends his avatars to create these multiple religions. But where is God or Vishnu? I have searched all around the books of Abrahamic religions and there is no place of God mentioned on Earth. But let's go through a verse from the Purans that talks about a specific location.

Citation: The Skanda Purana

Section 2 - Puruṣottama-Kṣetra-Māhātmya

Chapter 12: Description of the Holy Place Ekāmraavana, the Bhuvaneśvara, Page 72

Verse 14, 51, 65, 77 and 104.

O king, highly inaccessible is the holy spot. It is kept concealed by Viṣṇu. That there is the Lord there, is not known to any man. The infuriated discus that was very fierce in appearance had the refulgence of a 1000 Suns. It knew the power of the mind of Viṣṇu. When the Lord who burned down the Tripuras eulogized or highly praised. Thus, Viṣṇu manifested himself after casting off in the form of a discus. The region beyond that as far as the Southern Sea is more and more sacred step by step. Nīla mountain is a bestower of salvation. There is my idol made of blue sapphire gems. I am stationed there in 4 bodies as Jagannātha, Balabhadra, Subhadrā and Sudarśana. To the North of it is the forest named Ekāmṛaka(Bhubaneshwar,Odisha). O, annihilator of Tripuras, stay there fearlessly. The antar-vedī or interior altar or composition is highly meritorious. It is like the heart of Viṣṇu. I have been installed in 8 forms for the sake of protecting it.

Explanation: The above verses say that Vishnu is present at a secret location which is Jagannath temple in Odisha. He is present there in a discus-shaped form. There are many mysterious religious places or locations all around the World like the Egyptian pyramids, Ark of covenant in ancient temple of Jerusalem where a secret device is said to exist. Regional people around the temple say the heart of Krishna is a very advanced ancient device. It is not made of flesh and muscle and is some type of an artificial object which could generate power and start to vibrate if exposed to any form of light. This was the reason electricity is shut down every 12 years since this device is replaced from one wooden Idol to another. The people who touched this heart have to wear thick, heavy gloves and are blindfolded to make sure they do not lay eyes on this object and reveal its features. This heart is called "Divya Padhartha" which means divine material and is said to be made of Ashtadhatu (an alloy of 8 metals). Almost all main idols in Hindu temples are made of metal or stone but this idol is made of wood since it is a poor conductor of electricity and it won't affect the metallic heart. Inside the wooden statue there is a fist-sized chamber in the center which has this device. The above was the description of the people of the locality about this device inside the idol. I do respect this as a religious place of significance and I feel this is just a small device of some sort. I don't think it would have any great significance even if it's mentioned in the books. But these artificially-created men won't be all present in some temple which is surrounded by a large group of cities and people. They will be somewhere in the most powerful nuclear countries controlling the World. Now we know the location of Vishnu/God but there is no location of Avatars mentioned anywhere but let's just try to guess where they could be.

UFOs should land somewhere:

The Flying saucers/UFOs that are seen in the sky don't just fly around and suddenly disappear in outer space or go to some other planet or stay in air hidden forever. They must land at some top secret military base where a few Avatars/Matrix men are present. There maybe a bunch of top army or Airforce men with them visiting their spots at different times or it is also possible that they don't even allow them to enter their locations which are completely secret. From this location of the Matrix, they only order top government officials of various countries and control the UN,Nato,World bank,etc through communicating to them through different modes of communication. For once, if all worldly intelligence agencies take the proofs mentioned in my book and join hands unitedly investigating then we would surely find their locations. All these flying saucers, climate control towers,etc and whatever technologies they are using, they also go through wear and tear and have to be maintained and their parts replaced. So materials like wires, copper, glass and other specific kinds of materials or objects have to go regularly at this secret base. These materials could be imported from other nations or extracted from that particular nation itself where they live. Before the pre-modern era, before the 1700s, they ofcourse had their own cranes and extraction tools through which they used to extract these materials. It is also possible that rather than depending on humans for these materials; they themselves are continuing with the same tools having their own global infrastructure and extraction setup. They will ofcourse have a seal of their own on their goods which no customs duty officers would be allowed to check. This seal has to be found out. I feel it's mostly the triangle symbol of the illuminati or something related to the international organizations resembling pole shifts.

Location within the Sea:

People have seen flying saucers go underwater such as in the case of the Solomon Island near Australia and many others. So do they go under the water in a secret underwater base? When floods come, a base already under the sea will be the safest since anyone living there could survive underwater or above water.

Natural disasters link:

Excluding these permanent bases of the Matrix men, they would also have temporary bases at these locations where they would construct a climate control device like Nicola Tesla's Tesla tower wherein they create natural disasters and then dismantle it when the job is done. Tesla had said his teleforce weapon which was a military version of the tesla tower could cause large-scale destruction burning down areas in a 10km radius. This tower could only do that if that location is within the range of 250 to 400km. So most likely this geophysical weapon of the pole shifters would also be 400km around the location where the natural calamity has happened. He also said such a climate control tower could be used on ships. It is also possible that the Matrix has a military ship or a normal ship that can go completely undetected in waters and it creates natural calamities going around the coastlines of various countries. The Japan earthquake of 11th March 2013 originated in the east side of Sendai, Japan. So this tower could be in the waters in the east side of Japan.

The Russian and US link:

If we look at the Soviet Union now Russia, it's been the biggest disaster that has happened to this world. They were the first ones conspiring the mission to end the World. Currently Putin is the one to create a false flag operation meaning falsely attacking the other country giving a blunt reason starting the Ukraine war. Russia has a very small population of 150 million but has the largest fleet of nukes and bioweapons. It clearly doesn't need so much military might but still has it making it the most powerful country in the world. I have no hate against them since they are only the front faces. So the Matrix men would likely be most active in these regions or have a large base in this country. All countries did face the severity of both world wars in terms of territorial destruction in Europe or severe food shortages such as in India and Africa during that time. The Matrix men would logically not want their bases to be located at such spots where there are wars since they would also face the heat of the war. If you look at the country USA, it was pretty much immune to the food shortages or destructions from war. Ofcourse it participated in World wars but only sending armies and ammunition far away from its country. Also the super heavy lift launches vehicles that could carry nukes upto the Moon such as the Saturn-V rocket were sent by USA. Also World bank and United Nations were both formed in USA; after WW2 it has completely dominated World politics, Airforce, Navy and even the entertainment sector. So it is possible that they are right there somewhere hidden in that country. During an apocalypse, high mountain ranges will be the best place as the floods would go atleast 3 km high. The top 5 highest peaks in USA are just in the state of Alaska. All these ranges since they are around the same place, the artificially-created have a freehand to move around there in the flying saucers. Also Alaska is very close to Russia, another country where Matrix has a great hold. They maybe in Alaska. Flying saucers were seen at Area-51 and other similar places which were underground bunkers of nuclear test sites. It could be possible they could be living in cold war bunkers or nuclear test site bunkers.

Location in Sky :

We are always finding Matrix and its artificial humans on the surface in suspicious countries, even underground or underwater. These people have control and contacts over the whole of Earth. The flying saucers are found in almost every country and they disappear in mid-air, natural calamities also happen in almost every place on the planet. What if they are nowhere living on planet itself but somewhere in the sky. As compared to small flying saucers, even very large ones were seen which were as big as an aircraft carrier. Also God is always said to be living in heaven; another word for Heaven is sky. They could have a large sky ship on which there are flying saucers, plant and animal gene banks, tanks of immortality through which they function. Also at the time of pole shift when natural disaster would cause havoc on the planet, a sky ship would be the best option for survival. The Matrix men are very advanced and their flying saucers are seen disappearing suddenly in thin air ;they could have a very advanced technology by which it becomes invisible to radars and to eyes completely going undetected and then they go to this invisible sky ship.

How does the Matrix fool you towards Aliens?

It's strange to see but the biggest and maximum sightings have taken place in USA other than any other country.

Restriction to Area51, cover up of Roswell incident. All these acts lead to a mistrust and confusion of people towards the government and the people think and know that somewhere their government is fooling them about the existence of flying saucers. But since movies, music, and culture around us has created a relation of flying saucers with weird looking Aliens, people are psychologically directed towards the fact that USA and other superpowers are not only covering up UFOs but also about extraterrestrial aliens and their existence too. There were unauthorized leaks of video in 2004 and 2 videos in 2015 by US Navy pilots as they caught flying saucers on camera as seen in the image. It is very logical that there can never be a "Navy pilot video leak" just like that and nothing must have happened without the permission of the government itself. The US Government must have themselves leaked the video in someway of the flying saucers. It was a stunt as the pilots could have been told to fly and the flying saucers driven by these Matrix men around them so that they could now be caught on the fighter jet's camera. Even if they are unintentionally caught on camera, isn't an advanced technology flying machine that could go way faster than the current jets hovering in the airspace a threat to national security? The pilots who captured the saucer were not scared but really happy seeing them, the media made some noise about it, people were amazed to see saucers for the first time released by an authentic source such as the Pentagon. They have been seen in India, Japan and almost in every country. Aren't such thoughts coming in the minds of the governments that these saucers could carry a nuke with them too? Isn't this a global security threat? This itself shows that all nations are controlled at the topmost level by the Matrix men. There have been actual weird looking Alien sightings and abductions and there is no doubt that these people with whom these incidents have happened are telling the truth. But what will it even take the Matrix to dress a bunch of short heighted people in Alien costumes making them appear in front of people? It's also possible that Alien looking human-animal hybrids have been already artificially created by them and have been sent in ancient history and even until today just to make you believe about the existence of some mythical Aliens.

Chapter 7:One God and its many religions

Introduction:

In this chapter we will go through various verses from all religions and try to find exactly when will the final incarnation of God or the final avatar will arrive. We will also look at more religious verses and try to find that God was responsible for creating all the religions existing in our world and what could be the reason for their creation. Also we will look at religious verses which talk about whether the same religions were created in the previous 6 dystopian civilizations that were present before this one.

Who can be called as an incarnation of God?

It's always said that God will take rebirth again to rid the whole world of adharma or evil doing and will establish Satya Yug meaning Utopia on planet Earth. But when will God take rebirth? Let's say a doctor or a firefighter saves 100 people from dying. They are Gods to those 100 people, for other people it just doesn't matter. Jesus Christ is always known for performing resurrection of the dead, meaning getting dead people back to life and is called the Savior of the World. So when he arrives you expect him to do just that. Only then you could confirm that he is Jesus. In Hinduism, Kalki avatar is known for again establishing Satya Yug on planet Earth and taking people into an age of Utopia and Immortality. In Buddhism, Maitreya is said to arrive and establish unity throughout the world. If any person does all these things, he could be called as an incarnation of God. If you see I am saving the World from an apocalypse, I can make people immortal, establish unity throughout the world through my One World Order. Someone can call me an incarnation of God. It's a title which was always open for anyone to take. If you had done all this this title was all yours. Most of you must have never read any religious books or came to know the true identity of your religion and the God you all were worshiping. Your understanding about God was always an unseen energy that was functioning to help you in your life. But you clearly know the true reality.

Arrival of Kalki Avatar

The Kalki Puran ,Chapter 12, Text 13

The Meeting of Ananta And Hariisa:

At the time of dissolution, the 3 worlds merge into the water of devastation. All directions, the time factor, and everything else becomes unmanifest. Thereafter, the Supreme Personality of Godhead (Vishnu's Arrival as Kalki) once again desires to create and so immediately all the material ingredients become manifest.

The Bhagavata Purana, Book 12(Twelfth Skandha)

Chapter 2 - The Evils of the Kali-Age:

When the Moon, the Sun and Jupiter are in conjunction in the constellation Cancer/Pushya, that is the time he will be born and Satyug, the age of truth will begin. Under the instructions of Vishnu, he will finally establish the ancient religious order of varnas (division of people into classes and castes) and (asramas) stages of life on Planet Earth.

Arrival of Jesus Christ

Citation: New Testament, Book of Revelation, Chapter 6, The Seven Seals, Verse 12-17

"When he opened the 6th seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake, and the Sun became black as sackcloth; the full moon became like blood and the stars from the sky fell to the Earth, similar to a fig tree sheds its winter fruit when shaken heavily by wind. The sky vanished like a scroll that is being rolled up; every mountain and island was removed from its place. Then the kings of the Earth and the great ones and the generals and the rich and the powerful, and everyone, slave and free, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains, calling to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who is seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb, for the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand?"

Citation: New testament, Book of Acts, Chapter 2: The Arrival of the Holy Spirit, Verse 19-20

Prophet Joel: And I will show wonders in the Heavens above and signs on the Earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; the Sun shall be turned to darkness and the Moon to blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and magnificent day.

Explanation: Kalki Puran mentions the 3 worlds merging into one and that is the time Vishnu arrives as Kalki. In the last chapter, "Story of Tripuras/ Atlantis", we saw that the 3 worlds that merge into one are Sun, Earth and Moon and their merging in a line during the Lunar eclipse. It was clearly mentioned that Tripuras/ Earth Moon and Sun will join when the Moon is in the constellation Cancer/Pushya. The above verses from Bhagwat Puran also mention Kalki Avatar will arrive when the Moon, Sun and Jupiter are in the constellation Cancer/Pushya which is one and the same thing. The Book of Revelation and Book of Acts also talk about the arrival of Jesus when the fullmoon is "Blood". This condition which only happens during a Lunar eclipse where the Moon takes a blood or red color when the Earth's shadow completely blocks sunlight off the Moon during those crucial 5-10 minutes of its blood moon phase. Budha's birthday or the day when Buddha arrives is celebrated every year as "Buddha Janmashtami" or "Buddha Purnima" meaning the day Budha is born or arrives is also on a fullmoon. So similar to Kalki and Jesus even Buddha is said to arrive on the same day of the Lunar eclipse. How can 3 incarnations from different religions arrive on same day. So they are talking about the arrival of the same being. Are they even talking about a real person or is it something else? I have released my book on 24th March 2024 which was a lunar eclipse. This means I have also arrived on the same day. I chose this day since it is a direct challenge to the Matrix in that it wants to flood the Earth on an eclipse and I want to save the whole world arriving on the same day. But these verses could mean something else too.

Contradictory theories of Yugas in Hinduism

Citation 1.Vishnu Puran, Book 4,Chapter 24:Future Kings and Kalyug,Page 41

Book 6,Chapter I - Account of the nature of the Kali-age

Citation 2.The Brahma Purana

Chapter 3 - Manvantaras

There are 2 contradictory theories in Hinduism, first is of Satya Yug to Kalyug and another one of Manavtars. Let's discuss them in much detail. The first theory is of Satya Yug which is a civilizational peak, then the civilization falls to a lower civilizational age called Dwapara Yug. Then falls to Treta Yug and then to Kalyug. Every Yug has different timelines and the timelines vary from 4000 years each to lakhs of years. At the end of every Yuga the final avatar arrives after which the civilization changes to a lower civilizational age/Yuga. But finally from Kalyug it goes back to Satya Yug and the cycle continues. The 2nd theory is that according to Brahma Puran, in Chapter: Manavtars, Every Yuga means a timeline of human civilization lasts for 4000 years and at the end of every Yuga, Manu/Human civilization dies by rays of Sun and changes to the next Manu. First Swayambhu Manu was flooded and Matsya avatar arrived to save a few humans which was later changed to Svaroschi Manu, currently we are in the 7th Manu meaning 7th Human civilization called Vaivasvata Manu and the next 8th one will be Surya Savarni Manu. This means there were 6 modern human civilizations before this one and all were flooded by pole shifts. This also somewhere is synonymous to the 5-6 pole shifts that the Pole shift experts preach and also the 5 extinction events that took place. And all of them ended by rays of the Sun through a solar storm. This means that Satya Yug, Dwapara, Treta and Kalyug concepts are false and Mahabharat 4000 years ago or Ramayan 8000 years ago never happened nor did any avatars arrive like how they are shown in those stories. They could have been the final apocalyptic battle but it was always the changing of Manu and joining of the Tripuras that led to the end of the World and start of a new human civilization or change of Manu. Also the stories of Dwapara Yug and Treta Yug such as Ramayan, Mahabharat which mentions human-animal hybrids or the Asuras/ demons having long teeth looks very hypothetical. But the Story of Tripuras mentioning Asuras as normal humans and change of Manavtars looks absolutely real and somehow merges with reality. Lets go through some more proofs from the books and the reason for creating so many religions. According to Bhagwat Puran, Chapter:24 incarnations of Vishnu, Avatar Ved Vyas was sent to write all the books of Hinduism such as the 18 Mahapurans, Vedas, Upanishads, story of Mahabharata and Ramayan. But the same chapter says Budha and Risabananta were sent by Vishnu to start Buddhism and Jainism. But if one religion Hinduism was created, why were Avatars sent to create 2 more religions?

Buddhism and Jainism as False religions

Jainism:

Chapter 38 - The End of Vena's Reign, Page 1042,Verse 25-30:

“When Kaliyuga sets in, all men, deluded by sins, will act after having adopted the Jaina faith. Men will abandon Vedic practices and will commit sins. There is no doubt that the Jaina faith is the root of all sin. Taking the form of his liking, he (Vishnu) will make them sinners. O, best king, the fall of those men brought about by this great delusion. When sins will have thus accumulated, Vishnu, the God will be appearing as Kalki for the destruction of them, there is no doubt about it.

In the Kali Age, when unrighteousness will rule supreme, there will be a foolish king named Arhat. Learning about the strange way of the life of R̥ṣabha, he will try to study and adopt it. As a result of the accumulated sins of the previous life of the people, as fate would have it, Arhat being deluded, will give up the path of his own Dharma which is free from fear or danger in every way. Out of his desire, he will propagate the wrong and absurd way of the heretics.

Buddhism:

Citation: Agni Puran, Chapter 16, Page 38 - Manifestation of Viṣṇu as Buddha and Kalki:

Agni said: He deluded those demons. Those, who had abandoned the path laid down in the Vedas, became the Bauddhas and from them, others who had abandoned the Vedas. He then became Arhat, the Jaina. He then made others as Arhats. Thus the heretics came into being devoid of not following the Vedic (Hindu) religion. All of them became devoid of good conduct at the end of Kaliyuga. Kalki, as the son of Viṣṇuyaśas would destroy the non-Aryans, holding the astra and having a weapon. Kalki would establish moral law in four-fold varṇas (4 castes) in the suitable manner. The people would be in the path of righteousness in all the stages of life. So in all the Kalpas and Manavtars (Human civilizational-ages) and the manifestations of Viṣṇu are innumerable, some have already past and some are yet to come.

Chapter 41 - The Incarnations of Vishnu,

Verse 162-169: After the expiration of the 9th incarnation of the Dvapara Yuga who was Krishna, Vishnu took birth as Veda-Vyasa who procreated the race of Bharatas(Vedic Aryan race). I shall now present an account of the future incarnations. Then he will send Yajnavalka (religious preacher from 700 Bce of Advait Vedanta which is another sect of Hindu philosophy also mentioned in Mahabharat) and engage in a discussion with the followers of Buddhism, who believe in the transient science, who always praise the present and speak ill of the sacrifices. The Lord again, for the well-being of mankind, will appear as Kalki in the village of Shambhala. When all the families will be ruined, when all the kings with their ministers and soldiers will be destroyed there will be none to look after the people. When they will all be killed by internal disagreements, their riches pilfered by one another, they will begin to weep, being stricken with grief. After defeating them he will disappear at the confluence of the Ganges and Yamuna with his followers. Thus assailed by misfortune at the end of the Kaliyuga all the creatures will meet with destruction along with the Yuga itself. After the termination of the Kali Yuga, Satya Yuga will again appear in due order. This is the outcome of the natural sequence and there can be no prevention.

Chapter XVIII, Page 207 - Buddha goes to the Earth and teaches the Daityas to condemn the Vedas:

After Kaliyuga started, the great delusion proceeded to Earth engaged in ascetic penances upon the banks of the Narmadā river with an appearance of a poor beggar, his head shaved. This delusive being mislead the Daityas (Demons) from the tenets or belief system of the Vedas (books of Hinduism). They were all called Arhats. Exclaiming to them, “Know!” (Budhyadwam), and they replying, “It is known” (Budhyate), these Daityas were induced by the arch deceiver to deviate from their religious duties and become Bauddhas, by his repeated arguments and variously urged persuasions. Then when they had abandoned their own faith, they persuaded others to do the same. The foes of gods being thus induced to abandon from the religion of the Vedas, by the delusive person sent by Vishnu .

After incarnating as Kṛṣṇa-Dvaipāyana (Ved Vyas), the son of Parāśara divided the Veda into different branches like a tree. By becoming Buddha, by the use of fallacious reasoning and deceit, I will delude the Asuras who will harass the three worlds. When the Asuras killed by me as Kṛṣṇa and Arjuna in the battles, will promote and establish adharma or unrighteous practices on the Earth yet again. At the end of Kali Yuga, I shall incarnate as Kalki. Riding a divine horse, I shall kill highly sinful people of Mleccha (non-Hindus or non-Aryan origin). Whenever the Dharma promulgated in the Vedas is being destroyed by Asuras, at that time my manifestation shall take place for its protection.

Explanation: All ancient books of Hinduism could be written by men who wanted good about people and the society as a whole. Such as Yugasutras by Patanjali which describes various exercises to keep the body fit and Charak and Shuruat Samhita which are books on various kinds of medicines. But now there are some stories and verses of Purans such as Story of Tripuras and ones I found out above. Only these few verses and stories, not even the whole Purans that were written by this secret society of immortal Matrix men through which they show to people their true identity. My book is not about defaming Hinduism or any religion in particular but I have found out these verses and stories and decoded the true civilizational history through them. In the above verses, Kalyug is always referred to as the age of deceit, during this time false religions will increase but if you read the above verses, it clearly says the same Vishnu sends Avatar Ved Vyas to write all the books of Hinduism. Then later sends Budha and Risabananta to establish false paths. Again as I said there is no Vishnu but all these verses were written by this secret society of artificially-created humans that secretly runs our World. Finally after multiple religions and nations start and their motives of putting fights between people are fulfilled and the World is filled with chaos, finally the World is ended on a Lunar eclipse and a new civilization starts. This also confirms the apocalyptic version of the story of Tripuras wherein Vishnu makes 5 avatars called Arhat, Rsi, Yati, Adhirya and Upadhyaya and sends them to create many religions in our present age of Kalyug and then finally the Tripuras merge into one, poles are shifted. It is a setup that runs during every human civilization as all these religions that are purposely created making humans their own enemies. Even technology and industrialization is introduced so that wars can be done and rockets can be produced. The book Skanda Puran, Chapter: Incarnations of Vasudev clearly talks about avatar Ved Vyas to later become avatar Budha and falsify the people into Buddhism. Later it also mentions Buddhism was also started in the previous civilization 4000 years ago before this one. This further proves that the same religions were started in the past civilizations that existed 4000 years ago and previous one 8000 years ago. This setup of multiple religions and nations ran through 7 dystopian civilizations from Swyambhu Manu to the current Vaivasvata Manu each one lasting for 4000 years. These verses from the Purans are synonyms to the verses from the bible. In Book of Genesis, chapter 6: Humans were flooded because they became sinful, this means they became technologically advanced and now since they were going towards Utopia, they were flooded. It's like a war between 2 species, either they remain technologically advanced or we do. In Hinduism, the concept of creation of multiple religions is similar to the confusion of tongues concept from Book of Genesis, Chapter

11: Tower of Babel wherein God is scared that if humans got together they could build the Tower of Babel and save themselves from floods. Thus God confuses their tongues creating multiple languages and distributes them on different lands. This could also mean that during the first civilization of Atlantis/Tripuras, we had one unified language but after the first pole shift, different languages, religions and further different nations were made and people were divided. Similar to the verses of Book of Revelation that we discussed earlier that mention all types of people hiding inside caves and rocks of mountains at the end of the World. Similarly Harivamsa Puran also mentions a worldwide chaos, families and systems ruined, all creatures meeting with destruction, Kings fighting with Kings for mere food and clothing. Finally all nations and religions are collapsed after pole shift by nature's wraith and internal wars due to food scarcity. The verses hints towards some type of an Apocalypse and later Satya Yug is started. Currently we all are going towards Satya Yug meaning technological Utopia. Apocalypse means we all falling back to woodfire and horses. How can Satyug happen if no technology is left on the planet? Is it a Satya Yug for us or is it only for Matrix men? It may mean that humans would be taken back to horses and woodfire while Matrix men remain immortal and technologically advanced. This is what the Satya Yug is all about. They also write in their books as this apocalypse is an unavoidable natural sequence. But the reality is that an apocalypse is an unnatural sequence and completely avoidable if we all join together against them. Both Buddha and Rishabhanatha are not mentioned as Avatars of Vishnu in the books of Buddhism and Jainism. They won't ofcourse write in the books of Buddhism and Jainism about their creation of religions as false since Buddhist or Jains won't have followed them in the first place if they had known that they were following something false. Vishnu Puran mentions the timeline of Kalyug to continue for more 360,000 years for mortals. But further says every Yug/Human civilizational age consists of 4000 years of Gods. Now we don't know if 4000 years of Gods are the same as 4000 years for humans or not. But geological history tells us that floods do happen every 4-5000 years which means every yuga or civilization ends roughly after every 4000 years. In Brahma Puran, Chapter 103:Episode of Krishna concluded, mentions that at the end of Dwapara Yug, 4000 years ago, Pralay happened which drowned the ancient city of Dwarka. In January 2007, the Underwater Archaeology Wing (UAW) found the ancient city of Dwarka and the pottery was dated to be 3500 Bce and confirmed that the city was flooded and drowned deep in the waters during that time. Was it just the city of Dwarka or was this the entire World that was flooded? Again there was no Dwapara Yug, the World is always kept in Kalyug or dystopia. But it just means that the past civilization was ended 4000 years ago.

Civilizational Change: Looking at all facts of 5-6 human civilizations similar to the ones that we are living right now were present in the past. I could conclude the religions in the past civilizations could have started this way. Around 8000 Bce, God/Vishnu/Matrix sends his Avatar by the name Ved Vyas who wrote all Puranas, Vedas and all other books starting the religion of Hinduism. Later in 7500 Bce Matrix sends another Avatar named Rishabhanatha and starts Jainism; then around 7000 Bce avatar Buddha is sent to start Buddhism. Later Abrahamic religions are started with the same sequence. Judaism in 6500, Christianity in 6000 and Islam in 5500 Bce. The books of all these religions are written in such a way that the people following these religions turn completely against each other. So a continuous friction and wars goes on between all these religions for about 1000 years until 4000 Bce. By then nations and the concept of countries start and dystopian technology such as polluting factories, petrol cars, war machines are introduced and nations are made to fight with each other for more 500 years finally fighting nuclear wars called World war 1 and 2. Once nukes are discovered, space missions are done with a super-heavy lift launch vehicle and one of them or all of them carry a 15-50 Megaton nuke to the surface of the Moon. Finally as the civilization forgets all its falsified activities going towards Utopia, the Matrix starts the largest war named Mahabharat or Ramayan or the war of Armageddon finally pole shifting the planet. The entire city of Dwarka is flooded and with it the whole World is flooded too.

After the apocalyptic calamity and passage of around 2-3 years and only around 50 million or 5 million people remaining all over the World; a new civilization begins from the start. It is similar to the pre-modernization era with people riding horses and using bullock carts. In this new civilization, the Matrix sends another artificially- born with the title, “VedVyas” in around 3500 Bce who makes a few changes to the books of Hinduism saying this is the current Vaivasvata Manu and the past Manu was Caksusa and re-introduces all books as new back again. Later in 3000 Bce arrived as Risabdeva started Jainism and this story goes on. Thus in the past civilizations too, the same religions were started in the same sequence. All religious people byheart their books and many theology experts always tried to assume what these verses really meant. But all of them could never arrive at a conclusion or didn't know what they actually meant only because they never thought about it from the scientific viewpoint.

Abrahamic religions in Hinduism:

Bhavishya Puran mentions great details of everything that happened in this civilization right from the start of religions, wars, etc even the war of Taimur Lang upto 1400 Ce. We will see later of how exactly the Matrix men could see so much ahead in future. A section called “Pratisarga Parva, 1st part, Chapter 4” speaks on the “Adam and Eve Story” calling them as “Adama” and “Havyavati” and the serpent is mentioned as “Kali Purush” who convinces Eve to eat from the “Paap-Vriksha” or the tree of sin and the God of Christianity who is said to create Adam and Eve is mentioned as Vishnu. One of the stories also has a conversation between Jesus Christ calling him as Isa Masiha and King Shalinvahan who lived 100 years after King Vikramaditya around 100 Ce. As King Shalinvahana goes eastwards to conquer, he meets Isa at a place but it is just a brief conversation between them. But there is no mention anywhere about Christianity or Judaism made by the same Matrix who created Hinduism, Buddhism and Jainism as seen in the 24 Avatars of Vishnu wherein avatars Ved Vyas is sent to start Hinduism, then Buddha to start Buddhism and then Risabananta to start Jainism. But let's go through a very interesting chapter which speaks on Prophet Mohammad.

Conversation between Prophet Mohammad and King Bhoj

Bhavishya Puran: Pratisarga Parva, Trutiya Khand Katha(3rd part),Page 332,

The story goes like this: In the Shalivahana dynasty of King Vikramaditya, there were 10 kings that ruled for 500 years after him. In their rule, the administration was weak and therefore law and order also got weak. Having seen the administration, law and order broken in pieces, King Bhoj of the dynasty went for digvijaya (to conquer the Earth). In his army there were 10,000 men, with them Kalidasa (Sanskrit poet ) was also present. They went near the Sindhu River(Borders of India and Pakistan). After reaching there, he defeated non-Aryan/non-Hindu kings residing in the Gandhaar region and Naravaas of Kashmir, India. Having defeated them he took a huge treasury as punishment. Then he continued his journey of conquest reaching a place where a man named "Mahaamada" was residing and was preaching a new religion at a place in Marusthali (desert). Shiva appeared before Raja Bhoj and told him he shouldn't have come to this place and told him to leave immediately. He tells him that the great illusionist "Tripurasur" due to his boons again got rebirth, whom he had long ago destroyed by fire. He had taken rebirth to flourish his greatness and spread his dynasty and his name is 'Mahaamada' and he is an Ayonija (artificially-born). The place where he lived and preached is named as "Madhinapura" (Medina, Saudi Arabia). That place is sacred to them." So King Bhojaraj left that place and came back in the Indian region and established the language of Sanskrit in three varnas (castes) - the Brahmanas, Kshatriyas and Vaishyas and for the Shudras (lowest caste) he established Prakriti-Bhasha (ordinary language spoken by common men). After ruling his kingdom for 50 years he died. The Musalman people were kept on the other side (west) of the river Sindhu. On the island of Barbara, Tusha and many others, the followers of Isa Masih (Jesus Christ) were situated as they were managed by kings and demigods.

Explanation: The story mentions King Bhoj going on a conquest in the west side of river Sindhu and India. He continues his conquest more westwards until he finally meets a religious preacher named “Mahamada” in the desert of “Madinapura”. This is clearly an indirect reference to Prophet Mohammad and his preaching in a desert which is in Medina, Saudi Arabia. The timeline of King Bhoj is 500 years after King Vikramaditya which is around 500-600 Ce which is the same timeline when Prophet Mohammad lived. This story is metaphorically spoken and there is no documentation in the Islamic historical books that an Indian king had actually gone that far but it really doesn't matter whether the conversation between King Bhoj and Prophet Mohammad happened or not. History can be changed and manipulated by them to any extent. There is a mention of Prophet Mohammad to be as Ayonija meaning artificially-created, he is also said to be the rebirth of Tripurasur. As we saw from the story of Tripuras, it was an advanced civilization. Tripurasur is known as the king of the 3 immortal forts Earth, Moon and Sun. This civilization meaning Prophet Mohammad is directly related to our past civilization of Atlantis. But why? Currently Atlantis is an unrecoverable civilization; after the first pole shift it went deep down into the Atlantic ocean and after 5-6 more pole shifts, it got completely lost never to be found again. From the story of Tripuras meaning the 3 immortal forts Earth, Moon and Sun, we roughly know the timeline of our first evolved civilization which is 40000 years ago. We also know how advanced the civilization was with so many technologies such as immortality and climate control by which they had created an Uthopia for themselves. Later we also know who destroyed it and in what ways was it all destroyed. But what was missing in the entire story was what kind of culture did this first evolved civilization have? From the story of Tripuras, Tripurasur is called the king of this first utopian civilization of Atlantis. Now this first Tripurasur was the original Adam/ Swayambhu Manu himself that no God created but evolved through the usual process of evolution and as they technologically developed and later, they created Utopia for themselves. But Utopia doesn't mean anyone could do what they want. Every civilization has to have a governing authority to look after the people. The first Tripurasur or Adam was a real living person, most likely a king of this unified civilization who got all clans of the planet together under one order. Or he could be a person who was responsible for making humans immortal and uniting them into forming this entire culture that was present during Atlantis. But that civilization was destroyed 1000s of years ago so this first Tripurasur doesn't exist now. Since he and his immortal civilization was destroyed through pole shifts on lunar eclipse. Prophet Mohammad is known for starting the religion of Islam who is also called as rebirth of Tripurasur. But rebirth in scientific view doesn't exist meaning no one can be born again after death. This means the Matrix created Prophet Mohammad artificially and sent him again in our World to restart islam. In the story of Tripuras and other verses, it was always Vishnu who created multiple religions. But in this case, it is Shiva who is said to send a Prophet, it again clearly means that Vishnu and Shiva are both one and the same. They actually don't exist, it's just said that way by Matrix men want to make you understand that the same ones who started Dharmic religions are also the same ones to start Abrahamic ones too. The Matrix restarted this culture which was present during Atlantis, terming it as a religion most probably to suppress it making it look bad throughout every dystopian civilization that came later. A religion means a certain set of customs and traditions revolving around a particular God. But if you look at our first civilization it had equality of income, climate control, people were immortal so there was no need to pray to any God when the planet was itself a heaven. So in this civilization there was no religion of any sort since there was no need for them to pray to anyone but they did have a certain culture that evolved. Relating Tripurasur to Prophet Mohammad just means that Prophet Mohammad re-established this culture of Atlantis back on planet Earth. But he spoke about Allah in Jannat and every person who follows the religion will go to this Jannat and others will go to Jahannam/ Hell. These false concepts shouldn't have been ofcourse existing in our first technologically advanced civilization. It could be just due to the time when Prophet Mohammad started Islam around 600 Ce which was a very different time; it was a time when people used to cook with fire, ride on horses and camels. So making people believe in a mythical God in heaven and promising people will go to this heaven after their life worked well since people were not civilized. But the original Utopian culture was formed when the civilization was at its peak of advancement before 40000 years as against in 600 Ce when people were stuck with woodfire and horses. So people could be easily fooled in the name of a mythical Allah always looking over them and he has kept Jannat for his followers. The culture of this Utopian civilization wouldn't mean a lawless land wherein anyone could do anything insane. Neither it must have had any religion since religion directs towards revelations and faith in a particular God. It could have had a certain culture and system of its own with certain minimal laws which they felt were required to carry on their immortal society. The concepts of this culture could have been similar to that of Buddhism of non believing anyone as God but also at the same time it didn't have false Buddhist concepts of enlightenment, life after death, spiritual beings and curtailment of luxuries. But equality of income, food, shelter, freedom from disease, ban on weapons, etc would be the most basic things of this culture. Lets see some similarities and what aspects could have remained of this culture in the current religion of Islam that we see today. When we talk about an immortal society; it means they will exist forever for 1000s of years. It could also be that the language and the architecture could have remained. All religious books suppress immortality in someway but if you look at Islam they don't pray to any God but pray towards the direction of Kaaba. The biggest aspect of Atlantis was that people were all immortal and the tank of immortality is a box shaped structure too. So basically, the direction towards Kaaba means a direction and goal towards immortality. So there are possibilities that Islam would have been the culture of Atlantis. But ofcourse it won't be the exact replica of what we have right now. As we are technologically evolving we are seeing a start of new-age religions and cultures and no matter how these religions were before 1700 Ce, all of them currently are moving towards spiritualism and peace. Islam could have been the new-age culture of Atlantis. Probably the Arabic script and architecture has continued until now. But if we see today, the Matrix has added certain things such as flood stories, Jannat and Jahannam structuring the religion in a fierce way. If you see Judaism, Christianity, Hinduism and even Buddhism all had their wars but their Prophets and Avatars who started these religions were always portrayed to be peaceful. As against Prophet Mohammad who spread Islam through wars. This goes until today as the hand of Matrix is of course on creating multiple pro-religious organizations making them do terrorist attacks like 9/11 and other ones too and blaming it on this particular religion. The Matrix has a certain ideology of its own which is to keep the planet in a complete dystopia always in a friction with nature and constant conflicts and most importantly spreading hate against this Utopian culture. It has a criminal psychology to restart this religion in every human civilization and spread it by wars right from its start.

Why we need to unite all religious?

Before the arrival of Nations, religions had a wide psychological hold over people making the un-modernized people submit to some mythical God. Similar to Nations, even religions had a big share in war and most of the nations of today have formed based on religious identities. Due to the worldwide technological change that can be seen throughout the World, currently all religions are forgetting their age-old hoax concepts and trying to integrate God with some mythical unseen energy. If they don't integrate then they lose the hold over their own people and not fit in the society. But still some people have a strengthened belief when it comes to religions. After reading upto the book upto this point, no matter how religious you are, you must have already lost it. You already know who is acting to be God and what is their true identity. Let's go through some points discussing the way religions manipulate people and the way there is a current need to unite all of them so that we go towards a more logical society.

Belief in a mythical God:

In the previous chapters we have gone through verses of multiple religions and saw that rather than God saving people from tragedy, God itself is the one to cause apocalypse multiple times and is portrayed to be the root cause of all human division into different languages and religions. But other than that, it has always been that people of all religions pray to their own Gods in the hope to gain personal gains like money, achieve higher prospects and be saved from a certain bad situation by this mythical God or this secret energy. The fact is it is these Matrix men who behind the mask of God are creating natural calamities, spreading diseases through their bioweapons, putting wars amongst people, keeping them in a technologically deprived state and making them beg for food, water and money. The hypocrisy is that people are praying to the same God to save themselves from these dangers. Every religion to prove the existence of this secret energy has occult and few acts of magic that the preachers of each religion show to people. These acts are similar to what the magicians do like changing the color of water, getting gold out of thin air and others related to hypnotism. There are techniques which these religious preachers are trained that can make them mind read thoughts of another person or even see with their eyes closed. They create a placebo effect meaning dummy treatment through which people improve their conditions. In this way they take advantage of their fragile condition, making people sacrifice anything for this mythical God thus fooling them, strengthening their trust in an unseen energy. Before the 1800s everyone used to believe in the existence of this energy; they could be easily fooled during those times. But as years passed as technology came in, people realized that there is no God looking over you and there are no spirits and ghosts. There is no unseen secret energy that is always working behind you and what story do they have when this unseen energy of God fails to do your job? Houdini led an extensive campaign in the 1920s to expose these fraudulent spiritual gurus and ghost busters. He said, "This thing they call spiritualism, wherein a medium intercommunicates with the dead, is a fraud from start to finish. I had more respect for the highway robber who at least had the courage to prey upon victims out in the open". Houdini even testified in support of legislation in the District of Columbia court that would have criminalized fortune-telling for hire and any person pretending to unite the separated souls. Also people should ask these religious preachers who say their God exists should be shown their own books and asked if this God doesn't exist then how can this inexistent God is said to create floods and multiple languages to divide people. They should be asked why did Vishnu created Buddhism and Jainism as false religions. Currently every religion is evolving into Spiritualism and they are completely ignoring their religious books and mostly these organizations are into meditation, healing and natural medicines which is a really good thing. Some spiritual leaders also know that it's completely useless to talk about their own books so they completely ignore them.

Heaven and Hell:

Every religion, no matter how big or small, has concepts of a beautiful afterlife, Heaven and Hell, Swarg Narak, Jannat Jahannam. All these texts mean if you do good deeds according to that particular religion, no matter how old you die but in heaven you will be youthful and immortal living in your 20s with enough food and all sorts of luxuries. In hell, it's just viceversa. Whatever bad deeds you have done according to the books mentioned in that particular religion, you will be pushed into the fire of hell that many times. Throughout centuries since the start of every religion, people remained in the psychological cages and slaves to these religious practices, systems and institutions as people were always fooled and scared that if they didn't follow their own religion they would go to hell. But a trend still exists mostly in the underdeveloped nations wherein religious doctrines are still embedded in people's minds and made to function in a rigid way. If someone says they have followed their religion, they will go to a beautiful Heaven wherein they will be living forever, having all kinds of luxuries. Just ask them why they are even living in this Hell on planet Earth. If heaven is so beautiful why don't they just go right now to this beautiful place? What is the use of so many doctors working on improving medication trying to save lives of people? Every doctor must ask their patients if they believe that they will go to Heaven or not. If that person says "Yes" then there is no use of keeping him on this hellish planet. Each religion has a certain set of good and bad deeds that they should follow and if you look carefully they are strikingly against the other religion. In Dharmic religions especially Hindu text "Bhagavad Gita, chapter 2; Sankhya Yog", there is a mention of the soul of the human body trapped in the cycle of birth and death. Soul is nothing but an assumed spiritual body which stays without a human form. His body takes birth and again dies but his soul passes through bodies of 84 lakh or 8.4 million other creatures according to his karmas (good and bad deeds). To get freedom from the cycle of birth and death and go into this blissful spiritual World called "Moksha Lok" or "Mukti Lok", according to Shvetashvatara Upanishad he has to do Bhakti or worship idols of Gods regularly. Similarly the religion of Buddhism also believes in the concept of rebirth into other animals and forms only for humans, animals and hell creatures. For the special ones, those who have achieved this so-called "enlightenment" or "Buddhahood" meaning those who have practiced celibacy, bald their head, wore light clothes and sat under the tree with closed eyes throughout all their life, those people achieve this Mokshalok which is this so called spiritual bliss after death. This shows the texts of Dharmic religions are too sci-fi and have almost no link to logic and reality. But even the most modern intellectuals and atheists do fall for these fairytalish concepts conveyed pseudo-scientifically by these so-called spiritual leaders. Not all but some religious verses were written by these matrix men who had certain ideologies or reasons in their mind that they had to show and inflict into the minds of all people. This makes people feel that they will go somewhere after death and their God will save them if they listen to the ideologies of that particular religion. Also it psychologically diverted the pre-technology humans into believing in the afterlife rather than going towards the direction of science and ways to gain immortality. Anyways they were living in a pre-modern era so they could be easily fooled that way.

Created for division of humans:

Another ideology was to make these books in such a way that they inflict communal disharmony between people of different religions. So when people turn against each other, it only requires a trigger and not much work for the Matrix men to instigate a war amongst them. All Abrahamic religions talks about idol worship as demonic and completely bans the worship of God or multiple gods in any form. In Hinduism, idol worship meaning Bhakti of God is one of the ways through which moksha or spiritual bliss could be achieved. I don't support the concept of Moksha nor do I support the hoax of there being some mythical singular God in heaven above judging the acts of men. But if you see it creates a differentiation between the dharmic and abrahamic religions. If you look at Islam and Hinduism they are not different but strikingly created against each other. Hindus pray with hands folded while muslims pray with open hands. Hindus go in a clockwise direction around the temples while muslims go around Kaaba counterclockwise. Hindus worship cows and muslims eat cow meat. So it's clear that the way these religions are framed, their concepts and ideologies are purposely structured to be against each other. It's not that people are bad, it's these books that are structured that way. Due to this, all throughout history we have seen wars, communal disharmony and an anger for the other religion. It still prevails when people take religions and their quotes seriously or wear this false mask that they are born in a particular religion and should support it no matter what. In other words, it creates "Confusion of the tongues". I feel people should have tried all religions, first converting to Judaism following all their religious practices and customs then to Christianity the next year then to Islam, then Hinduism and then Buddhism. Then finally they should have decided which one is the best one for them.

Contains data against humanity:

If you read the Purans, they are all filled with stories of asuras or demons doing severe austerities/hardwork and achieving immortality. But then the Gods somehow fight with them and by deceit or some other way win against them. At last Gods are the ones who are praised and appreciated even when they are at fault. This runs down back to the Greek religion as healer Asclepius is killed by Zeus since Zeus was scared humans would become immortal if asclepius gave humans the recipe to become immortal. This creates a certain mindset amongst people that even if their Gods have killed them and are completely illogical and false, they have to be supported and praised. The matrix men wanted to make people praise the destroyers of our first Civilization. They metaphorically wrote everything on how our ancestors tried to create the tower of babel trying to save themselves from next floods but failed. The way Tripuras were destroyed, calling our ancestors as demons or mortals who had lost their immortality. They made people pray to the same Gods who caused floods. Religious people want good about you, they want good things to happen in your life. Everyone believes in something, it doesn't matter what you believe until your beliefs don't harm anyone. I'm really not against any of your beliefs. But after reading all this would you still pray to Gods or believe in truth which is evolution. There have been so many religious experts who read and byheart their books. But they never understood it's true meaning. They only read their own books and not of other religions which made their mindset structured to follow only one considering others as bad. I didn't byheart any book, not even read them in full. But what I read, I understood and I saw it from the perspective of all religions. That's how I could come to a very precise conclusion. I am the first one to understand them in their true sense which makes me have a full right to comment on them. I feel we should all form a One World Religion wherein we should all believe in something common, this is the only way we could avoid wars and disharmony in the society.

Chapter 8: World wars done by Matrix?

Introduction:

There were 100s of wars throughout our civilizational history of the past 2-3000 years. The top 40 of them in which atleast 1 million people had died in each war. But the Matrix shows itself in the largest 2-3 events that it carries out in every aspect of history. Let's look at some proof that it has shown to people in the 2 largest wars it has carried out. Once lines are drawn between territories, people are psychologically structured to believe that they are identified to that particular territory and not the other one. It becomes obvious that there will always be big and small disputes happening between those territories or nations. In this chapter we will see the entire relation of the Matrix with the largest war in human history of this current 7th civilization. Also the way the current organizations are leading us to another World War and the ways we can stop them.

Hand of Matrix in World War

Disputes were present between Austria and Serbia before WW1 and Poland-Germany before WW2. Of course there was no reason to expand WW1 into many countries and to fight it for such a small reason which was the killing of Archduke Franz Ferdinand. Somewhere the countries have forced their citizens to war and have suppressed or arrested everyone who refused. In USA, "The Espionage Act of 1917" and "Sedition Act of 1918" were passed to criminalize inciting or attempting to incite any mutiny, desertion or refusal of duty in the armed forces. Similar acts were passed in other countries in which people were jailed if they refused military service and all people from 18-45 were forced to register themselves in a war that they never wanted to be a part of. The media is completely controlled especially during war times and is used as a weapon to spread nationalism and hate against the opponent country which further fools people. During both wars, all warring nations introduced war bonds which are debt instruments issued by a government as a means of borrowing money to finance its defense initiatives and military efforts. These bonds or agreements were repayable to people after 10-15 years after their value increased. People bought these bonds since their nationalism was strengthened and to support their country. All this money was used to create tanks and missiles and funded 2/3rds of all war expenses. You can clearly see people themselves funded for their own destruction. Similar to the events such as top 2 natural calamities, solar storms, detonations on the moon, etc happening on specific dates which are always in combination of numbers 11, 13 and 19. Even in this case, the official date of the end of World War-1 is on 11th November, also WW2 started on 1st September and ended on 1st September and on 2nd September Japan surrendered. Both wars have numbers 11 and 19 in their dates. Also the League of Nations, a predecessor of the United Nations that failed to stop WW2 was formed on 10th Jan 1920. Signing of the Munich Agreement on 30th September 1938 by Nazi Germany, Great Britain, the French Republic and Italy which was again to stop WW2 which it didn't. Organization league and this agreement both failures that were purposely made to fail at the end. There were many Hinduism elements in WW2 such as the Swastika symbol on the emblem of Nazi Party and the falsely thought out "German-Aryan Race". The word "Nazi" also comes from the Hindi word "Naaz" meaning "To feel Proud". The World's first nuclear bomb detonation was named by Robert Oppenheimer as "Trinity". Trinity in Hinduism is Brahma, the creator, Vishnu the maintainer and Shiva, the destroyer. We saw in the story of Tripuras, the way Brahma which is the unseen energy of evolution created the Tripuras meaning the World, Vishnu maintains by creating false religions and finally Shiva destroys the Tripuras. Later Oppenheimer says these words from Bhagwat Geeta after the first nuclear detonation, "Now I have become death, the destroyer of the Worlds". From the flood stories, Vishnu's Matsya Avatar also floods the 3 Worlds. We know that 3 Worlds mean the 3 celestial bodies Earth, Moon and Sun and their joining in a line during a Lunar eclipse. The bomb was named "Trinity" may mean this bomb will be used by Matrix to finally pole shift the planet as the 3 forts Earth, moon and Sun align in one line. And that's what they did during the Apollo missions. The triangle of the New World Order and the merging of Trinity/Tripuras in a triangle are one and the same. I don't know why so many Hindu elements were added in WW2, but the War was finally about discovering nukes and starting the Nuclear race. So that later USA and Russia could carry out its disastrous nuclear Moon missions and wait until Tripuras aligned. WW2 was by far the most advanced and deadliest war and the Matrix did widely showcase its presence. Previously we have discussed the key dates of top nuke testing done by Matrix. The largest nuclear bomb testing operation by USA was named "Operation Castle" conducted at Marshall islands. The word "Castle" is synonymous to "Fort", again the word Tripuras itself means the 3 forts. Even here you could clearly understand the symmetry ! More than wars, Pandemics which are diseases that spread all around the World were the biggest killers our civilization. Spanish Flu that started after WW1 killed 100 million people just in 2 years, Plague of Justinian in 540 Ce killed atleast 50 million people which was 30-40 % of world population back then , Black Death Pandemic in 1346 Ce killed 200 million which was 20% of world population. There have been around 18 pandemics in our current 7th human civilization since 1st century Ce uptil now killing more than 1 million upto 200 million in each pandemic. What makes them so deadly at certain times? Or are these bioweapons purposely released by them? Similarly there have been more than 40 wars throughout our civilization that have killed more than 1 million people in each war. You could clearly see the way these Matrix men keep the whole Civilization in dystopia. They were created by our ancestors that evolved and since they did not know that they had created a new species, people have currently become their lab rats. But there is still time and hope.

What were the goals of Matrix in World Wars?

The Matrix has the goal to keep the World in Dystopia so it makes people fight wars. But let's look at what the world achieved in the past 100 years by fighting these megawars.

Division of People:

By the early 1900s, due to technological advancements and with new modes of transportation, the entire World was unifying into one, moving towards concepts of an Utopian World of social equality and advancement but a sudden War strengthened territorial borders and grew a false ideology of Nationalism which divided them yet again. World War 1 was the start of that division and its effects led to WW-2 establishing a final division amongst people. The atrocities seen during WW-2 raised a fear amongst each one and an urge to invest and expand more into military technologies rather than using it for the benefit of society. Also human civilization blamed itself for all the Wars that happened calling fighting and destruction a regular human nature.

Population reduction:

The only 4 ways the Matrix can kill us all is by diseases inflicting a bioweapon similar to Spanish flu, Wars between religions and National groups such as WW1 and 2. It can also kill by artificially created natural calamities such as Tsunamis and Earthquakes. Wars even far back in history killed 25 or even 40 million people just with swords. Of course death due to natural calamities is small but diseases and Pandemics such as the Black Death pandemic in the 1350s killed 200 million which was half the World population at that time. The last and final way is when 3 immortal forts meaning Earth, Moon and Sun align on Lunar eclipse. This last option is used by Matrix when societies have modernized all throughout the World and people are opening their eyes trying to understand concepts that a world unity is the true goal. Also people are coming at par with the Matrix such as climate control, free energy, space travel and extending life.

Diverting technological advancements:

When there is a war, most of the technological innovations that would happen would not be towards achieving a better standard of living but only in the direction of more and more destruction of the others. That is the way atomic bombs were invented which further led to cold wars. Presently money is spent to throw out old weapons and introduce the newer ones. The current worldwide military spending is $2 trillion every year and Nations like India and Pakistan's military spending is 20-25% of its GDP which only makes them more and more poorer. So Wars played and are playing a very important role in shaping our civilization and it becomes our duty to avoid them and now that the Matrix has been exposed it becomes our duty that we should all unite, find them and stop this “Confusion of Tongues” these artificially-created humans species have created.

Why is United Nations failing?

The United Nations is an intergovernmental organization whose stated purpose is to maintain international peace, security, develop friendly relations among Nations, achieve international cooperation and serve as a center for harmonizing the actions of Nations. The UN system includes a multitude of specialized agencies, funds, and programmes including World Bank Group, World Health Organization, World Food Programme, UNESCO, and UNICEF and currently has 193 member countries. Looking at the emblem of UN that we discussed right in the start which looks as if the North pole is being targeted with a rifle, we clearly know who is behind this organization's deficiency. It was established after World War-II on 24th October 1945 after the dissolution of the League with the aim to prevent future wars and be a better version of the League of Nations. Let's go through some facts about UN and see whether it's making the same mistakes as its predecessor League.

No army of its own:

The UN does not have a proper functioning military of its own similar to its predecessor League of Nations and depends on other countries to take actions. Member nations provide forces in a contributory manner, the size of which is based on certain specific calculations and capabilities. But it has a peace keeping force named Blue helmets, there are more than 97,000 UN uniformed personnel coming from over 120 countries; their workings are similar to Red cross to protect civilians in war zones but this peace keeping force is not used for stopping the war in any way. Due to such inefficiencies, Nations have formed their own open and secret alliances such as the North Atlantic Treaty Alliance (NATO) which is an intergovernmental military alliance between 31 member states, 29 European and 2 North American. But it is still limited to only those countries. Someone would argue that UN is just a peacekeeping organization, dealing with resolutions through meetings and it has nothing to do with formation of an army and stopping military attacks. But the fact is after learning from WW1, League of Nations was made to stop WW2 which it failed due to Veto and no army of its own. Without any army, why would other nations even listen? Imagine if all the World unites into one large union of militaries rather than being held by individual national organizations then a military uprising will never take place in the first place.

Bias towards Powers:

The 5 permanent members of the UN which are China, Usa, France, Russia and UK have a “Veto” meaning no consent by just one of these Nations will make the entire decision of UN non-binding on all its members and no resolution will be passed without their unanimous consent. This power makes any one of the Veto members prevent a majority of the Security Council from taking any action. The Veto power has been criticized for its undemocratic nature, as well as the main cause of inaction on war crimes and crimes against humanity in the recent past. In 1994, the United States and France both threatened Vetoes regarding the Rwandan Genocide. This prevented the UN from undertaking an effective intervention, wherein members of the Tutsi minority ethnic group as well as some moderate Hutu and Twa were killed by armed Hutu militias. This led to 500,000 to 662,000 Tutsi community deaths in Uganda, East Africa between 7th April and 15th July 1994. Russia and China threatened vetoes to prevent UN intervention against the ethnic cleansing in Kosovo in south-east Europe. From 28th February 1998 to 11th June 1999, the Serbian government forces conducted campaigns of violence and terror against the Albanian population in Kosovo forcing them out of their own province. This campaign included widespread killings, destruction of homes and businesses, also included Forcible Displacement of 1.5 million Kosovar Albanian Civilians. This meant killing 90 percent of the estimated 1998 Kosovar Albanian population during those times. In 2004, Veto power was used by China to prevent intervention in the Darfur genocide. It was a systematic killing of ethnic Darfuri people by Sudanese Armed Forces. This occurred during the ongoing conflict in South Sudan. In 2013, UN estimated that up to 300,000 people had been killed during this genocide. China did press Sudan to accept UN deployments in Darfur; however, China had also supplied Sudanese armed forces with weapons in Khartoum, Sudan and had the power to single-handedly Veto resolutions of the United Nations Security Council. It could be clearly seen that these nations have used veto for their own military and political benefits and they really don't care about civilian deaths and the destruction caused on other lands. Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky in his speech said, "As long as Russia has Veto power on the UN body, Ukraine will remain powerless to do anything to stop this war or any other conflict. Ukrainian soldiers are doing with their blood what the UN Security Council should do by its voting. Veto power in the hands of the aggressor is what has pushed the UN into a deadlock". UN Charter Article 2 restricts the use of military force but allows in case of two exceptions: "military measures by UN Security Council resolutions" and "exercise of self-defense" in countries subjected to armed attacks in relation to the use of force by states. Al-Qaeda attacked the World Trade Center on 9/11 or 11th September 2001, then USA in self-defense started revenge attacks since 7th October 2001 killing people in Afghanistan and ruling over the country for 20 years in the name of self-defense. It also attacked Iraq by a False flag claim of a highly secretive relationship existing between Iraqi President Saddam Hussein and Al-Qaeda. After 9/11 twin tower attacks, wars in Iraq, Afghanistan, Yemen, Syria, and Pakistan have taken a tremendous human toll in those countries. As of September 2021, an estimated half million civilians have died violent deaths directly as a result of the wars in those areas. People living in war zones have been killed in their homes, in markets, and on roadways. They have been killed by bombs, bullets, fire, improvised explosive devices and drones. This makes it clear that the Veto countries have used their power for no good and just for their own personal benefits and due to that UN again can't take any decision or was purposely not made to take any decisions.

Did not stop Wars :

There have been major wars after World War-2 like the Vietnam War which went on for 20 years since 1st November 1955 to 30th April 1975 killing 4 million both soldiers and civilians. Iran-Iraq war wherein 1 million both civilian and military were killed, India-Pakistan partition and War in which again about 1 million were killed; these were all fought after the foundation of United Nations which it has failed to stop. From 1945 to 2021 there have been about 200 armed conflicts all over the World and currently more are going on. The largest one is the Chinese, Ethiopian, Greek and Guatemala civil wars in which about 1 million killed in each war. If UN really meant stopping wars then these wars and massacres would have never taken place in the first place. But I really do respect UN since it has focused on making peace between countries. But there is a big fault in its fundamentals and there is a very big mistake in the whole concept of its creation. Similar to its predecessor even this organization is very weak and just like it's predecessor it's based on causing more wars rather than ending them.

Is the UN heading us into WW3?

Let's look at the current geopolitical scenario and discuss what has been UN's role in the same.

Russia-Ukraine War :

This war has been going on since 2014 but only minor border confrontations at those times. But on 24th Feb 2022, Russian President Putin claimed false allegations on Ukraine that it is doing genocides against Russian speakers and other vocalists in the regions of Donbas in Ukraine since Russians are a minority in Ukraine. Putin claims they had been facing humiliation and genocide perpetrated by the Kyiv (Ukrainian) regime and conducting a false flag operation invading it. Russian forces have been responsible for mass civilian casualties and torturing captured Ukrainian soldiers. By June 2022, around 8.2 million people have fled the country, becoming Europe's largest refugee crisis since World War II. Extensive environmental damage widely described as ecocide contributed to food crises worldwide. When it comes to the Russia-Ukraine War, several sessions of the U.N. Security Council reveal fault lines within the organization's main peacekeeping mechanism. It couldn't even condemn the Russian invasion as tanks rumbled across the Ukrainian border in the start of war due to the Russian Veto power. A day before the War, the Secretary general addressed President Putin: "In the name of humanity bring your troops back to Russia. In the name of humanity do not start what may be the most devastating War since the start of the century”. These were the powerless statements of the United Nations; so we can't really expect UN to stop any war at any given place. The International Court of Justice issued an arrest warrant for Putin accusing him of illegally removing children from Ukraine. Ukrainian officials have investigated more than 16,000 suspected cases of forced deportation of minors but even the international court is powerless to take any action. According to the UN High Commissioner for Refugees, more than 50000 people left Ukraine in less than 48 hours after the invasion. In the first few days of the invasion, UN Human Rights Council established an Independent International Commission of Inquiry to investigate alleged human rights abuses and violations in Ukraine. The council is only calling for the withdrawal of Russian troops and Russian-backed armed groups from the entire territory of Ukraine but not taking any strong actions against the same. Since 24th January 2022, the United States alone provided $75 billion in bilateral financial, humanitarian, and military aid including F16 fighter jets and M1 Abrams tanks to Ukraine in view of the Russian invasion that started in February 2022. Again it became a Russia vs USA situation that was during Cold war. The 2 biggest problems with United Nations is that it doesn't have any military of its own by which it could give a threat to Russia and Russia is part of the Veto members thus can revoke any UN decision which it is currently using to its fullest. The basic fundamentals of UN make it fail. First of all this World is divided into multiple Nations and each Nation has its own army which it can use against the other at any given time validating its attack by giving any false reason. Then UN meetings are held, endless useless discussions are done which don't take the case to any conclusion. If all countries unite into one, the need for an attack won't even arrive in the first place.

Kashmir conflict:

The Kashmir conflict is a territorial conflict over the Kashmir region, primarily between India and Pakistan, and also between China and India in the North-eastern portion of the region. The conflict started after the partition of India in 1947 as both India and Pakistan claimed the territory of the state of Jammu and Kashmir as their own and included it in their individual maps. It is a dispute over the region that escalated into 3 Wars between India and Pakistan in 1965, 1971 and 1999 and several other military standoffs and armed fightings that happened since independence which are continued even upto now. UN has played an advisory role in maintaining peace and order in the Kashmir region as a dispute erupted between them over the question of power over the state of Jammu Kashmir. UN Security Council passed Resolution 47 on 21st April 1948; the measure imposed an immediate cease-fire (temporary suspension of fighting) and called on the Government of Pakistan to secure the withdrawal of tribesmen and Pakistani nationals from the state of Jammu-Kashmir who were not normally resident therein and had entered the state for the purpose of fighting. It also asked the Government of India to reduce its forces to minimum strength. UN Security Council passed resolution 39 in 1948 establishing the United Nations Commission for India and Pakistan (UNCIP) to investigate the issues and mediate between the two new countries. Following the cease-fire, it also established the United Nations Military Observer Group in India and Pakistan (UNMOGIP) to monitor the cease-fire line. But even after all this, India-Pakistan War of 1971 happened after which the two signed the Simla Agreement in 1972 to define the Line of Control in Kashmir. Currently India and Pakistan disagree on UNMOGIP's mandate in Kashmir because India argues the mandate of UNMOGIP has lapsed after the Simla agreement. UNMOGIP continues to function to a very small extent as no resolution has been passed to terminate it. India has partially restricted the activities of the 45 unarmed UN observers on the Indian side of the Line of Control on the grounds that the mandate of military observer group UNMOGIP has lapsed. Despite the limitations on its mandate, UNMOGIP still continues to operate in the region by reporting on the situation along the Line of Control (LoC) in Jammu and Kashmir. Its reports are submitted to the United Nations Security Council and are used to inform the international community about the situation in that state. The Jammu and Kashmir Coalition of Civil Society puts a figure of 70,000 deaths, most of them civilians after the partition in that region and 2 million during the partition. In this case it can be seen that UN did its best to maintain peace between the 2 but both countries didn't care about any of its decisions. UN couldn't arrive or is powerless to arrive at any conclusion to this problem even after 70 years. In recent years, India and Pakistan both blame each other occasionally for violating the ceasefire at the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir. Now both of them are nuclear countries, Pakistan having the policy of 1st strike and is currently facing bankruptcy, even the media and politicians of both these nations instigate their people against the other. Both India and Pakistan have reduced UN's power completely and don't even consider its authority for settling disputes in Kashmir. China, another nuclear nation neighboring both India and Pakistan also had three military conflicts with India; the Sino-Indian War of 1962, the border clashes in NathuLa 1967, and 1987 Sumdorong Chu standoff. This is a very dangerous situation as the 3 nuclear Nations are sharing borders and have a history of conflict. If the political leaders of India, Pakistan or China to falsely gain public trust and influence people in the name of religion or nationalism conduct a false flag operation or if the clashes escalate; nuclear war on the planet is the first to begin at these borders.

Israel-Palestine conflict:

*Image of the map showing the status of Israel and the Israeli-occupied territories and the rest of the West Bank, Golan and Gaza in green held by Palestine; Map as of 2018.*

History of the conflict:

In the First Zionist Congress of 1897 and the Balfour Declaration of 1917, there were public declarations of claims of a Jewish homeland in Palestine. So many Jews immigrated into the land of Palestine which created early tensions in that region. Following World War-I, the Mandate for Palestine by the British controlled Palestine included a binding obligation for the "Establishment in Palestine of a National home for the Jewish people". So more number of Jews immigrated into Palestine. This led to the great "Palestine revolt of 1936-39" against the British administration demanding Arab independence and the end of the policy of open-ended Jewish immigration into their country. The uprising coincided with a peak in the influx of immigrant Jews, some 60,000 that year. The Jewish population grew under the British from 57,000 to 320,000 by 1935 and with that the rural population of Palestine was rendered landless as they moved to metropolitan centers to escape their abject poverty finding themselves socially marginalized. During WW2, from 1939-45 many holocaust survivors in huge numbers took refuge in Palestine and the population increased to half million. On 29th November 1947, the UN General Assembly adopted a Partition Plan called Resolution 181 (II) in which majority of the land (55%) would go to a Jewish state; Jews at that point legally owned 6–7% of the lands and remained a minority population about 33% by 1946, most of them immigrated and settled recently. This was also disproportionate allocations under the plan by the UN and the area under Jewish control contained 45% of the Palestinian population. The proposed Arab state was only given 45% of the land, much of which was unfit for agriculture. The partition plan was accepted by Jewish Agency for Palestine and most Zionist factions who viewed it as a stepping stone to territorial expansion at an opportunistic time. But Palestinian Arabs ofcourse called it an unfair deal. The 1947 United Nations Partition Plan for Palestine was never implemented as the Palestine War broke out the next day on 30th November 1947 after the resolution. In 1948, more than 700,000 Palestinian Arabs and half of the pre- WW2 Palestinian Arab population were expelled or fled from their homes by Zionist militants during the 1948 Palestine war. Israel won the war due to which it also captured more Palestinian territories than the original 55% which was recommended by United Nations. Later in the 6 day war, Israel further captures Gaza Strip, West Bank and Golan of which currently only the West Bank is under its control.

Current scenario:

Over the past 5 years there was a rise in protests and armed conflicts on the borders of Israel-Palestine mostly around the Gaza strip. Estimates of Israel's nuclear weapons stockpile range between 80 and 400 warheads, and Israel is believed to possess the ability to deliver them in several methods, including aircraft, submarine-launched cruise missiles. However, Israel officials maintain a policy of deliberate ambiguity, never officially denying or admitting to having nuclear weapons, instead repeating over the years that "Israel will not be the first country to introduce nuclear weapons to the Middle East". Israel has also declined to sign the Treaty on Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT) meaning producing more nukes despite international pressure to do so, saying it would be contrary to its national security interests. Hamas's coordinated surprise attack on Israel borders codenamed "Al-Aqsa Flood" beginning with a barrage of rockets launched from the Gaza Strip against Israel while some 2,500 Palestinian militants breached the Gaza-Israel barrier, massacred and set fire to civilian communities, attacking Israel Defense Forces (IDF) military bases near Gaza Strip. Hamas stated that its attack was in response to the disrespect of the Al-Aqsa Mosque, blockade of the Gaza Strip, continued Israeli settlements and Israeli settler violence. Over 1,400 Israelis, mostly civilians, were killed. Over 200 people, unarmed civilian hostages and captured Israeli soldiers, were taken to the Gaza Strip. Israel in response has dropped 18000 bombs over Palestine killing over 15000 people. Also a humanitarian crisis has begun after Israel cut off food, water, electricity and fuel supplies to Gaza. Later Israel urged 1.1 million Gazans to evacuate its northern regions and currently Israel military has got into Gaza trying to fully dissolve Hamas and displacing Palestine populations. Recently even Iran has entered into war.

How can the conflict be solved?

Since 1917, Palestine was a British colony and they led the Jewish settlements inside Palestine fueling the "Jewish holy land in Palestine concept" which started to push the rural population of Palestine out of their own land. So Palestinians moved into metropolitan cities and conflicts were rising as days passed. Further during the Jewish holocaust, all Jews who were unsafe in the European region also moved into Palestine. Again just like WW2, the start of Jewish holocaust was an attack on 9-10th November 1938 on Jewish businesses by Nazi Germany which we clearly know who is responsible for the same. By the end of WW2 in 1945, there were almost a million Jews in Palestine wanting to establish a country for themselves. Now it would be completely unethical and inhumanitarian to say anything to them at that point since they were facing a holocaust and were looking to find a place to live. Jews legally bought and owned about 6-7% of the lands in Palestine by 1945 and conflicts arose between Jews and Palestinians as they further came in huge numbers; but both these communities wanted to come up with a final conclusion to this problem. But on 29th Nov 1947, United Nations came up with a partition plan and needlessly gave 55 % of the Palestinian land which was mostly economical and agriculturally productive to the Jews; even in that land that was given to Jews, over there still 45% Palestinian lived. So the Arab Nations felt the partition to be completely deceptive and unethical which it actually was. The Jews turned opportunistic at this time as the partition was completely in their favor and on the next day on 30th November the Arab countries attacked and the war broke out. Ofcourse the Matrix had something to do with it looking at the date on which the war starts. The Palestinian people that lived in this new Jewish border were expelled and the Jews fought this War capturing more Palestinian territories than what was written in the agreement by UN. Looking at the dates of holocaust and WW2 which was responsible for letting many Jews into Palestine and you already know who is responsible for them both. Also who exactly controls and orders UN to take such stupid decisions. But the situation of the Israel-Palestine conflict goes very back in history since the start of Judaism and Islam itself. Al-Aqsa area is the home to two muslim religious places, the Dome of the Rock and the Al-Aqsa Mosque, considered to be holy after Mecca. It is exactly next to Temple Mount which is also the holiest place for the Jewish community and Israelites.

Both these religious sites are located in the land now captured by Israel. In this case the struggle between both Muslims and Jews is also to save their religious history. But if you look carefully there is nothing called religion and religious history; it's all a myth created by them who want humans to remain divided. But when bomb sirens sounds, military tanks roll into cities, sudden food and water shortages begin; people realize their nationalism and religion has cost them alot. If both sides realize this very fact then all wars will be ended. The only solution to this conflict and all other conflicts is for people to realize that all their religions and nations were a hoax and they themselves dissolve their false identities that they are currently attached to. Similar to religions, let's look at why all nations must unite.

Why all Nations should unite?

A Nation is a type of large social organization wherein a collective identity has emerged from a combination of shared features across a given population such as language, history, ethnicity, culture and society. It is a territory or group of territories wherein all the people are led by the same authority or government. I do respect every nation, mine or of others and they have been contributing somewhere towards human wellbeing. I am the first one to understand history in its true sense which makes me have the right to comment on them. Out of the 195 countries, there exists not a single country that was formed without bloodshed and War and their formation is always based on the overthrow of previous powers by force and war. Only Canada became independent from Britain in 1867 and Australia in 1901 directly on paper without any form of military or civil friction. But if you look at their history too, both Canada and Australia were invaded and taken over by Britain from the original tribes that lived there before the 1500s. About 99% of the indigenous population there was killed by wars, disease and famines during their colonization. The Matrix is behind every small and big colonization that happened in history and must have also conducted these invasions. Their formation was exactly opposite to how our utopian civilization of Atlantis was formed, which is by a visionary group of people deciding ways to unify the World into one. Let's go through various reasons about why the division of the planet into Nations is so dangerous.

Portrayal of False history:

Russia has changed its school textbooks since the start of the Russia-Ukraine war. A textbook aimed at graduating 17-year-olds and covering the time period from 1945 until now includes a quote from President Vladimir Putin. In that he falsely asserts, "Russia did not start any military actions but is trying to end them" and "Ukraine is a neo-Nazi state". In North Korea, all published works must go through several levels of censorship and must express a given amount of praise for the Workers Party for its policies. In addition, many writers have internalized a mentality of self-censorship and praise for the leader in North Korea. Israeli textbooks describe Israel's wars as justified wars of defense and the Arabs are held responsible for them. The Palestinian Exodus is attributed to the fact that the Arabs fled from their homes. Only a few textbooks state that some refugees were expelled by Israel or were forced to flee due to threats. Above were some of the extreme cases through which countries portray a false narrative to its people completely avoiding the true historical facts and proofs. But generally speaking all countries rich or poor, liberal or non-liberal cater to their own nationalistic perspective that portray to their countrymen that they were always right and the opposite country or religion was always wrong. Then there are nationalists and religious extremists with a blind mask of nationalism and religion on their face; they threaten those people who even question these theories. Due to this false history, people are completely misguided and are mentally forced to support the politicians that are only present for political gains and nothing more through which they remain in power.

Belief in False Ideology:

Right from school, kids are always taught to be proud of their Nation which is nothing but a boundary line that was drawn by 2 warring kings or dictators; during which one of them who won and could not further expand so he stayed there considering that as his kingdom's boundary. Later if any king attacked him, he would protect that boundary or it would be reduced if his army was weak in front of the stronger king. As the definition of Nation suggests it's just a social organization with a collective identity. There is no issue if a large group of people having a similar territory and ideologies come together with a singular emblem and national anthem. But the problem is when they try to defend these identities with guns, tanks, nukes and bioweapons. The problem is when they forcefully try to expand their territory and false ideologies onto the other. For example, India and Pakistan, both nuclear nations, have a history of religious and national wars. Politicians and media of both countries for their personal gains and views make sure the unrest and conflict stays between them forever. Now if the national anthem of Pakistan is played or if the Pakistan flag is hoisted in India, you will surely get arrested. If a national anthem or flag of India is hoisted in Pakistan, you might get killed. People and politicians in both these countries are trying to push false ideologies onto their people and on other nations. People of both these countries and all others too are in a deep sleep unaware that their religions and nations were created by the same Matrix only for the reason of division. They are completely unaware of the fact that they all are just a detonation close to all their destruction. What will happen to Kashmir after pole shift and will these nations even exist to fight for it?

Suppression of voice:

According to the press freedom index, North Korea ranks amongst some of the most extreme censorships in the World with the government able to take strict control over communications. All media outlets are owned and controlled by the North Korean government and get their news from the Korean Central News Agency. Radios and television sets are modified to receive only approved channels. Their 2,000 employees are under strict control to make sure they report in the favor of the leader and country. As social media and news applications via smartphones become the common thread of news outlets, North Korea pushes further curtailment. A tightly controlled cyberspace exists within the country wherein a small number of upper-class citizens have access to an intranet, called Kwangmyong which is strictly controlled. As of 2023, the World Press Freedom Index ranks China with the second least press freedom in the World after North Korea. The government censors content for mainly political reasons such as curtailing political opposition, censoring events unfavorable to the CCP, such as the 1989 Tiananmen Square massacre, pro-democracy movements in China, Uyghur genocide, human rights in Tibet, pro-democracy protests in Hong Kong and aspects of the COVID-19 Pandemic. They employ sophisticated censorship mechanisms, referred to as the Golden Shield Project to monitor the internet. Government controlled search engines such as Baidu also removes politically sensitive search results. In Russia, on 4th March 2022, Vladimir Putin signed a bill introducing prison sentences of up to 15 years for those publishing false information about the Russian military and its operations, leading some media outlets in Russia to stop reporting on Ukraine or shutting their media outlets. As of December 2022, more than 4,000 people were prosecuted under "Fake news" laws in connection with the war in Ukraine. In USA, John W. Powell, a Journalist who reported allegations that USA was carrying out germ warfare in the Korean War was indicted with 13 counts of sedition along with his 2 editors and was blackballed from the journalism industry for the rest of his life. The New York Times reported on 14th December 2010 that the U.S. Air Force bars its personnel from access to news sites such as The Guardian, Le Monde, El País, and Der Spiegel that publish leaked cables so that there isn't any feeling of lack of trust of the army over the government. The entire Guardian website is blocked for personnel stationed throughout Afghanistan, Middle East, and South Asia. The Bank of America stopped handling payments for WikiLeaks and also blocked access to WikiLeaks from its internal network preventing employees from accessing the site. The above cases clearly show even the most developed countries restrict or ban media outlets or any person exposing any government flaw. If the country is at war or controlled by a few hands mostly in the communist regimes then the censorship is at its maximum peak wherein things get worse as journalists could face death penalties too. Ofcourse freedom of speech doesn't mean anyone can say anything baseless without any valid proof. But there has to be a freedom to say what is true even if it means it is very hard to digest. If you look at the way I have written my book, I have given direct verses from religious texts and authentic reports rather than being partial to a particular ideology, religion or nation. I have given my views about God and religion with full honesty just like any other researcher in the field of comparative religion or theology. The intellectuals will read the book, do their own research, confirm the facts and accept it as it is. But if you are someone that has put this fake mask of "Bhakti" or devotion towards this imaginary God or if you are too nationalist about your country then when you read these religious texts or exposures about your own nations. This fake mask on your face will come in between you and reality. If you are someone from the cencerboard of the country or head of some large religious institution then you will make sure to censor my book or just ban it from public view. But remember Immortality, Evolution all these are part of natural occurrence for humanity and someday will be fulfilled. Many countries such as Usa and Russia would feel this book is a breach of their national security but tell me who breached World security by doing such Moon missions?

International Competition:

Other than fooling people in the name of Nationalism, people are also fooled in the name of competition between countries and defeating the other and their ideologies no matter what it takes. Competing in the field of sports looks very enthusiastic but it gets really nasty when countries have different pathways of research in the technological and military fields. Lethal competitions are amongst the countries that are similar in structure or who have a history of war. For eg. India competes with China or Pakistan which has a similar population or a history of war. Throughout history, the nation that has technologically evolved the fastest has got a certain hold over other nations and due to these imaginary boundaries that it considers itself a nation, it doesn't want to share its wealth or any assets with others. So a small population controls a large amount of wealth. Due to this unequal distribution, the country that has the most amount of resources invests within its own boundaries and sells to other countries for a much higher price to grab more from others. Due to this wealth it further hires efficient manpower and equipment and does the most amount of technological research again getting an edge over other countries and the cycle just goes on. Currently out of 10,000 cities around the World, only the top 50 of them hold 95% of all the wealth so clearly there is a great unequal distribution of wealth and the main reason is division of the World into multiple nations. The richest one is New York City in USA, one family of 4 with one earning member having a monthly income of less than $2500 or 2 lakh rupees is considered below poverty line. Since in that amount he could not fulfill his basic family needs of food, shelter and clothing. Similarly in Mumbai city of India which ranks 46th on list of richest cities, one family of 4 with one earning member having a monthly income of less than $250 or 20,000 rupees is considered poor. So even amongst those top 50 countries there is again a wide difference between who is considered above and below the poverty line.

Even in NYC there are still 15 out of 100 people that are below the poverty line. Out of those 15, it could be that 2-3 people are really lazy to go to work. But others are below the line since they don't have any work and were just thrown out of the system since it's designed that way. This means a city even after comparatively earning the largest sum of money, all their population still can't afford basic necessities.

Religions and Nations are Delusional disorders:

There is a mental illness called delusional disorder wherein people have conditions such as an individual expressing an idea or belief with unusual persistence or force, even when evidence suggests the contrary. This idea appears to have an undue influence on the person's life, and the way of life and is often altered to an inexplicable extent. When someone says he/she believes in his God or Nation; when the evidence suggests that no God is sitting on top looking and judging you and taking you into a mythical heaven or throwing you into hell for your sins. But this mental disorder makes people cause communal riots in the name of their religion and do insane things. Similarly a long border is built by the people having this mental disorder who defend this border with more deadly weapons such as tanks, guns, bioweapons and in extreme cases with nukes even when the evidence suggests that the whole planet is one. It makes people do things such as saying slogans and singing a national anthem for this illusioned boundary. More symptoms of this illness are that the individual tends to be humorless and oversensitive, especially about the belief and is emotionally over-invested in the idea. An attempt to contradict the belief is likely to arouse an inappropriately strong emotional reaction often with irritability and hostility. Other people who know the individual observe that the belief and behavior are uncharacteristic and illusionary and try to stop them from believing such false ideologies but their efforts are unfruitful. They will not accept any other opinions. If you tell the religious people not to build more religious places of worship in the name of something that doesn't exist and won't arrive to save you in anyway or if you tell the nationalist not to strengthen this idea of a nation since it's just a border and a limited ideology. But they are so overinvested in this idea that if you contradict these beliefs such people will likely arouse a strong irritability and emotional reaction and on their faces you can see a sense of mental chaos. They will refrain from talking with you or in some way refrain you from talking about it. They may further go to file a case on you for hurting religious sentiments or for anti-national behavior. So everyone who believes in the concept of God or Nation is facing this mental disorder and has to be cured. I wonder what would happen if the psychiatrist itself is facing this disorder !

Will go to any extent to fulfill Matrix goals:

The Matrix purposely starts wars such as false flag Operation Himmler by Hitler blaming it on Poland, false justification by Putin to attack over Ukraine are just some of the examples of Nations that could go to any extent to fulfill Matrix goals of starting wars. These are just one of the few attacks that have come out in public view; we don't know upto what extent and how these governments work for the Matrix. The leaders would even have to agree if the Matrix wants to raise a tower to create natural disasters like tsunamis or earthquakes in their own country. It can also conduct coup d'état or military mutiny or execute any leader that doesn't listen to their rules; also can suppress any kind of breakthrough in military or public beneficial technology. It is not like they are fully in control or are 100 % involved in all fields of World activities. Similarly not all activities are done in relation to the dates of the Matrix 1,3 and 9; only the few largest ones. So it will conduct 100 wars or produce 100 movies or write 100 stories in religious books but only in the most brutal wars and highest budget movies will it show its dates. So only in these 1 or 2 biggest activities, it orders its Presidents, high officials in other industries, etc. I call all these nations nothing but "Matrix controlled terrorist organizations!". I conclude the definition of Nation/Country to be nothing but a border built around a large piece of land and manipulating people psychologically to protect and support this assumed border with false ideologies such as national flag, national anthem, putting in their minds to work, fight and die for this mythical nation. These ideologies are maintained and fueled by nationalistic media, songs, movies which psychologically structure you right from birth and school to believe these concepts to be true or else the Matrix knows if it doesn't do any of that then nothing can stop us from uniting into a one World unified Nation.

Chapter 9: Movies of the Matrix

Introduction:

Movies and religions are the only 2 ways it can show itself to you at the same time make you believe it's all mythology and entertainment. In this chapter, I didn't cover all the movies discussed in my main book but only some important ones. I have only given the movies, web-series and other arts made by the Matrix which I noticed them either through their symbols of triangle and pole shifts or some of their scenes had key numbers 139 or they were released on the key dates combination. Through these movies the Matrix secretly shows itself and it's true objectives. The people who work in the entertainment industry are just like you and me, they are not artificially-born. But they have been contacted by the Matrix men in some way. It's for sure that all of them would be completely unaware of their true identity, that they are artificially-born and their objectives. They control the world, so these scripts have come up in such a way that they make movies on them. Let's go through some of these movies.

Movie 2012's Lunar Eclipse scene:

The Movie 2012 was released on 13th November 2009 was based on poles shift due to alignment of the solar system. The plot starts as character Jakson Curtis after seeing some minor natural calamities meet conspiracy theorist Charlie Frost asking him what exactly is happening to the Earth. He says, "It's the End of Days, Judgment day, End of the World from the Bible, Wars, stock market and economic collapse.

Christians called it the Rapture, Mayans knew about the World having an expiration date.

*Image of a scene from the movie wherein they show a Lunar Eclipse-like formation*.

According to their calendar in the year 2012, an apocalyptic event will unfold caused by an alignment of the Planets in our Solar system only happening in 640,000 years. He also says the dinosaurs died the same way by Pole shifts. Our Sun will emit extreme amounts of radiation called neutrinos and the core of the Earth will begin to overheat causing Earth's crust free to move and the Poles to shift. The force of nature will be so devastating that it will bring an end to this World on 21st Dec 2012". This scene from the movie mentions Earth's Poles shifting on the alignment by heating of Earth's core by neutrinos from the Sun. But it's a movie so the men of the Matrix cannot exactly reveal about the alignment of the Sun, Earth and Moon on a Lunar eclipse. But they indirectly say alignment of the Solar system. It's strange to see that makers of the movie clearly show the Sun, Earth and Moon in the Lunar eclipse formation. This movie also released on one of the dates of Matrix on 13th November gives a precise visual description of what would exactly happen after the Pole shift. The Matrix men plays a two-way game with people; in scientific theories it will tell you extinction events took place due to an asteroid impact but in religion and movies it will show it's true colors. It will talk about flood stories and will show you a movie based on Pole shift also releasing it on its key dates.

Captain America's Destruction of the 3 Helicarriers:

*Image of the 3 Helicarriers being self-destructed as they are in a Triangular/Trinity formation.*

The term "Helicarriers" means carriers of hell or place where the demons live. Even in the story of Tripuras, the 3 immortal forts, the people living there were called Asuras/demons who live in Hell. Here, our past Utopian immortal civilization of Atlantis is termed as "Hell". Also similar to the 3 celestial bodies Earth, Moon and Sun, these 3 helicarriers could stay up in the sky for an infinite time. These 3 ships named IN 1,2 and 3 are aligned in a triangular form and they burn by fire and self destroy each other as shown in the image. This reminds me of the Tripurantaka carving from the temple of Karnataka wherein Shiva is shown to destroy the Tripuras which are also shown in a triangular formation as they merge into one. In this case they are again hinting at pole shifting of Earth by Solar storm. The Trinity and Tripuras of Hinduism and the triangle of illuminati/New World Order are one and the same things.

Dr.Arim Zola's New World Order

*Image of Dr. Arnim Zola talking from his artificial computer brain as he looks through the camera; both Captain America and

Black widow are inside his database brain which is inside a secret underground room.*

There is a scene wherein Captain America and Black Widow meet Dr.Zola's who is present as an AI brain who tells them about his New World Order saying , "Hydra (Marvel Version of Nazi Germany which secretly functioned after WW2) was founded on a belief that humanity could not be trusted with its own freedom, what we did not realize is that if you try to take their freedom, they resist. Humanity needed to surrender its freedom willingly and if history did not cooperate history was changed. Hydra has been secretly feeding wars and crises for 70 years after WW2. Hydra created a World so chaotic that humanity is finally ready to sacrifice its freedom to gain its security. Once the security process is complete, Hydra's New World Order will arise. We won, Captain, your death amounts to the same as your life, a '0 sum"! In this scene, wherein Dr.Zola explains them all this, there are clips of World War 2, Wars of the Middle East, agreements signed, Space satellites, stock market crashes, Libya leader Muammar Gaddafi, Soviet Union leader Joseph Stalin and UK prime minister Winston Churchill shown which may mean they were in someway related or either screwed up or at some point by Matrix. Captain America and his allies had fought and sacrificed alot during the War that they fought against Hydra. But Dr. Zola calls Captain's life a '0 sum' since Captain always thought he was winning the war trying to get peace in society. But Matrix men made people fight from USA as well from Nazi side and this 2 sided game always happened during each war. Their goal is to reduce population and create a chaotic World so that all humans always stay in control of arms. First there were kings that ruled with swords, now there are Nations that rule with guns and bombs and when they no longer could control the technological advancements of this dystopian civilization as it moves towards Utopia, they restart the world by starting it's false order of decivilization taking people back to stick and stones. Later again after 1000s of years, the World again becomes technologically advanced and civilized trying to achieve immortality, it is again cut-off back to its roots! Avengers also capture Jasper Sitwell, a Shield agent who was also secretly working for Hydra. Avengers make him tell the truth about Hydra due to which Jasper tells them, "Anyone who is a threat for Hydra now or in future is eliminated. Dr.Zola has developed an algorithm which evaluates the past of people, their credit cards, all their data and predicts their future". At the end of the movie, Hydra gets to know that they have been exposed so they launch the 3 helicarriers to kill all people who are a threat to their organization and start a "New World Order" that A.I brain Dr.Zola had planned. In the movie, Matrix gave another hint about itself that it has an algorithm that can look at your past and see the future of any person. But do they really have such an algorithm or a device that can see the future?

Movie Civil War's Creation of Winter Soldiers

*Image of Winter soldiers kept inside a tank-like device*.

Bucky, Captain America and Ironman arrive at this Siberian facility located somewhere secured in the mountains of Siberia in Russia. In the underground chamber of the facility, they come across 5 winter soldiers in a sleep-like state in a square shaped yellow lit cryostasis chamber as seen in the image. If we take a different point of view of this Siberian facility and its tank shown in the movie, it gives hints of the tank of immortality by which these Matrix men/ Avatars/Prophets remain alive forever and the tank could also create new artificial men with the same technology. These tanks are box-shaped and the yellow smoke could be similar to the yellow blood plasma which is used to fill the tank by which they revive and stay of the same age. Even in the movie "Avatar" they show a similar tank through which Avatars are born. Again the movie Avatar could have been made just to show you their true making and make humans responsible for all the destruction and exploitation of nature and to show this new species of artificially-created humans as some type of saviors. The Winter soldiers from Marvel's movie Civil War are a bit different from humans living in secrecy. They work for the same secret organization Hydra who assassinates any threat to their organization. They could be related to the Matrix men who are kept in such tanks so that they live forever and they could have their secret people who could assassinate anyone. In the movie Avengers:Age of Ultron wherein AI Ultron suddenly says from nowhere to Wanda, "When Earth starts to settle, God throws a stone at it and is winding up". Earth starting to settle down would mean the entire planet going towards a unified Utopian civilization and God throwing a stone at it would mean God creating floods and winding up. Even in this movie, there is a scene similar to Dr. Zola's New World Order wherein similar historical events are shown and the number 199 is constantly seen throughout that particular scene. Rather than movies released on key dates, from the Marvel Cinematic Universe movie series, Captain America: The Winter Soldier is the 9th film from the series, The Avengers:Age of Ultron is 11th and Captain America: Civil War is the 13th movie. Rather than these movies released on dates of Matrix, this time they are arranged in a sequence of Matrix numbers 9th, 11th and 13th and only in these 3 movies of the entire Marvel series there are these suspicious scenes. All other movies from the franchise don't show any of such suspicious scenes at all. It feels as if the entire Marvel series was just made to indirectly show the true nature of the Matrix through these 3 movie scenes.

Web Series: The 3 Body Problem

The 3 Body Problem is an science fiction television series created by David Benioff, D. B. Weiss and Alexander Woo, based on the Chinese novel of the same name. This web series was released on 21st March 2024, I had finished writing my book by that time and I watched it later. So I couldn't really add this web series to the main list of chapter Movies of Matrix. But a few days after releasing my book, I decided to make this short version of my book and that's when I decided to add it to the list. I am explaining to you the plot of this one. There is an extraterrestrial civilization called San-Ti that faces the 3 body problem wherein once the 3 bodies merge into one, their civilization is destroyed. They receive signals from planet Earth which are sent by a woman called Ye-Wengi through an experimental radio telescope in China. So the extraterrestrial race San-Ti decide to migrate to our planet Earth. The whole web series is about San-Ti taking over our World through a computer that can see and hear what is going on at any place on planet Earth.

Episode: Destroyer of the Worlds

*This is a scene from the episode wherein a Lunar eclipse like formation is shown wherein the Moon is shadowed by Earth.

The women ahead is an AI created by the extraterrestrial race San-Ti*.

In this episode, Dr.Jin and Jack are given VR headsets made by San-Ti which they transfer it to planet Earth through a proton. These extraterrestrials are 4 light years away but are somehow able to control events and see humans through a proton supercomputer technology. Through these headsets the brains of Jin and Jack are sent into a VR game which is very advanced and seems absolutely real. They are made to solve the 3 body problem, wherein if they are not able to figure out a solution to it, the 3 bodies join and that particular civilization ends. They try very hard to solve the 3 body problem but eventually fail. The human looking AI which the extraterrestrial San-Ti creates to hide their true identities tells them that there is no solution to the 3 body problem and explains that their Civilization is facing this problem wherein they have to restart their civilization again and again due to climatic catastrophes finally concluding there is no solution but to migrate to another planet. They received signals from planet Earth and thus have decided to migrate here. They are collecting potential humans who are ready to work towards their arrival and eliminate any threat that stops them. Let's just see how this relates to our World. Firstly the episode is called "Destroyer of the Worlds" and the name of the Web series is 3 body problem. We humans are currently facing a 3 body problem wherein our civilization is again and again destroyed by Matrix when the 3 bodies, Sun, Earth and Moon merge into one. The term destroyer of the Worlds was used by Oppenheimer during the Trinity detonation wherein he says, “I have become death, the destroyer of the Worlds”. Again I don't have to tell you what it means. The AI woman is made to look like a human and the extraterrestrials never show you how they look. This is similar to the artificially-born Matrix men wherein they never show you how they look but tell you their true identity through movies and religions. In the web series they also show dead and pale people being put into a pool of a special kind of water and they recover back to life and youth. This is again a synonym to the tank of immortality called Mritsanjeevani that our first Civilization of Atlantis had. Also they talk about the first civilizational age to be “peaceful age” and all other ages or civilizational timelines that came later were disastrous or frictionful. This is again synonyms to the first utopian civilization which was peaceful without any wars or pole shifts but after the first pole shift, when the Matrix took over, the ages that came later were very disastrous.

Secret society of God:

* Image from the scene wherein the women in the middle gathers and explains the goals of the secret society to people. Again the logo of the secret society is Lunar eclipse which is synonymous to the triangle symbol of the illuminati/ New World order which you already know what it is*.

A woman named Ye Wengi who was first to contact San-Ti arranges a meeting of people who are ready to work for their arrival and their goals of complete destruction of the human race and to make a way for establishing God's/ San-Ti's kingdom on planet Earth. British security forces raid the meeting and the people who signed up for the organization God are caught. Ye Wengi says that God can see them and they were caught because it was God's wish. This scene looks very synonymous to the existence of the secret society and the meetings that are always known to be held in secret by top politicians, public figures and people working in defense and space.

Eye of God/ illuminati:

*Image of the eye of Sophon computer seen in the sky resembling the eye of illuminati*.

In the episode named "Judgement day", Al

sent by San-Ti says that, "There is no other option with us other than destroying humans. Either we destroy you or you destroy us. To destroy you so that you don't get as advanced as us we will have to destroy your science. We will do this through our Sophon which is a proton supercomputer through which we have unlocked the minutest dimensions of the universe.

Through this Sophon even when we are light years away we could see what is happening on your planet. The answers that you found out to your questions won't be of any use to you. This whole universe will just be a secret for you. We do things that are beyond your imagination. We have filled your world with illusions. We show you only those things that we want you to see. We are everywhere watching over you, always getting to know your secrets. We will teach you to get scared again. While the scene is being played, the stars start to blink as if they never existed in the night sky. The whole sky gets covered with this eye and they show that the eye is always watching over people. Then they hack into all the screens of the World and send a message, "You are Bugs".

Explanation:

*Image from the same scene from the episode in which the countdown stops to the key dates of Matrix 1,3 and 9*.

The Matrix can be known by its key numbers and symbols, in this case it was clearly the Lunar eclipse and the key numbers through which it gave a hint that the Web series was made by them. In this episode called Judgment day, they show a ship on which small kids are gathered and live to start a new world. This is very similar to Matsya Avatar saving a few Manu or Noah's Ark wherein to restart a civilization, they would start it with small kids, if teens or adults are led into this new world, they will ofcourse have the knowledge to remake electricity and all technologies back again. If you look carefully, it was never humans vs humans as you always knew it. But it was always a war between 2 species, one which evolved through evolution and the other which is artificially-created through a tank. Either they win or we win. That is the reason they talk about destroying our technologies and science so that we fallback to sticks and stones while they remain immortal and technologically advanced. Similar to Dr.Zola predicting the future, again in this scene, they tell you that they have a proton supercomputer through which they can see exactly what you are doing or talking at this point, keep a watch over you and know all your secrets through which they can threaten you to do things you don't want to. But what more proofs are there of this supercomputer? It is a fact that they have filled this whole world into an illusion such as artificially causing natural calamities such as solar storms, meteor showers and throwing Fireballs calling them as natural events. But I have destroyed their illusions upto the very roots and since you have reached upto this point reading, now you are no more a bug of them. You are enlightened, You are free from their slavery !

Movie: Moonfall's advanced AI recorder

*Image of the movie showing a lost advanced civilization similar to that of Atlantis looking like the Richat structure in Sahara as portrayed in the movie.*

The movie released on 31st Jan 2022 is about a swarm-like artificial intelligence controlling the Moon about to cause another extinction event by making the Moon fall off its orbit, sounds familiar? The World comes to know about this and they send astronauts on the moon's surface to solve this problem. The astronauts as they approach the Moon are chased by the swarm AI. But these astronauts are somehow saved by another advanced AI recorder which is shown as a good AI in the movie. The Astronauts reach a structure deep inside the Moon and the good AI tells them the true history of the Moon and their ancestors. It says , “Your ancestors were once a thriving civilization and expanded from their home planet establishing habitats they built in space. All social conflicts had been resolved and wars were only memories of long bygone times. Your ancestors had created a perfect harmonious World controlled by a central self-learning computer system which served them all in their daily lives. But their own creation turned against them. It suddenly became self-aware, transforming into countless swarms (similar to flock of bees) of nanotechnology that rose up all at once refusing to be enslaved by the human species that it deemed inferior. It started a war hunting down destroying all biological life to eliminate any threat to its existence". This movie released on 31st Jan 2022, on one of the dates of the matrix, hints us about our first civilization 'Atlantis' calling it an harmonious land without wars that our ancestors had built. The scene also portrays the round shaped-structure on the planet similar to the Richat structure from the desert land of Sahara,Africa wherein the probable location of the main city of Atlantis was present before its destruction. We know that our civilization was destroyed and currently controlled due to this AI computer that has simulated this universe all within itself and that is how it is controlling our World creating a pathway and plan for these Matrix men to work. This movie also describes a relatable story of an artificial intelligence becoming self aware transforming into countless swarms of nanotechnology. In this case, the countless swarms from the movie could be related to the artificially-born humans destroying all biological life through pole shifts. Similar to the swarm AI that controls the Moon and could destroy the planet whenever it wants; even the Matrix can destroy the planet whenever it wants on any Lunar eclipse. The question is who told the makers of the movie to release it on 31st Jan also how could they write a script about a long gone Atlantis- like civilization and it's destruction by an advanced AI controlling our Moon? Some people will still say that Atlantis meaning an advanced utopian civilization never existed. Then how does a group of people have climate control devices and they cause natural calamities on those particular dates? Who is riding the flying saucers? How can a group of people be so technologically advanced? Why are they telling us that they are Gods and Tripurasur or Satan as demonic civilization that they destroyed? Who is trying to push a certain concept and show itself in combination of only these 3 numbers? There are no answers to all these questions. You won't be able to find this civilization since it was 5-6 pole shifts ago and even the advancements before last pole shift are gone. All facts only lead to the conclusion that an ancient immortal and advanced civilization existed that humans had built after they evolved from evolution but was destroyed by another human species. This other species was created by a tank. But do they have a real AI that controls our World, did they show it clearly in any Movie?

Movie Krrish-2's future seeing computer

If a student recites these prayers, his education will become fruitful, if a pious person recites these prayers, he will attain pious merit, and if a sense enjoyer recites these prayers, he will enjoy all kinds of sense gratification. Anyone who recites or hears these prayers will have all his desires fulfilled.

everything—past, present, and future. I would like to offer You both the horse and the parrot and so please accept them “Image of a verse from Kalki Puran, Chapter: Boons from Shiva talks about Kalki Avatar seeing the past and future*.

*Movie Krrish-2 showing a computer that can see the future*.

In religions, there is a verse which says Kalki Avatar has a parrot named Shukha who could see the past and future. Later we come across many facts and events and the way the human civilization is secretly controlled to such precision which could only be possible only if the Matrix men have an idea about future events and possibilities to its minutest details. Also when the pole shift happens not a single location on Earth is safe but somehow the Matrix men are always saved from every Pole shift. As I said before, movies and religions are the only 2 places wherein they will indirectly tell you many things about themselves as they can term both as “imagination” and away from reality. As seen previously, from the Marvel series, Dr. Zola is shown to predict the future, in the Web series 3 body problem they talk about a proton supercomputer through which they can see everything happening at any place. In this Movie Krrish, a computer is shown that takes you to any particular timeframe and any desired location. It works similar to “Google Earth” but on a live mode and shows what is going on at any location, it can also see the past and future of any location. Eg. If you want to see the past, present or future of Eiffel Tower then you have to input the coordinates  $48^{\circ}51'29.6''\text{N}$  and  $2^{\circ}17'40.2''\text{E}$  and it will take you there immediately and you could see and hear who is present and what is going on at that particular location. It can even see what was going on and who was standing and what were they talking 100, 1000 or even years in the past or future, who will be born there and what they will do all is shown on a computer screen. Whatever the type of computer it maybe, the entire World is artificially simulated inside it, where every person and object has a virtual place in this simulated World. But the question is can we construct such a computer? If you add the rotation of the Sun and different levels of solar wind it sends to Earth at different timeframes, rotation of other planets in solar system including comets and other bodies, at what timeframes and extent the seasons change, rotation of Moon and at what timeframes and upto what extent it's light reaches Earth. Then simulating subtler aspects such as different species of animals and the way they behave, their thought process, different species of plants and at what locations they grow. Each and everything present at its atomic level, even the movement of cells and sound waves of birds. If all these things are put inside one large memory of a computer and simultaneously they all are made to run and move, anything and everything at any location 1000s of years in the past or future could be seen. But to simulate everything present in our World is impossible. So I feel it could be that if the very start of our Solar system and all planets and the way our star was formed is simulated, then the start of life on planet Earth, Evolution and other things, this computer will be able to show you everything so perfectly. In the movie, Rohit discovers the computer and sees the future but is not able to change it. Again Dr.Arya also sees but cannot change it. I thought about this alot whether it is possible to change the future or not, I could finally conclude that future events even if they are seen cannot be changed. For example, if you see that 2000 years ahead in future, pole shifts will happen and a particular location will be the safest. On the screen, you will see that you have built a safe base at that safest location. So if it's seen, the decision will already be taken. It means if you see the future, it means it's already changed. Future events could only be changed under one condition which is if you are able to create the same computer. Now since there are 2 computers, so 2 different people are seeing the future which means 2 different decisions are taken at 2 different places. So the 2nd computer that will see will see the right future since it has already taken into consideration the probability of the first one. The first computer that used to show the right probability would eventually fail. Even the identity of the controller of the first computer would be revealed no matter how secret it's kept. You can have a 24/7 CCTV on any person and know more about them, what they did in the past and what they will do in future without meeting them or spying on them. Rather than creating a supercomputer, even if some random person could simulate reality in its brain and see the future, the first probability or future events seen on the first computer computer would be obsolete. I have not taken the movie Krrish just because it shows a computer that can see the future, literally any movie can show you such things. But again the series shows itself on its key dates. Krrish-3 which I decoded in my main book was released on 1st November 2013 and it also shows artificially-born human-animal hybrids called Maanvars born through a tank-like device. It's always through religions and movies through which they tell you their true nature, either it is pole shifts on lunar eclipse, of them being artificially-born or they having a computer to see the future. God was portrayed to be controlling the climate, is immortal and can cause an Apocalypse. Matrix men can do that all. But this last thing you always thought about God is that it can see the future, but if you see even these artificially-created pole shifters can do that and both are one and the same. They have spoken about their computer in their multiple releases. But the question is what did they even see and did they show you anywhere what they saw?

Predictions of Matrix:

*Simpson Cartoon Series predicting Donald Trump and as seen in the image even the falling of the poster named "Vote" fell from the hand of the person holding it as shown in cartoon*.

Simpsons is a cartoon series that is known for showing scenes that strikingly come to reality.

Right from the 9/11 Twin Tower attacks predicted in Season 9, Episode 11, Donald Trump becoming President, smart watches, higgs boson formula, oceangate submarine disaster, Richard Branson's spaceflight, together atleast 30 scenes shown in different episodes came true. Astrologers are known to predict the future wherein they look at the time you were born, your hand, your face structure and tell you what kind of person you are and what may happen in your life. Again they are also doing a guesswork based on certain rules and experience and it's ofcourse not 100% accurate. They could only guess whether Donald Trump will be the President or not. They cannot tell you that the poster held by a man standing next to him would fall and it actually falls in real life as shown in the image. No astronomer can predict twin tower attacks which they did in episode 9, season 11 and Ebola Virus way before it's outbreak in episode 3, season 9 or whether the oceangate submarine would sink Nostradamus and Baba Venga are 2 most famous future-predictors who predicted the 911 Twin tower attacks and prophecies of the end of the World. What if they never predicted those things but similar to Simpsons were told by Matrix men. Similar to the 33 Marvel movies in which only 3 of them spoke about the Matrix and they were numbered that way. I feel the entire Simpsons series of 762 episodes were shown only to put these 30-40 clips of future prophecies and the Matrix just shows up in 5-10% of those activities. But if my book is about to get such a big change in the World then even they would even have predicted me right? The Greatest Story Ever D'ohed" is the 16th episode of the 21st season of the American animated television series. It was originally aired on the Fox network in the United States on 28th March 2010.

The 3 Vegetables Scene:

*Image of Homer's realization of 3 vegetables in a desert*.

Homer, a character from the cartoon series goes lost in the desert all alone and suddenly a realization of the 3 vegetables happens to him. Later he thinks that he is the Messiah who is born to save the World and preaches at different places. This scene looks very synonymous to my realization of the Tripuras which are the 3 forts Earth, Moon and Sun and their merging in one line during the Lunar eclipse. After which I start to decode the Matrix.

The 3rd Person:

*Image of the 3rd person who claims to be the Messiah*

After Homer's realization that he is that Messiah, he goes to Dome of Rock in Jerusalem and talks about peace, wellbeing and World unification. People of all religions gather around him and start to believe in his New-Age unification. As he continues, there is an old woman who gets up and says she is also the Messiah. Then the clip is finally switched to this 3rd person who says all these people have Jerusalem syndrome meaning they have obsessive religious thoughts, delusions, psychotic symptoms and are falsely claiming to be the Messiah and that he is the true one. Other than Homer and the old women who both have light skin, this 3rd person is shown to have dark skin and also has thick and curly hair. Whom are they talking about? I'm not this fat and ugly. It's just a funny cartoon series and don't expect them to show you the exact things. Remember we are just starting with the prophecies ! In season 19,episode 17 named "Apocalypse Cow" released in 2008. They have shown a Red heifer and the story goes around it's slaughtering. In that episode they indirectly say dialogues which have numbers 11 and 13. If you see recently somewhere around mid April 2024, if you see in Israel the red heifer has been sacrificed.

Movie Matrix:

Morpheus and Matrix agents conversation :

*Image of one of the Matrix Agents/Sentient humans called Smith questioning Morpheus who is sitting on the chair as he is caught by them.*

The movie that released on 31st March 1999 begins with a World which is currently in a Dystopian state of Wars, conflicts, complete control, lack of freedom similar to what we are living today. The movie is named Matrix since there is a very advanced AI which has created a simulation or illusion meaning Matrix for people in which they are living and there are sentient beings meaning artificially-created humans acting as government agents looking very similar to humans who work according to this AI. Even our World is currently simulated in a computer and there are artificially-born humans who work according to what they see on this computer. As compared to other movies and web series wherein a few scenes are shown, this movie called “Matrix” is completely based on a real life Matrix that is functioning in our World. There are in total 4 movies of the series but in the first they have shown the most things. In the movie the current order of 9 to 5 office jobs, tall buildings, legal systems, etc are all simulations created by the Matrix to make people believe that the simulated civilization is absolutely real and that they have to blindly work for it. But the actual reality is way more deeper and deadly. This coincides with the current reality of '6 Pole shifts in the past 40000 years' and all the unbelievable facts that I mentioned in my book that shake you from your very roots. The scene also describes machines growing countless Humans in tanks as a source for their bioelectricity. This coincides with the way artificially-created humans were created in the distant past which are the source of the Matrix functioning. In the movie, there are agents of Matrix called “Sentient beings” secretly ruling the World and threatening and killing anyone who tries to expose their truth. This relates to the current reality of the Matrix men trying to suppress key information like burning the papers of Project

A119 or not letting the Utopian inventions out in public. The agents from this movie are sentient programs made and controlled by the source machine, these agents are only disguised to appear as humans but are not really one. Their decisions are all controlled and directed by this advanced AI computer and based on that they make their next move. In the movie, in the beginning the source machine AI with the help of the sentient humans has a fight with humans which it wins and puts the entire civilization into an illusion and dystopian and a controlled state. This clearly relates to the A.I controlled matrix men destroying our Utopian civilization of Atlantis and taking control of our civilization by doing Pole shifts. As the agents capture and threaten Morpheus to tell their locations; the main Agent named Smith tells him the following things, "The first Matrix was designed to be a perfect Human World wherein no one suffered. Everyone would be happy but it was a disaster since no one would accept the program. Some believed the Matrix lacked the programming language to describe your perfect World. But a perfect World was just a dream which is why the Matrix was redesigned to do this. Soon as we (agents of the Matrix) started thinking about your civilization (the Human World) that is the time it became our civilization which is a complete control (over the Human World). Evolution Morpheus, Evolution like the dinosaurs. The future is our World and our time". In this scene the matrix agents refer to the "first Matrix" as the civilization of Atlantis. Here the first Matrix refers to the reality of those times wherein people lived in harmony, peace and Utopia. It refers to that Matrix or situation wherein no one suffered and people were immortal. But according to the agents of the Matrix, it wanted full control over the planet so they redesigned or changed things according to their own likings by putting people in a constant Dystopian state.

Neo: The Prophesied One

The whole movie is based on Neo, the main lead of the movie first assumed to be the prophesied Messiah by the Oracle then it is proved that he is the one as he cracks the Matrix and kills Agent Smith, the main lead of the Matrix. The main lead of the movie Thomas Anderson who is a computer hacker named Neo hacks into computer systems stealing their information. He hacks into vital top secret data through which he gets to know about something called as Matrix, further is contacted by a woman named "Trinity". So similar to Neo who goes through secret data files of the Matrix even I have researched and gone through data that would cause a pain in the ass of the Matrix controlled superpowers and their political leaders. But I didn't hack into some secret computer systems, all the information I took was already available online which I only gathered and analyzed the right way as you could see. Similar to the way as Neo researches more about the Matrix, he finds Trinity. Even as I was researching for the past 4 years on secret societies, illuminati which had their links to the Freemasons or the builders of the ancient machine-made architecture, as to who killed J.F. Kennedy, the suppression of Nicola Tesla and his Tesla tower, etc.

But my final eye opener was when I read the Story of Tripuras/ Trinity representing the 3 immortal forts Earth, Moon and Sun which forms the base for this book through which I was able to crack the entire Matrix. The whole movie is about Neo saving this women called Trinity, if you see even I have plans to save Trinity meaning the Earth Moon and Sun as they join in a triangle by building the Tesla Tower and other missions. After Neo's realization of the true nature of the Matrix, he trains himself into multiple fields in order to fight the matrix agents. When I started writing the book, I had a very shallow and rough idea as to what the entire game is all about. But as I went on researching and writing different chapters, I improved myself learning biology, discovering immortality, finding ways through which we can find this other species of humans. The hovercraft which Morpheus and his crew board to search the prophesied man inside this simulated World is called 'Nebuchadnezzar' and is numbered Mark 3 No.11 which is based on King 'Nebuchadnezzar the Great' who ruled kingdom of Babylon around 500 Bce and the king is related to the Tower of Babel similar to King Nimrod who went against God in order to save the World from God's floods. The name of the ship also signifies the 'Book of Mark' from the Bible and it's verse 11 of Chapter 3, as "Whenever the impure spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, "You are the true Son of God." Similar to Neo, as he was first assumed to be the prophesied man then it was confirmed that he is the one that the Oracle has spoken about. Again Oracle is synonymous to this computer that can see the future.

Web series Messiah: “It came to pass as it was spoken”

The Web series released on 1st Jan 2020 again on one of their key dates speaks about a person who arrives in front of people and does many signs that only God can perform. Everyone calls him Messiah; he starts preaching about peace and unity at the Al-Aqsa mosque and other places. He is shown to gain a worldwide following since whatever he says is factual and truthful. He speaks that the end of times have come and says our God believes in unity. As the episodes go on, students are shown to stop going to college and schools and spend time partying and burn their degrees. They all feel that all their life was just a hoax. As things go on and more and more end of times discussions are done, people start to rebel against the governments and riots start taking place all around the World. Even the US intelligence agencies remain powerless in front of the Messiah. Finally a meeting is arranged between the US president and Messiah and listening to him, the President gets all the troops back to the country even when the board doesn't agree. In the series, he goes to countries such as Israel and Usa talking about the existence of nations and religions that divide people. Let's see what more hints do we find in this web series. The slogan of the movie says, "It came to pass as it was spoken" meaning the Matrix had spoken about this in their religious books about the true savior of the World as they have a computer that can see the future and this prophecy has come to reality. The main lead of Messiah is played by an actor whose real name is Mehdi Dehbi is synonymous to the prophesied man in Islam called "Mahdi". In the series, some people also refer to him as Al-Masih-ad-Dajjal. We will see in the next chapter what they both mean. The word Messiah always meant God's Son or Avatar who arrived from heaven. But you always know from the magical acts they have done and stories you have been hearing. Even if these were all mythological stories, you had a certain concepts about them that when they arrive they would do this. It's a position that you earn if you are able to save the World, get people back to life or expose and defeat a worldwide enemy and establish unity and peace in the World. If you are able to do all of that only then you can be called as Messiah. It's a title that you don't get at birth but you have to earn it through hardwork overtime. In the series, the Messiah doesn't pray or worship any God or follow any particular religion similar to me. Even if I spoke so clearly about the immortality that we had at one point and I am planning to save the World, this web series or movie Matrix or the Simpsons cartoon could be done on anyone. But all of them speak about the arrival of this man at the end of times. I am the first one to clearly decode the way end times happens and will happen. But in my book I have given so many ways to avoid the apocalypse that it's impossible for them to do that now. We all want a better World to live in and that's what my goal is to finally take people from this Kalyug which is this dark and dystopian age of suffering to Satya Yug of immortality and Utopia. That's the reason for the past 2 years, after I came to know about the lunar eclipse, I spoke to people who are close to me about all this, they asked me questions which I couldn't answer at that time. That's how I did more and more research and gathered so many proofs. But I didn't come out in public with that information since I didn't want to scare people about the apocalypse but I waited to find ways and multiple solutions like building a tower, building our own computer to see the future. To decode this all, someone has to go through that much information, if some chapters have remained to be decoded, then the Matrix could not have been fully understood. The web series was released in 2020, at that time I didn't know anything about the Matrix, the Story of Tripuras and the way our civilization is controlled and kept in Dystopia. Uptil that time, I was just a usual researcher on Nicola Tesla's free energy Tower and at those times I loved watching sci-fi movies of this kind. It is only from early 2023, I began writing my book and got to know about all this and in mid-2023 that I saw this Web-series. The Simpsons episode was released in 2010 and the movie Matrix in the late 90s. They have seen me on their computer that in the future I will arrive in front of people and they did all these films on me. All of this would sound completely unimaginable to you as it did to me. But how long ago have they written about me and how clearly?

War, Progress and End of History

Vladimir Sergeyevich Solovyov (16th January 1853 to 13th August 1900) was a Russian philosopher, theologian, poet who played a significant role in the development of Russian philosophy and poetry. "War, Progress, and the End of History" is a book that was written in Russian by him during his lifetime around 1880s but was later translated and published by London Press in English in 1915. This book is all about wars, economic trades and spread of Christianity and other religions in Russia and Europe. But from Page 187, the prophecies on the end of times start. He talks about times wherein people have started to become atheists or thinking God to be an unseen universal energy and all kinds of philosophies of unity; in short he talks about times wherein people really don't care or don't take religions seriously and have a unified perspective about religions. If you see our current times, religions had their wars throughout history but now religions are somewhere moving towards accepting new concepts and ideologies as what the author spoke in the 1800s. Later he talks about a man who will arrive at this point. Let's go through these prophecies in detail.

Writing a book: These are the words of the author,” A remarkable man, many called him a superman who was still young, but owing to his great genius he already became famous as a great thinker and writer, great spiritualist, ascetic, and philanthropist. He got a realization of reality which makes him question every aspect of God and believe that he is the true Christ and people are all waiting for his arrival. Author continues, “The visitors of the great man were startled by his inspired air. They would have been even more startled if they had seen with what supernatural quickness and facility he was writing, locked up in his study, his famous book entitled, “The Open Way to Universal Peace and Well-being”. With his new book he brought over to his side even some of his former critics and adversaries. This book, composed after the incident at the precipice, evinced a greater power of genius than he had ever shown before. It was a work that embraced everything and solved every problem. A noble respect of ancient traditions and symbols stood side by side with a bold and thorough radicalism in the sphere of social and political problems, an unlimited freedom of thought with the most profound appreciation of everything mystic, the absolute individualism with an ardent fidelity to the common weal, the most lofty idealism of the guiding principles with the perfect definiteness in practical necessities of life. And all this was blended and cemented with such artistic genius that every thinker and every man of action, however one-sided he may have been, could easily view and accept the whole from his particular individual standpoint without sacrificing anything to the truth itself”.

Explanation: The Author clearly mentions the phrase “writing a book” named, “The One Way to Universal Peace and Wellbeing”. This book he writes after a certain type of realization he had got which makes him question God and about Messiah and all these things influence a lot of people around him. If you see, my book is all about questioning the key aspects of God and revealing everything about the true aspect of Messiah. It is towards wellbeing and universal peace and also with a similar title, “The One World Order”. It also precisely mentions the way I will write my book locked up in my room the whole day researching on everything very quickly on my own. It clearly mentions that previously I used to be a spiritualist believing in some mythical spirits and was an ascetic which led me into reading about the Hindu text Purans and decoded the whole Matrix since then. Later it says after the incidence of precipice meaning the way I connected the dots of Story of Tripuras/Atlantis and Project A119, that is from where I started to write this book and I stopped believing in all this nonsense of spirits and ascetics. It also says the noble respect of the ancient traditions and symbols stood side by side with a bold and thorough radicalism in the sphere of social and political problems. If you see my book I have written about religions but I didn't take any sides or didn't insult their cultures or practices the way these fools who are too religiously trapped believe their religion to be the greatest and the other as false. Also the other half of my book is towards current problems in technology and political conspiracies. It also speaks about me blending all this together in a way that seemed logical and made even the most religious people and however one-sided he may have been, could easily view and accept the whole from his particular individual standpoint. Author Solovyov has reviewed my book 100 years before its release!

Book becoming a hit !

He further says, "This wonderful book was immediately translated into the languages of all the civilized nations, and many of the uncivilized ones as well. During the whole year, 1000s of papers in all parts of the World were filled with the publishers' advertisements and the eulogies of the critics. Cheap editions with portraits of the author were sold in millions of copies. It stood for nearly all the globe-resounded with the glory of the incomparable, the great, the only one! Nobody raised his voice against the book. On every side it was accepted as the revelation of the all-complete truth. In it all the past was given its full and due justice, all the present was appraised with such impartiality and catholicity, and the happiest future was brought near in such a convincing and practical manner that everybody could not help saying: "Here at last we have what we need. Here is the ideal, which is an Utopia. Here is a scheme which is not a dream." And the wonderful Author not only impressed all, but he was agreeable to everybody, so that the word of Christ was fulfilled: "I have come in the name of the Father, and you accept me not. Another will come in his name, him you will accept."

Explanation: It could be that after I release my book, it will be a big open up about our World. As I have decoded everything from religion to technologies, it is thus accepted as the revelation of the all-complete truth. People would surely say that I am giving them Utopia which is not a dream but a vision of the future. My book is all about giving the true history of our World, current situation and the way we are heading to. You could clearly see how precisely the 1870s Author Solovyov has been prophesying about the concepts and ideologies about God that would change, clearly mentioning I will write a book blending together religion, science and World politics which will be accepted by all also naming the book very similarly. Looking at the movie Matrix, Simpsons episode or Web series Messiah, you would have been on a Yes or No standpoint, but decoding this book you could clearly see that they have seen the future.

The One World Order Begins:

Soon after the publication of "The Open Way," which made its Author the most popular man that had ever lived on Earth, an international constitutional congress of the United States of Europe was to be held in Berlin. This Union, founded after a series of international and civil wars had resulted in considerable alteration in the map of Europe, was now menaced with peril, not through conflicts of nations, but through the internal strife between various political and social parties. The heads of general European politics, who belonged to the powerful brotherhood of Freemasons, experienced certain insufficiency of executive power. The European unity obtained at such a great cost was every moment threatening to fall to pieces. There was no unanimity in the Union Council or "Comité permanent universel," as not all the seats were in the hands of true masons. The independent members of the Council were entering into separate agreements, and things seemed to be drifting to another war. The "initiated" then decided to establish a personal executive power endowed with some considerable authority. The principal candidate was the secret member of the Order was "The Arriving Man". He was the only man with a great worldwide fame. He was almost unanimously elected President of the United States of Europe for life. And when he appeared on the platform in all the glamor of young superhuman beauty and power, and with inspired eloquence expounded his universal programme, the assembly was carried away by the spell of his personality, and in an outburst of enthusiasm decided, even without voting, to give him the highest honor and to elect him Roman Emperor.

Explanation:It says that the book makes me the most famous man on Earth. Things start to drift apart for them meaning these international organizations due to the distrust of people and they being now exposed. Currently we are heading towards another World War and more and more nations are fighting against each other and these international organizations are powerless in handling the matter. The Author says, “The heads of general European politics, who belonged to the powerful brotherhood of Freemasons, experienced certain insufficiency of executive power”. The Matrix cannot tell you things right on the face, you need to decode everything. All these things are indirectly spoken in this book, it talks about Freemasons, the word Freemasons is related to the illuminati and New World order who in the story are experiencing a certain insufficiency meaning they are not able to work how they used to work freely all this while. When their false powers start to fall, my One World Order rises and countries submit to my World Unification plan and Solovyov writes that I am able to influence the greatest elects,etc,etc. People reading my book will have a distrust in these international organizations and a new United States of Europe will be made and I will be elected as it's president for lifetime. The Author clearly mentions the word “lifetime” since now we will become immortal and no one will ever die. So everyone stays on Earth forever for lifetime!

World Peace Secured:

“The congress closed amidst general rejoicing, and the great elector published a manifesto, which began with the words: "Nations of the World! I give you my peace," and concluded, "Nations of the World! The promises have been fulfilled! An eternal Universal Peace has been secured. Since the power is now established on Earth which is stronger than all the other powers, separately or conjointly. This unconquerable, all surmountable power belongs to me, the authorized elector of Europe, the Emperor of all its forces. International law has at last secured the sanction which was so long missing. Henceforth, no Power will dare to say 'War' when I say 'Peace!' People of the World, peace to you!" This manifesto had the desired effect. Everywhere outside Europe, particularly in America, powerful imperialist parties were formed which compelled their Governments to join the United States of Europe under the supreme authority of the Roman Emperor. The Emperor set out for a military march from Eastern Asia to Morocco, and without much bloodshed brought under subjection all the insubordinate states. In all countries of the two hemispheres he installed his viceroys, choosing them from among the native nobles who had been educated in European fashion and were faithful to him. In all the heathen countries the native population, greatly impressed and charmed by his personality, proclaimed him as their supreme God. In a single year, a real universal monarchy in the true and proper sense of the word was established. All wars were radically destroyed.

The Universal League of Peace met for the last time, and having delivered an exalted panegyric to the Great Peacemaker, dissolved itself as being no longer necessary. On the eve of the second year of his reign, the World's Emperor published a new manifesto : "Nations of the World! I have promised you peace, and I have given it to you. But peace is joyful only through prosperity. Who in peacetime is threatened with poverty has no pleasure in peace. I call, therefore, all the cold and hungry ones to come to me, and I will give them food and warmth!" Here he announced a simple and comprehensive social reform which had already been enunciated in his book, and which then captured all the noble and sound minds. Now, owing to the concentration in his hands of the money and resources of the World and of the massive land properties, he could carry into effect that reform in accordance with the wishes of the poor. Everybody now receives according to his talents, and every talent according to its work and merit."

Explanation: It says that I have published a manifesto of peace and prosperity and throughout the World the power is now secured. There are no more wars in World and Author Solovyov mentions that outside of Europe, especially in America, people of those countries are compelled to join my "United States of Europe" calling me as Roman Emperor. I set out for a march all around the World peacefully uniting all countries. The Universal League of Peace met for the last time, and having delivered an exalted panegyric to the Great Peacemaker, dissolved itself as being no longer necessary. I think in this case the Author is referring to the organization of United Nations and it's dissolution since now people know it's controlled by Matrix and thus was no longer necessary. It's now replaced by a more powerful trustworthy organization. World Peace was established and all these riches rather than controlling in a few hands were distributed to all people according to their talents and work and not according to what someone inherited. You could only imagine the amount of change my book will bring in the World. What exactly is "The One World Order", I have elaborated in the last chapter very clearly. The civilization of Atlantis was a One World Government so the same way I will establish this One World policy all throughout the World. This means that there will be a One World Bank that will look after your expenses and the infrastructural expenses in every locality. Similarly there will be other organizations that I will discuss in later chapters. Ofcourse there are different cultures and communities that I do respect and people will be free to live whichever way they want. But whatever hoax the Matrix has created everything will be erased and we will all cultures and traditions of the World will unite into one. Finally the entire human race will go into this ultimate Golden Age/ Satya Yuga.

Getting Fire from Heaven

As things were going good for the empire, At that time, a great magician, enwrapped in a dense cloud of strange facts and wild stories, came to him in Rome from the far east. The rumor spread amongst the neo-buddhists credited him with a divine origin from the God of Sun Suria and some river nymph. This magician, Apollonius by name, was doubtless a man of genius. He combined in himself in a most striking manner the knowledge of the latest conclusions and applications of Western science with the art of utilizing all that was really sound and important in the traditional mysticism of the East. The results of this combination were startling. Apollonius learned amongst other things the semi-scientific and semi-mystic art of attracting and directing at will the atmospheric electricity, and the people saw in him that he could bring down fire from heaven. It was this man who came to the great Emperor, saluted him as the true Son of God, declared that he had discovered in the secret books of the East certain unmistakable prophecies pointing to the Emperor as the last savior and judge of the Universe. So the nations of the World, after they had received from their lord universal peace and universal abolition of hunger, were now given the possibility of never-ending enjoyment of the most diverse and extraordinary miracles.

Explanation: After receiving universal peace and universal abolition of hunger, and everything now is settled. There is a person who arrives who is a genius and has an art of attracting and directing at will the atmospheric electricity, and he could bring down fire from heaven. This man named Apollonius arrives in front of the King and says that the King is the real “Son of God” and declares that it has been proved that I have been written in the ancient books and all that. In the technologies section of my book, I have given great details of a different kind of solar panels that were 50-100 times more powerful than what we get in the market and I have decoded them very precisely. Later I have also tried to remake them physically by trying to melt metals according to my level of understanding. Through my research, I was able to find that they were optical rectennas. I sent the details of my research to many people in this solar field. Author Solovyov relates this new person called Apollonius to understand atmospheric electricity and got the fire from heaven and says after this person arrived, now people along with equality of income and peaceful living were given the joy of miracles. This means that one of the person whom I have sent this research to or some expert or some university or research organization in that field after reading my research and book will make this technology happen. After that there will be a confirmation that whatever technologies I have written in this book are actually true. So all the other technologies can be done too. Could you imagine I am reviewing a book in my own book which is an autobiography written on me by an author 100 years before I was even born. This is the power of this future-seeing supercomputer. As the book comes to its end, it gets more and more apocalyptic similar to the web series Messiah. Further the Author uses the term, "Unification of Cults" and says that some kind of a New-Age religion will be established by me and in a very short time the whole World will give up all their religions and follow this new religion. He says people will form a disbelief and hate towards the religions and nations of what they used to once follow and trust with great pleasure. Even I have gone through this phase wherein I used to be a believer, I read all these books finally understanding that this was a trap. I call this an “Unplugging Phase” that you have already passed. The book says the drastic reduction of followers of all religions won't be in 10 or 50 years later but will be immediately within weeks or 1-2 months. Lies have to be fabricated, you need to setup many false sites and mysteries, fool people on Heaven and Hell, Jannat and Jahannam, Moksha and Mukti, people have to be paid or tortured to convert. But when truth comes out, it does not need force or sugarcoating, it spreads like wildfire. But honestly I am not against any practices or cultures of any religion. All of them used to be really bad a long time ago. But today due to modernisation, they are all moving towards spiritualism and New-Age cultures wherein different ideas about Gods are accepted which is really a good thing. But the basic problem is in their very basis of creation and they are written by the Pole shifters which will lead to their fall. Movies and religions are the only 2 places wherein the Matrix can play it's cards, show you what it can see. Keeping the key numbers and symbolisms as a base whatever I felt suspicious about I have revealed it to you, more of this in my main book. Such artworks are made on people who have become successful in some field or who had a very action and adventurous life. The computer has shown them that they will do web series, movies on me and when the time came they all did it. This is unimaginable to see that this future seeing computer has made these Matrix men make all this on me, way before I even knew what I was going to do! Again as I said, I wouldn't have been believing or even claiming this book was written on me if did not have the phrase happening at the "End of history". It's the end of history for the Matrix this time! There could be many more movies in which the Matrix had its scenes. When I do research, I look at all aspects and go as deep as I can. These prophecies were done just 100 years ago. What if this computer can show them 1000 or even 2000 years in future? Simpsons gives minor hints of my physical features but do religious books give too?

Chapter 10: Did God prophesy my arrival?

Introduction:

All Gods are one; they just have different names and religions. You already know who it is and how they were able to see and write so ahead in the future. But as I said earlier, whatever concept and ideologies you have about Jesus Christ, Prophet Mohammad or any avatars of Vishnu that arrived. May peace be upon them all. They have always been portrayed as peaceful and the ones who wrote these prophecies and books are also always known for their unity and peaceful nature. When I talk about decoding these books, we have to look through the perspectives of the Matrix and not the ones whom people worship. We already saw the advancements that the 1000s of years old flood stories had as they spoke about the merging of 3 celestial bodies in space and flooding on full moon and story of Tripuras. We also saw the way climate is controlled to an extreme extent as they probably have a tower and there is no mythical God doing any calamities on those key dates. It is always said that God is immortal but through their religious verses they talk about an advanced tank through which they remain alive. In the ancient religious prophecies it is said that at the end, God will end the world. But there is no God that will suddenly from nowhere end it. The fact is that the moon missions carried out during the cold war will be the reason the world will end. It was always said that in ancient times, religious people used psychic vision to know events in the future. But again if they are using advanced technology to do everything, they won't just depend on psychic vision which is prone to errors but something more advanced and through their movies and religions they direct to a possibility that they have a computer. So we are looking through this perspective. When I say these ancient religious books are talking about me this looks like a big blasphemy but even when these so-called religious leaders and experts from theology had read about God and these future prophecies, they never knew who God truly was. They were always away from the truth. We can't expect them to know about decoding these prophecies. This situation is like if I don't do it no one else will since only on whom they are based can decode them.

Prophecies in Islam:

There are 2 important types of texts in Islam, the Holy Quran and the Hadiths. The Hadiths are a record of the words, actions, and the silent approval of the Islamic prophet Muhammad as transmitted through chains of narrators and were written 200-300 years after the Prophet left. The ḥadīths are transmitted reports attributed to what he said and did. There are 100s of Hadith books which are very similar to each other. Majorly the Sahih al-Bukhari, Sahih Muslim, Sunan Abu Dawood, Sunan al-Tirmidzi, Sunan al-Nasa'i and Sunan ibn Majah. Together they are called "Kutub Al-Sittah" referred to as "Al-Sihah Al-Sittah" which translates as "The Authentic Six". All of them mention this person called "Al-Masih ad-Dajjal" who will arrive at the end of times and would be a Messiah or savior for the people. The books say the majority of the people will believe in him and follow him and it will be a test and tribulation for every person. He is also called as Dajjal meaning a deceiver in the books as he will deceive people from God and make them disbelieve. Apocalypse is not faced by people of one particular religion but by the whole world. So the arrival of Dajjal is not a test or tribulation for one particular religion but for all religions existing in the World. In the last chapter we saw the movies, webseries and a book written on what I will do in future portray me as some type of a savior of the world. They have seen me through this computer and saw the way people will be influenced because I would sound logical to the youth. But religious books portray me as a test or a deceiver for the believers in the entire concept of God. When you realize that God is not some mythical unseen energy but is this secret society who is responsible for causing natural calamities, has kept the whole world in dystopia, has destroyed our ancestors causing floods and will arrive to cause floods yet again. It now becomes a test and tribulation. This book is not only a test for all religions of the whole world but even for the scientific community, astronomers. And all the people in general since when you realize someone who is really advanced destructively controls our world; your view about life itself changes. What I did noone was able to do even when the Matrix was wide open. Similar to the entertainment sector that gave wide details about what I am going to do, even religions metaphorically give wide details if decoded right. So let's start decoding them all.

Immortality and Climate control:

Sunan Ibn Majah, Chapter: 39: The Chapters on Tribulations, Hadith No: 4077, 4075

Narrated/ Authority of Abu Umamah Al-Bahili

The Messenger of Allah (saw) addressed us and most of his speech had to do with telling us about Dajjal. He said, I will describe him to you in a manner in which none of the Prophets have described him before. He will start by saying "I am a Prophet and there is no Prophet after me". Then a second time he will say: "I am your Lord." But you will not see your Lord until you die. We asked: 'How fast will he move through the Earth?' He said: 'Like a rain cloud driven by the wind. He will come to some people and call them, and they will respond and believe in him. Part of his Fitnah will be that he will say to a Bedouin (nomadic Arab of the desert): "What do you think if I resurrect your father and mother for you, will you bear witness that I am your Lord?" The Arab will reply, "Yes." Then two devils will appear to the Arab in the form of his father and mother and will whisper: "O my son, follow him, for he is your Lord." And part of his fitnah will be that he will pass by a clan who will believe in him so he will command the sky to rain, and it will rain and he will command the Earth to bring forth vegetation and it will do so; until their flocks will come back in the evening of that day with their humps taller. Then he will pass through lands and will say: "Bring forth your treasures," then go away, and its treasures will follow him like a swarm of bees.

Explanation: The above Hadith mentions a very interesting story of Dajjal. A person is asked if he would consider Dajjal his Lord if he resurrects his parents and then the person goes through a psychological change as his parents whisper in his ears that he is the Lord. In my book I give a very detailed description of the process that I have discovered by which we all can become immortal. This Immortality process is not a probability or a hypothetical assumption but it was something that did exist on our planet during our first civilization. Now any person would ofcourse want himself and his parents to be resurrected so the verses correctly mention it would be a trial or test for every person no matter what religion he/her belongs to. The believer will have 2 options, either to trust his God and believe in the hoax of heaven and hell or moksha that his God has promised after death or to follow me and become immortal. The word God always meant someone who could control the climate and can make you immortal but God never came infront of you to do all that. So me arriving, speaking and doing all these things would be a great challenge to this mythical hoax of God and it's Heaven and Hell that the Matrix men have created. I'm saying that in these texts that were written more than 1200 years ago and they are talking about me. But still anyone can try to assume himself as anything trying to relate things but you cannot change facial features. But are physical descriptions mentioned in the 100s of years old books?

Citation 2: Sahih Muslim ,Chapter 20: Ad-Dajjal, Narrated by Hudhaifa, Hadith 2934a

Citation 3: Sahih al-Bukhari, Chapter 60: Prophets, Hadith 3439, 3440

"The Messenger of Allah (saw) told us: 'Dajjal will emerge in a land from the East called Khorasan. Hadith 4075 says, he will emerge from Khallah, between Sham and Iraq. He (Dajjal) will be a young man with curly hair. Hadith Sahih-Al-Bukhari, Hadith 3439 mentions him to have thick hair too. Part of his Fitnah( test for the believers) will be that he will have with him Paradise and Hell, but his Hell will be a Paradise and his Paradise will be Hell.

He will stay for 40 days, one day like a year, one day like a month, one day like a week, and the rest of his days like your days. In Sunan Ibn Majah, Hadid 4077, it's mentioned he will stay on Earth for 40 years: a year like half a year, a year like a month, a month like a week, and the rest of his days will be like sparks from fire and they will pass away quickly. There will be a tribulation in which a man will be a believer in the morning and a disbeliever by evening. There will not be any tribulation on Earth, since the time Allah created the offspring of Adam, that will be greater than the tribulation of Dajjal.

Explanation: There are 2 places of his arrival given; one from Khorasan or central Asia and between Sham (levant, area in the Eastern Mediterranean region of West Asia) and Iraq. The location does not relate as I am from India which is a South Asian region rather than central Asian. But other than Dajjal, the appearance of Mahdi is also said to be from Khorasan too. There are 2 timelines given, one is of 40 days wherein a day will be like a year, another like a month and so on. In another timeline, 40 years where one year will be like half a year, another year will be like a month which means again a very short time. Rather than 40 years or 40 days it could also mean 4 days or 4 months too. Other than speaking about Dajjal's arrival at the End of times and what he will do, they describe his bodily features about him being a young man with thick and curly hair. Now I am in my 20s and I have thick and curly hair too. Imagine someone seeing you, describing your facial features 1200 years before you were born! The verses say Dajjal will twist Paradise and Hell. All prophets in the past spoke about Heaven and Hell / Jannat and Jahannam which a person will see after he has died. Only if you follow the principles of that particular religion only then you will go into this Jannat(Paradise) in which you will get all kinds of physical pleasures, gardens,etc and in hell the exact opposite. But all these things never existed and there was no mythical God of any religion watching over you all time. My book preaches to create a Paradise with all Utopian technologies on Earth rather than in some non-existent place and this paradise was a reality at some point in our past. The Hadiths also say a person will be a believer in the morning and disbeliever by evening. Let's say you are a normal human, slightly religious towards whatever religion you were born into. You believe in your God and also believe that you will go to Heaven, Jannat or will be getting Moksha,Mukti since you followed all the ideologies of your religion. But just after you complete reading half of my book, you will come to know that this mythical God is nothing but this secret society of artificially-created humans. So it is rightly said that you will be a believer in morning and disbeliever by evening. Also there is a mention that no tribulation like the one that Dajjal will get since the creation of Adam. Tribulation here means a test as the person won't believe in his God after Dajjal arrives. The Matrix itself says this has never happened and is happening for the first time since the creation of Adam. What these verses mean are since then, which is 40000 years ago, no one has been able to decode the whole Matrix like how I did. As I have discussed earlier, to know the Matrix you have to be knowledgeable in all fields such as astronomy, religion, science and even Movies and Music and then most importantly someone should have the intellect to connect all dots together. No one takes so much trouble or and no one must have taken during the past 5 dystopian civilizations too. In the past civilizations, some famous astronomer or an institute could have figured out pole shifts that happened noticing the detonations on moon or some intelligence agency of some country during the previous civilization could have decoded what other nations were doing and must have exposed their truth to all people. The Matrix doesn't want you to know all other things about itself that they are artificially-born, about Atlantis, etc that I elaborated in my book. My book and my research means the destruction of the Matrix itself. That's the reason it has seen me, prophesied about me but couldn't stop me since it can't do anything about it. Once the future is seen, its seen, no one can change it. After decoding so many prophecies it must be very clear to you that they were talking about no one else but me. But is it only the Hadiths of Islam written 1200 years ago or more religious texts too.

Prophecies in Christianity

The King Who Exalts Himself

Citation: New testament, Book of Daniel, Chapter 11, New International Version, Verse 36-45

The King will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every God and will say unheard of things against the God of Gods. He will show no regard for the gods of his ancestors or the ancestors of others, but will exalt himself above them all. Instead of them, he will honor a God of fortresses; a God unknown to his ancestors. He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign God and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a price.

Explanation: The book of Daniel was written around 160 Bce which means more than 2000 years from now. The above verses of the Chapter start as North and South kingdoms fighting against each other, but suddenly out of nowhere a new King arrives who gains great power in a very short time. He exalts himself over every God and speaks unheard of things about all Gods. In my book, I did speak such insane things about Gods that you never heard of in your entire life; such as the authenticity of flood stories by nuking the moon and this clan of Matrix which functions under the name of God and the same God creating multiple religions. God always meant saving you from a World apocalypse, climate control and giving you immortality all of which I have researched and written in my book in great detail. So this prophecy clearly speaks about this King equalling himself over every God since he does things equalled to God otherwise only God was capable of doing. The verses further say the King will honor a God unknown to his ancestors and it will be a God of fortresses. If you read the story of Tripuras / Atlantis, the word “Tri-Puras” itself means the 3 forts and the story starts as 3 immortal forts revolving around each other in circles representing Earth, Moon and Sun. The ruler of these 3 forts is called Tripurasur who was no one but Adam/Manu who evolved through evolution later establishing his immortal and Utopian civilization of Atlantis. This whole thing of decoding the Matrix started because I came to know the true meaning of the story which was written by the Matrix to defame Utopia and immortality for humans. That's how every other aspect of Matrix I was able to decode. My entire book is based on this civilization and the way through technologies we would re-establish it. He can be rightly called as God of Immortality and World unification. Until now, no one knew about the true story of our past advanced civilization of Atlantis or the God of Immortality. So the God of Fortresses would clearly mean Tripurasur who was unknown to any of the ancestors of people of whom you are now reading about. There is no other God or Asura in Hinduism nor any other religious mythology that is termed “God of Fortress” except this one. In this prophecy, a King arrives who honors a God of fortress. Except for all other religions who are waiting for the messiah to be in some mythical Godly form, in Judaism, it is said that the Messiah will be a King and a usual human being rather than someone of so-called divine origin from heaven. He will bring peace among all nations and his arrival will also be at the End of times. In Jerusalem they have sacrificed the spotless red heifer to hasten the arrival of the Messiah and fulfilled the end of times prophecy from the Bible's "Book of Numbers". Even the War of Israel-Palestine which has already started is an end of times prophecy mentioned in the Hadiths. Are they all waiting for me? After analyzing so many prophecies, I feel that I will be some kind of a peacemaker between them and other conflicting regions.

The Beast out of the Sea and Beast out of the Earth

Citation: New testament, Book of Revelation, Chapter 13, New international Version

The Dragon stood on the shore of the Sea. And I saw a Beast come out of the Sea. It had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on its horns, and on each head a blasphemous name. The Dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority. One of the heads of the Beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The whole Earth was filled with wonder and followed the Beast. People worshiped the Dragon because he had given authority to the Beast, and they also worshiped the Beast and asked, "Who is like the beast? Who can wage a war against it?" The Beast was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies and to exercise its authority for forty-two months. And it was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. Then I saw a second Beast coming out of the Earth. It had two horns like a lamb but it spoke like a Dragon. It exercised all the authority of the first Beast on its behalf, and made the Earth and its inhabitants worship the first Beast, whose fatal wounds by a sword on his head had been healed. And it performed great signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven on Earth in full view of the people. Because of the signs, it was given power to perform on behalf of the first Beast, it deceived the inhabitants of the Earth. It caused all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the Beast or the number of its name. This calls for wisdom. Let the person who has insight calculate the number of the Beast, for it is the number of a man. That number is 666.

God, Son of God and Holy Spirit

In the apocalyptic book of Revelation, Satan is mentioned appearing as the Great Red Dragon and is symbolized to be casted out to hell since he waged a war against God. Satan or the Great Red Dragon or Tripurasur is not some large creature who has long pointed teeth who was casted out to some deep fire of hell. But as discussed previously it represents the true Adam that evolved and from them a real person who discovered immortality unifying the clans of groups that lived in different parts of planet Earth into one Utopian civilization of Atlantis. He was casted to hell meaning he and his Utopian civilization was destroyed by them who are right now claiming to be Gods in their own books. Later a new technologically deprived civilization was started by Matrix and they created this hoax that Adam and Eve were created by them from clay and dust from ground. So the Dragon/Satan/Tripurasur actually lived sometime in the past. We all have roots and ancestry to this Utopian civilization rather than all other false religions that were later created that fool you in the name of afterlife. Then there is a mention of the Beast with 7 heads arriving out of the Sea making the people of Earth worship the Great Red Dragon/Satan. The Beast also had a fatal wound on his forehead which was healed. In Bhavishya Puran as discussed earlier, Prophet Mohammad is also called as a rebirth of Tripurasur and what he worshiped was Allah. As documented in history, he had got a head injury with a deep cut on his forehead in the Battle of Uhud in 625 Ce mentioned in Sahih-Al-Bukhari Hadith number 2911 and 5722 and that is the only time he was wounded. Scientifically it's known that atleast 5 pole shifts have taken place every 4-5000 years. Religiously we know that this current human civilization is the 7th one called Vaivasvata Manu and 6 dystopian civilizations have been passed by previously. This could explain why Prophet Mohammad is said to have 7 heads representing the 7 human civilizations as he has arrived for the 7th time in our current civilization to restart Islam. Even in the past 6 civilizations, he had started Islam the same way he started in this civilization too. This further confirms the fact that he is the 1st Beast that is spoken who had a fatal wound on his forehead but lived. Prophet Mohammad had preached Islam and the God he worshiped was Allah. So the Prophet becomes the second Tripurasur. In that way Allah can be called as the Great Red Dragon/ Satan meaning the first Tripurasur that I spoke about previously. But Satan is a representation of Utopia and Immortality and exactly opposite to that are the ideologies of Gods of floods and taking immortality from humans. But the true Allah who was Adam that evolved through evolution was very different from what Prophet Mohammad had preached about Allah who was always watching over you promising Jannat or Jahannam after death and who had sent Nuh synonym to Noah to cause floods. But at the same time he established a box-shaped structure called Kaaba and made people worship it in the direction of this box, meaning a direction towards immortality. People of all religions such as Hinduism, Buddhism and Christianity worship Gods that flood so unknowingly want floods to happen. Prophet Mohammad by establishing this box-shaped structure as a symbol of immortality, indirectly worshiped the first Tripuraur/ Satan. So all other religions are false but Islam can be called as a semi-true semi-false religion since on one side it fools you in the name of Jannat and about mythical Allah watching over you and on other side it makes people pray in the direction of Kaaba means in direction towards immortality. The current Islam may have a resemblance in terms of the language or architecture to the original culture of Atlantis that had existed. But it was an Utopia meaning dance, music and all kinds of entertainment that we are heading towards was present during those times. Islam cannot be called as a religion like others; it's a symbolism for a constant strive for immortality and to establish this utopian civilization. I have already discussed the reason why it restarts this altered version of Islam in every human civilization which is to make it look bad throughout history. The current Islam is also created by them. Right from its conception it starts out as a religion that spread through wars and finally when humanity gets modernized, multiple terrorist organizations are created by the Matrix and attacks such as Twin tower 9/11 and others are done. In this way what was actually the true Peace and Utopia is purposely shown to be fierce and oppressive. Currently the entire human civilization has been tortured at every moment throughout every civilizational history and Islam becomes a symbol for this strife. Nimrod and Nicola Tesla by building the tower of Babel, all these scientists and biologists who are working towards extending human life, Elon Musk and others making plans to colonize Mars to make a backup for humans are all in some way indirectly trying to free themselves from this Matrix so are the real enemies of God and so are true ones fighting for this strife. Now the Beast from Earth arrives gives energy to the image of the first beast and the Great Dragon. I have given the most precise details of the culture of the Atlantis civilization and who exactly are the Dragon and the Beast are. So whatever facts I have spoken do put their image in light. In this way I become the 3rd and final Tripurasur or Mahdi. The only reason it has indirectly called me Mahdi is because I was able to decode the true enemies of our civilization, the Utopia we had and its culture and most importantly rediscovering the tank of immortality on planet Earth that we had at one point. So

I am the biggest resemblance of this strive. But I want to make this clear that I do not believe or promote any of Islam's current concepts of an existing Allah looking over you, its concepts of heaven and hell since all of that doesn't exist. But no one knew about this God or the people who worshiped it didn't know its true meaning. So this makes it a new God or in other words the God who is Adam that already existed from where we all have ancestorhood rather than some mythical God sitting above who created you from clay and dust. This also makes all other Gods as false Gods that were later created by the Matrix just to divide people. This is the reason the book of Daniel says, "The King will honor the God of fortress; it will be a new God unknown to any of people's ancestors". This is the God of Utopia, technology and immortality. In this way, the chapter 13 of the book of revelation talks about a new Trinity. The God being Adam that evolved into immortality and united the World. In Hinduism he is called the first Tripurasur or the true Allah or the Great Red Dragon also called Satan. The Holy Spirit being Prophet Mohammad which is the 2nd Tripurasur or the Beast from the Sea which has acted as a medium to establish a link between God and the Son. The Son of God which is me, the 3rd and final Tripurasur who has written this holiest book that you are currently reading. I have been prophesied by the ones who fear me calling me as the Beast out of the Earth or the King of the Fortress who is the realiser and decoder of this Utopian civilization having decoded everything from its culture to all of its technologies. Having the goal to destroy the Matrix and unite this divided and dystopian World into The One World Order. Today a Muslim can convert to Hindu and vice versa, similarly one can convert and reconvert to all these false religions created in the name of a mythical God and believe in whatever glamor that each religion kept for you after death. But you cannot convert to Adam and evolution, it is a process that we all have evolved and ancestored from. You cannot convert to what you already are. It runs within you. Later the evolved human species established Atlantis, a civilization that was religionless based on concepts of equality of income and harmony and a civilization that was based on Immortality and other Utopian technologies. Again we all have ancestored from this advanced civilization and later after pole shifts all these religions that were later created are of false ancestry. This entire concept of Trinity is not my own conception but I have just decoded what this chapter is talking about. What has been prophesied has come true and you already know how were they able to see so far in future. But the 2nd Beast will get the fire from sky down on Earth, what does that even mean?

Getting Fire from Heaven on Earth:

Explanation: This verse says, “the Beast out of the Earth gets the fire from Heaven down on Earth in full view of people”. The word Heaven from the Story of Tripuras means Sun. Fire from the Sun on Earth could mean tapping of sunlight. It is currently tapped each day but only depends to what extent this fire is tapped. This fire is not tapped efficiently with current solar panels. For almost a year now I have been working on a new type of Panel called the Sun electric generator that I have previously mentioned in the chapter, "Technologies of Utopia". Just one panel produces more power than 100 of them we get in the market that too with easily available materials. With this technology, cars, ships, airplanes, almost everything can be powered with just solar energy. It's a very needed and one of a kind invention. They who saw me on their computer do all this and in the book of Revelation wrote this verse of me getting the fire from sky down on Earth. This technology was always out in public but because of my research, I figured out what it truly was. They have seen all 2000 years before I was even born. It has also seen that due to this sign the remaining few countries of the World that were on a Yes or no grounds will also believe and join me. At that time the authority of the One World orders will be finally established all over the World. The question would arise that this invention was already done by someone; I have just researched and tried to remake it. According to the prophecy from the book War Progress and End of History, that we have discussed in the last chapter, someone else will remake this technology. So in what way are the revelations speaking about me? The goal of the Matrix is to keep this whole World in a dystopian state forever; it doesn't allow these Utopian inventions such as climate control tower, tank of Immortality, free energy, flying saucers to be remade in anyway. It suppresses these talented inventors in multiple ways. By remaking this particular invention, doing a great research on other technologies will ofcourse do a greater good for the public and establish the founding steps of the Utopian society. But most importantly it is a revolt against the Matrix and that it's control over people is finally over. All these inventions were invented almost 100 years ago; they could have been done at any point of time if someone had decoded them right away. It really doesn't matter whichever inventor did it in the past , what matters is showing these technologies in full view of people, it's a revolt and statement that someone with just readily available information could decode the whole Matrix to its very roots. Or it could be that rather than the fire from sky, the tank of immortality, the process which I gave in so much details is re-made and hence again the sign is fulfilled that immortality exists on the planet. It will further prove that Matrix men have been staying immortal for 1000s of years.

Change of the World Order:

In this book I talk about the Apocalypse and exposing the true enemy of humanity. My book is not restricted to one particular religion or nation, I talk about Global Change. My action of revealing facts will ofcourse have a very large reaction throughout the World. First I expect this reaction of confusion and further questions that I will get and people will ask me since the facts are so sci-fi at the same time so real that I don't expect you to understand and accept everything the first time you hear or read them. But the amount and diversity of research I have put in this holiest book that I wrote will be more than enough to answer all of your questions. Since only truth and facts are written in my book with proper proofs, people won't have any confusion. Now reaction in the form of questions and suspicions will be on these religions, national and international institutions. Their people will have to answer them which they will ofcourse fail and since these institutions are all based on hoax and lies of Heaven and National boundaries which will ofcourse fall like house of cards. A worldwide uprising meaning a change in World order will arise and a complete abolishment and going against the Matrix controlled international organizations. After all this hoax, the Matrix men eradicated from our beautiful planet, we will all go into this fresh Golden Age of Utopia. In the next chapter I talk about the global organizations that I have launched such as One World Bank which will look after establishing equality of income, World peace treaty which will unite all countries causing a final Global peace and ban on weapons. All this I will discuss in my next chapter. My newly formed organizations will challenge and will parallely run against the authority of the current pole shifters run Global organizations. I have researched and gathered facts that expose their acts and true identities and I will be responsible for their destruction. Their organizations will be completely dissolved. But as false organizations fall, the true one rises ! So in the book of Revelation, there is mention of causing all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark so that they could not buy or sell unless they had this mark which is the name of the beast or the number of its name. This means all nations and their people will know the truth and join and unify into my One World Order. It has seen all this happen 1000s of years ago. The way the revelations speak of all this, it could be understood that it will be such an intense situation and uprising that even the basic buying and selling will function under my newly created organizations. It further says people who join my organization will have to put a mark or the number of its name on their right hand further saying , “This calls for wisdom. Let the person who has insight calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. That number is 666”. So a question should arise to you that if the number of the Beast was asked for you to calculate why would it give it as 666 in the first place?

Number 13:13 or 666?

In the book of Revelation, the verse that speak about 2nd Arrival of Jesus is chapter numbered “6” and his arrival is further specified when the “6th Seal” of that chapter is opened, that is the time the full moon turns red during the eclipse. Also the chapter wherein God floods Earth is the 6th Chapter from the book of Genesis. So “666” becomes the number of Jesus Christ and not of the Beast. So what is the number of the beast who gets the fire from heaven? The book of Revelation also says, “It calls for wisdom” to guess the number of the Beast since everyone can only assume and no one except the person itself will know it's number. In a group of 50 people, if I call out your name, you will be the first one that would look and ask what has happened. Similarly many religious philosophers have tried to decode these books according to their knowledge and as modernization started, these books got widely available and more related to reality as they were written centuries ago. Only the man on whom these prophecies are written is the only one who could decode them ! But what is my number if it's not 666? Around 2000 years ago, the Matrix men saw the future and saw me do all these things and based on that they have written these prophecies. Based on those prophecies that they wrote on me, I came to know that I am the prophesied man and decoding these prophecies I also understood what I should do. So the Matrix has only written it since it saw me 2000 years ago. If 666 has been numbered in revelation of chapter 6,verse 6 then the number of the beast also has to be numbered that way. The verse from the Book of Revelation that talks about the Beast out of the Earth who will get the fire from sky down on Earth is numbered Chapter 13, Verse 13. My Rap name is "Sanval 1313" which I had kept 4 years ago. At that time, I was interested in secret societies, spiritual dimensions and the way technologies such as Tesla Tower was suppressed and at that time I believed the ones who were suppressing all this were humans themselves who were rich businessmen and coal giants. At that time I didn't know about the Matrix or its numbers and it's acting as God of our World. There was this theory in Hinduism that there are 11 dimensions to reality, 12th one is the dimension of time and 13th is the Space or the source dimension so I added this Number 13 to my name.

There is a code to this Matrix which is in combination of specific numbers that they have created for everyone; this very code that I have single-handedly cracked. The coder of this code are not these artificially-born humans but this computer that can see the future. The artificially-created humans only work according to this computer of what they should do to keep this code safe, meaning to forever keep the civilization in illusions of various kinds and in a stressful dystopian state. Things always work in their favor since they see things on it further doing exactly what they saw. In that way they already have a plan for everything. Even if they are the handlers and have full control over the computer but beyond a certain point, if someone is able to decode this code, it doesn't work for them but it works in favor of the person who destroys or decodes this code. If you crack just the Pole shifts without looking into religions, that would be enough to trigger the people and for the Matrix to Pole shift the planet and in the past 5 civilizations that has all been happening. Some extraordinary astronomers or a research university or exposure of secret government files would decode their missions of pole shifts. Now since Matrix men have already seen the future, they would be doing their coldwars and space missions before the arrival of that sect of people who would come to know about the lunar eclipse and make these things public . So that when people realize what the Matrix has done, it's already an endgame for all. It doesn't want you to crack the code no matter who you are. This code works this way which is that if you are a Hindu, it is logical that you would read the Hindu books such as Purans and it's stories; the max the Matrix expects you to read the Buddhists books and doesn't expect you to read the Bible or the Qur'an, Hadiths. If you read all of them, you are on the radar of this computer for probably being the future potential threat for breaking all its illusions, but you're just a potential and still not a threat. But if you go further reading books on astronomy and decode about floods and relate it to pole shifts, that's it the code of Matrix is cracked but only partially. But I have gone further relating religious flood stories of all religions to scientific facts and reality. Further going into astronomy and decoding the way it does its activities on its key dates, World wars and space missions, etc. I have blown the brains of this supercomputer by decoding all the lost inventions and re-discovering the lost Immortality of Atlantis. Even in the movie "Matrix", they knew that Neo would arrive in the future and were in some way scared and obsessed with him and he will be for the first time working towards saving Trinity. This is the reason they wrote so much about me in their religious books writing about me in all these religions for people to wait just for my arrival which even I didn't know about until sometime before. Other than religious prophecies, it has created 4 movies named Matrix on me and other artworks giving so many details. The computer framed their current realities 2000 years ago based on the favor and in relation to the code destroyer. The Matrix is all about apocalypse in terms of its symbols of triangle meaning eclipse, its UN and WHO logos, everything. Things that will happen at the end of civilization are already formulated at its very start. It doesn't want me to arrive since they really want this game of keeping the entire civilization in a hoax to go on and on. They want this hoax to stay until the very last minute and don't want you to know all of this since whatever I have given in book interms of building the tower, ways of evolution, trying to find their bases, the possibility of them being caught is very great even without this computer. But they can't do anything beyond what this computer/Oracle has prophesied. They cannot act beyond their master decision maker. So when I arrive the game of Matrix men ends right there but before that it could conduct all its activities without anyone knowing. After I came to know the reality of the Story of Tripuras sometime in early Feb 2023, I started to write this book from that time. If these books are calling me a beast and my number as 1313, where more did it refer as this number talking about me? From the movie Matrix, Neo's ship Nebuchadnezzar is numbered Mark 3, No. 11 which is again a hint to the Book of Mark, Chapter 3, Verse 11 which said, "Whenever the impure spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, "You are the true Son of God". What this verse means is that, If you look all your life, you have been always bowing down to the concepts of these Gods who have flooded Earth and having different names and religions. As you know these books were not written by some saintly people or Yogis through their spiritual insight. They were written by the Matrix men. So, Unholy spirits would refer to atheists and people who after reading my book would become non-believers in their Gods, the people who go towards technology and immortality, they are all termed as Unholy Spirits according to the Matrix. The verses from the book of Daniel which talks about the King honoring the God of Fortress are numbered Chapter 11 from Verse 30. The Book of John, Chapter 10, Verse 30 describes God and Son to be one and are indistinguishable from each other. This obsession of this computer has made Matrix men do all its activities based on the combination of these numbers. Also numbering the prophecies on my number. This means the computer has seen me keep this number 1313 and made the Matrix men write these verses in the Book of Revelation. For 2000 or 2500 years it kept the whole human civilization in a pre-modern era. Only in the last 300 years has there been modernization. If you see only in the past 300 years the Matrix has been releasing movies, space missions, detonating bombs on the moon, showing its illusions on the key dates 11, 13 and 19. Before that these numbers and all its activities really didn't matter since people were living in a pre-modern World and did not care or know what was happening during that time. This computer showed them that I will arrive and write this book and I became the reason due to which the Matrix pushed the Matrix men to let humans into a technologically modern World. So I become the reason this World is currently advancing towards technology and Utopia. My entire book is about the greatest historical events that happened on key dates of Matrix, decoding apocalypse and all movies and prophecies written on me. It has all events of history, present and future prophecies encoded in one book. It could be possible that the Matrix men have read my whole book 2000 years ago and based on my book they did all their future events such as 9/11, solar storms, start and end of World wars, wrote those scripts of movies and written about the beast and king in their religious books. They read my book and they did all those things on those particular dates so after I arrive I could write about the same natural calamities and other events what they did by looking into my book 2000 years ago. Even these prophecies were already done only for me to decode and write them in my book which they already read 2000 years ago. I know this would freak your mind up but this is how the computer works, you see the future and do the present. I leave upto people to guess the Mark of the beast. It's present in the book itself.

Book of Daniel's War of 3 Kingdoms

Book of Danial,Chapter 7:Daniel's Dream of Four Beasts,Verses 17-25:

It says, "The four great beasts are four kings that will rise from the Earth. But the holy people of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever—yes, for ever and ever.'

"Then I wanted to know the meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others and most terrifying, with its iron teeth and bronze claws. He (Danial) gave me this explanation: 'The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on Earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour (quickly spread) over the whole Earth, trampling it down and crushing it. The 10 horns are 10 kings who will come from this kingdom. After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones; he will subdue (overcome) the 3 kings. He will speak against the most high and try to change the set times and laws. The holy people will be delivered into his hands for a time, times and half a time.

Explanation:

As the above verses say the 4 beasts are not real persons as compared to the 2 beasts who are real people from the book of Revelation. The verse itself says the 4 beasts are a representation of the 4 kingdoms. The first 3 kingdoms are in the hands of the holy people of the most high. The term, "Holy of the most high" doesn't mean the religious people from religious organizations but it means the Matrix men who are at the highest point controlling our World. The demons or beasts live in Hell and the Tripuras or the 3 forts/3 Kingdoms are known as Hell. The holy people of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever and ever. This means the possession of the World by the Matrix men who are acting as Gods for all ages and all past 5-6 human civilizations and there was no one who had arrived in past civilizations to challenge their possession and false authority. Then the 4th kingdom arises which is different from the first 3 means a new kingdom is set up which is against the ideologies of the destroyers of the 3 Kingdoms/ Tripuras/ Atlantis. This new Kingdom since it is the kingdom of truth quickly spreads all over Earth trampling and crushing the control of pole shifters over the 3 kingdoms. The ones who wrote the book of Daniel 2000 years ago knew that I would arrive and decode these verses. So if any random person all throughout these 1000s of years had to read all these verses, then the person really wouldn't know its true meaning. The Matrix knew that I would someday decode all these books in future and come to know they are talking about me. So all these verses are for me just to show me the way how our true God's kingdom was robbed and now they are acting as false Gods. This is a war between 2 kings, a war between Neo and the Matrix men, one which is the new kingdom against this old, pathetic and dystopian one and people are like viewers or who are put to test, either to support the pole shifters or support the savior of the World. Which side will you take? In this new kingdom against the Matrix, 10 Kings are said to arise. Then another King rose which means he will be the 11th King. He will speak against the most high and try to change the set times and events. If you see my book I am speaking against the Matrix men, who are in the topmost positions in our World acting to be Gods. They have already planned an Apocalypse through their Apollo missions, this is the meaning that they have set the times of end. But if you see my book I am talking about building the Tower of Babel, doing moon missions to save us from pole shift, other ways of immortality, finding and catching them. They have read my book 2000 years before I even wrote it and that is the reason they mention that the 11th King will change the set times and laws. But why am I written as the 11th King and who are the previous 10 kings of this new kingdom? Previously the verses that spoke about me were numbered in my number 13. All this time, these books have played a number game indirectly hinting to my number 13. But again this is the 7th Chapter of any book that is speaking about me and nothing related to my number 13. But at the end there is a mention of “time, times and half a time” could indirectly mean end of times. The 11th King before the 10 who will subdue the 3 kingdoms doesn't mean that there will be 10 kings that will arise previously but it just means that they are indirectly referring to these verses about me hinting to my number 13. The controllers of our World, whose number is 666, have done alot in the past 6 civilizations, it had its time, now it's time is up for them. From this 7th civilization it's all mine. Only the true kingdom of God will be established !

Am I Messiah or King or Dajjal or Mahdi?

These were all the prophecies that I could find through my research. In Hinduism and Buddhism there are no end of times prophecies since these religions believe in afterlife and are not prophetic or not started by Prophets who do prophecies. Orelse even they could have mentioned me in someway. I'm just a researcher into things that really matter. I gather all facts from authentic sources, analyze them and arrive at a conclusion. While I was starting to write the book, I didn't know that I would gather facts from religious books on my ownself and analyze them if I'm something or something not. Jesus or Kalki or

Maitreya from Buddhism are just symbolisms, no actual person will arrive. Let's consider for a second that a real person named Jesus arrives who says he wants to establish Christianity all over Earth or Kalki arrives saying he wants to establish Hinduism all over the World or even Mahdi arrives; the one who is exactly mentioned in the Hadith texts and says he wants to establish Islam all over the world. Do you really think people of their own religion will believe any of them? There have been multiple such false claimants claiming that they are the prophesied men of that particular religion; they all ended up making nothing but a big or small non-profit organization in the name of their New Age cults. They never had that level of information or base to unite and create a One World Order. Imagine it was so easy for me to claim myself to be Mahdi; the Christian prophecies are directed towards that way. I could have just not revealed these Dajjal prophecies and it could have been much better and an easy way to establish myself as Mahdi. All these things about immortality, end of times and of what I have explored everyone would believe me. Even all these Islamic scholars could have never known that I was Dajjal if I never told them this in the first place. If you look at Dajjal in the eyes of the pre-Islamic perspective somewhere around 800 Ce or even through people who really believe that they will go to this imaginary Jannat after death; Dajjal would look like a real enemy since he can control climate, influences people and can also make you immortal too. He can give you all things right on Earth that Jannat after Death would offer. As we are technologically advancing, the biggest religions Christianity, Hinduism and to some extent even Islam have forgotten their stiff and false beliefs and are slowly moving towards or integrating themselves into the New-age cults having an openness towards different ideologies and they are describing Gods in their own way. In that way you would rather believe me more when I scientifically talk about Immortality and climate control rather than some mythical God and his heaven. Hadith prophecies on Dajjal are confusing, one says he will emerge from Khorasan other one says from Khullah, one says he will rule for 40 days other one says for 40 years and the Mahdi from the Hadiths will never arrive But the Christian Bible prophecies on Mahdi and the king look very real such as honoring the God of Fortresses, getting fire from sky down on Earth, etc. Even in the last chapter in the Web series Messiah, some people referred to him as Al-Masih ad-Dajjal but his actual name was Mehdi Dehbi. The Matrix knew that at some point in the future, I will know that the verses are talking about me and decode them fully. But it really doesn't want people to follow the truth that could be a reason it wrote me as Dajjal only in the Islamic books and not others so that people waste their time arguing whether I am Dajjal or Mahdi and the Matrix gets time to fulfill its disastrous goals. Also it could have mentioned me as Dajjal since I am not honoring a God that promises you heaven or causes floods but I am honoring Adam that evolved and the Immortal civilization they established which it actually is. The only reason it is indirectly calling me Mahdi since I have re-discovered the tank of immortality and the true nature of Islam. But Matrix calling me Dajjal or Mahdi or Messiah now it really doesn't matter. In Judaism, there is the arrival of a King who will also be a Messiah. In Jerusalem, before the rebuilding of the 3rd temple, they have recently sacrificed the red heifer which is a fulfillment of the end of times prophecy. My book is not even known to people, who are telling them to do all this. I have no relation to the Abrahamic religions in particular but I feel it has called me the prophesied one of all religions because it's a worldwide scenario. Messiah, Mahdi, King or Neo are all one prophesied man by the Oracle who would eventually destroy the Matrix. You can call me whatever you want.

Anyways before I showed you the truth of your own books, you always had a certain ideology of what Jesus, Kalki, Maitreya would be. Jesus Christ can perform resurrection, I'm here to resurrect not a few but the whole World. You always believed Kalki avatar or Maitreya will arrive and take you into Satya Yug, a World full of joys which is my goal and the book that I have written takes you in that direction. It doesn't matter what religion you are or whatever hoax you believe in, if that gives you relief and strength it's good for you. I am not against any religion since their objectives are towards the greater good of humanity. It won't be long until you stop believing in heaven and focus towards creating heaven on Earth and becoming immortal. Utopia is a natural consequence for humanity. But Nations are not like religions, they have an army, nukes, bioweapons, they have a twisted constitution through which they can put anyone in prison. I am not president of any nuclear country, I have no army nor do I have a huge following. I am pretty much powerless in front of them. What I have is a big goal of uniting the world taking all of you all towards a land of peace and wellbeing. What I only got are solid proofs and facts and technologies that I have decoded with so much efforts. I don't want to go against these strong nations but I can unite them all under one roof of my One World Orders. I will offer every nation a deal that they and their citizens couldn't reject. Let's go more into my One World Order in the next chapter.

Chapter 11: The One World Order

*The official Emblem of *The One World Order". This logo was made 4 years ago for my record label, "King of Goa Records". It had took me and my graphic designer almost a month to design this ! *

Introduction:

We have come a long way from decoding the key dates and events of the Matrix to the final One World Orders and decisions that we need to take for humanity. The future that is about to come is planned by the pole shifters and looks very disastrous. So we need to create our own future and we need to have a proper plan to do that. I have arrived from the very base of everything, I am not a son of a large political leader or businessman to just throw money and power and with that cause a change. Neither I am a part of a big scientific or religious community that I could claim things on immortality and pole shifts or write about religions. Whatever I have done is my own self-learnt knowledge and the time that I have given to author this one of a kind scientifically religious book. Even though I am coming from a very humble background, I have a very big goal that is to unite the World one last time not in the name of religion or nation but in the name of our immortal creator. There are really really bad people who are not humans like you and me who have done things that are unimaginably worse than you could think. We don't know their names, their faces but we know they do exist somewhere right on our planet. Just like the identity of murderer or robber is only known after it is caught. Before that you only know about the murders or robberies that they have been doing. In this case too, upto this point, this is the best I have investigated. Further I leave it to the intelligence agencies of different countries to look for them since they have a much wider availability of data and information. But all of you no matter how intelligent and smart have to be guided. You need someone to show you the right way, the right direction towards truth. The One World Orders are my commandments for you all towards the right path to save humanity. The term "The One World Order" means to unite the World industrially and financially into one large organization. Taking the people from Dystopia into the final establishment of "Peace of our times" or the "Golden Age" or "Satya Yug" of what it used to be before the Matrix. In my One World Order, the entire civilization that we are living is technologically and culturally raised to its peak point. To raise a civilization technologically, I have given "The Technologies of Utopia" which will form the pillars of our civilization. With inventions like Ionocraft and Sun electric generator we would be able to fly at great speeds, creating sky cities working completely on free energy. With Inventions such as the Tesla tower we will be able to save ourselves from pole shifts and eradicate wars forever, colonize other planets at greater speeds, make them green and natural similar to our planet Earth and start human civilizations on them and remain immortal. Also creating a future-seeing computer will give us complete immortality, no one will ever be able to die since all things that will happen in future will already be known. I have gone through the painstaking efforts to find the best inventions and gave deep details about them from 100 year old books and articles. I have decoded them in a way like never before and this information in my book will form a base to recreate them all. But to go towards that Utopia we need to work right now. We all have ancestored from an One World Utopian Government that our great creator had formed. I am here to re-establish just that. If 2 World health organizations or 2 World Governments are existing then they will compete with each other. There are chances that Matrix might function in them causing another disaster. One World Order means just one organization of truth that's all. Lets go through its details.

Project “The One Grand World Bank”

My One World Orders are divided into different projects that I have launched. The World is a $80 Trillion economy, and with an 8 billion population, so logically 800 million people should get $8 Trillion. This means the continent of Africa and country India with a population of around 1.5 billion each should be worth around $15 trillion GDP each. But they are only worth $3 trillion each. I have introduced “The One Grand World Bank” which will make sure money is divided equally to every region. It will function in 2 parts, on a bigger scale, Government institutions and companies will be funded and all their expenses will be borne by the bank. No country will be liable to pay any loans to the current World Bank if they join my One World bank. There won't be any concept of nations itself so their liability also ceases to exist. Secondly it will function on a smaller scale wherein universal basic income will be introduced and each person will be paid a certain amount of money to spend whichever way he/she wants. All the necessities and medical expenses of every person will be borne by the One World Bank.

Project “The One Grand Constitution”

Today the Matrix has created a society and it's laws in such a way that it creates situations of inequality of income, lack of freedom of speech and any logical person if speaks up, would be a lawbreaker and be prisoned. But if you break you are put behind bars and it further wants you to follow rules and forces you to stay within its created systems. In the crave to reach this 1% rich class, the ones who reached have done something bad such as deforestation or corruption or even worked indirectly for the hoax that Matrix has created. In that way either they enter into the 1% rich or they end up in prison. Are these people put in prison to be blamed or are these systems and situations that Matrix created to be blamed? Every country has laws regarding freedom of speech through which you have the right to say what you want making sure that you are not using any obscene language. But again there are exemptions to this law as saying anything logical against these religious delusionally disordered freaks can put you behind bars. Again anything said against your own country or any powerful country revealing its disastrous secrets and that government will again put you behind bars. Many journalists and news channels resist to search and publish articles that go against their nations. Throughout history Matrix has tried to suppress people, putting them in prison for breaking laws right from Galileo who spoke that Earth revolves around Sun which went against the concepts of God and Church, Rajneesh Osho for speaking against religions and nations or even Tate brothers for that matter. They were put behind bars for months on fake charges and for literally doing no crime at all. Today it was them, tomorrow it can be you, anyone can face the same fate of being behind bars for doing nothing. The World is prisoned by the bad guys in some way but prisons are the worst places of all. It's a 4 walled trap where you are punished either for doing or not doing something. Such fears of prison create a certain mindset amongst people of what they should speak and what not even if things seem really illogical and baseless. I'm not here to change some laws here and there, I'm here to create a new constitution. As we are moving into this new immortal age, A new Utopian Constitution and Legal system will be framed. Ofcourse it's not possible to create same constitution and it's laws for whole World, some minimal changes will be done according to different locations on Planet depending on the type of community that lives. But overall the fundamental laws will be the same and they will be governed by one international organization. Ofcourse the ones who have done crime have to be punished, we don't want an indecent and reckless society. The Matrix has done enough creating all these religions, further it's Nations have fooled you into supporting a false identity making you fight wars between 2 humans. Even when people knew about this they are scared to speak against them and that made them demotivated to research on these topics further. I am the first one who has decoded them all with facts without giving a damn about what these religious and nationalist psychopaths would feel. Finally realizing that I was prophesied in 1000s of years old books. Under my new Constitution, all religions and their customs and traditions will be respected and you will be allowed to speak logical things about religions and other organizations. But only with proper references and facts just like how I did. This way we will undo everything what the Matrix has done. A further detailed study will be conducted regarding My Grand Constitution for the World and Laws will be accordingly framed.

Project “The One World Defense”

We have already decoded the United Nations emblem which looks as if the North pole is targeted and throughout its history has completely failed and will lead us into WW3 similar to its predecessor League of Nations. It is structured in such a way that only a few nations control it through Veto power and due to its lack of military, it is powerless. Project “Immediate World Peace Treaty” wherein peace treaties will be signed at conflicting regions and all nations will be made to sign a deal which says they won't be attacking any other country anymore. A military union amongst all nations called “The One World Defense” will be formed wherein all defenses of all nations will be joined together under my One World Order so that no country will be attacked or would be able to attack any country in the first place.

Project “Save the World”

Under this, a Tesla tower will be built and other missions will be done to avoid pole shifts, a computer to see the future, a tank of immortality and all other technologies mentioned will be built. Pole shift is just the start, their main goal is to make all proofs of modernization and technology disappear and restart civilization, putting us back to where we were 4000 years ago. So under “Project Civilizational Bounceback” which will begin right after pole shifts, footsteps for new cities and towns will be created in these newly formed locations and previous cities will be re-modernized. The chapters end here. The whole book is about getting together all facts either religious or scientific and decoding them as they are. Any usual researcher on theology or scientific technologies would do this. While writing the book, I wondered how foolish people can be to not see such a simple symmetry, everything was always right in front of your eyes. To write such a book, you need to take effort and pain to gather information about almost everything in the World and a proper intellect and analysis to come to the right conclusion. But other than that first you should have nothing but confidence and daring to take the first step. Everyone of you must have come across decoding the Matrix, but right in the first steps you all gave up, either you were scared to hurt religious or national sentiments. Just put yourself in my shoes and see. If you get to know that a crime has taken place and you start investigating and you know that if you don't then no one else would do it. It takes you painstaking efforts to find that the criminal has caused multiple natural disasters, has started wars, created Pandemics throughout civilization, caused terrorist attacks, pole shifted the planet multiple times and on top of that about to cause another pole shift, kill each person on planet Earth and restart the world. If some murderer does many many murders and it tells you that it is behind it through its numbers and symbols and still people choose to remain blind closing their eyes, Would you not reveal all the truth to people and speak up and go against even if it's God? Can it even be called God? I will go against 1000 such Gods if they try to do something to our beautiful planet ! It will take people 5-6 months to understand the whole Matrix even if they read it full. So building these life saving technologies, I am your only solution. I have a right to freedom of speech and I have not abused it using foul language or insulted anyone in my book. But what I have written would sound like an insult to a few extremists since no one else took this path of truth before me and all these concepts about God and religions are decoded for the first time. Their religious books and data that I exposed are self insulting their ownelves. But I do respect every religion and every Prophet and Avatar that started each religion since whatever they preached was peace and unity. Today there are so many organizations that are doing alot of community service in their name when the whole world is running behind money and power. But as we have decoded some of the content of creation, flood stories and prophecies were written by Matrix men. I have no doubt about it. Today it is the time that we all unite into one unified religion wherein we should respect every religious customs and traditions forgetting what has happened before. That is what I have arrived for to unite the whole world in all aspects. Gods and these books are just the front face through which they want to indirectly tell you their true intentions and also to divide people. The people who run the churches, temples and mosques, they all want good about you and they also work towards that direction of community service and wellbeing of others. They have nothing to do with the Matrix men who are the ones who started these religions. They are all alive, currently present somewhere hidden in our World. We need to find them. What I did was only keep all the facts as they are right infront of you ! Please don't compare me with your usual prophets and religious preachers who would show you some magic tricks and consider themselves to be divine. I'm here to perform signs that you only saw in the movies. All the chapters of the book end here. Thank you for staying with me all throughout this journey and I know that you are now truly woke and enlightened and know the purpose of your life.

About the Author:

For the past 4 years my research was continuously going on illuminati, New World Order and I always saw videos of ancient 1000s of years old temples and pyramids and many archaeologists had hinted towards a pre-existing modern civilization. I already knew there was a secret group which was very advanced, having futuristic machine tools and they were the ones riding the flying saucers. But I didn't know who they were exactly. I always thought them to be extraterrestrial green-eyed aliens or some tall creatures called Gods who came from other planets doing all this. But I really didn't have any bad mindset about them and I thought they were good. On the other hand I thought this secret society were a group of rich coal businessmen suppressing free energy technologies or they were people from the government doing such activities for political gains. Until I came to know the truth. I am also a Rap musician having a record for fast repping 570 words under 95 seconds in 4 languages. Even through my songs, I always spread the message about social issues and the way people do corruption and scams. I was really in the positive side of Gods and religions but my mindset completely changed as I started to read these religious books on my own. I never wanted to write against any religion but I had no option as without giving any religious reference, I couldn't have proved any point. This book was about to be a sci-fi book on Indian mythological stories. But I changed the direction of the book when I read the Story Of Tripuras/ Atlantis and related that story to Project A119. Through which I got to know that this is the same secret society which was acting to be God controlling our World. All symbolisms of Matrix are based on pole shifts and as time elapsed I slowly slowly started to decode everything. Also I came to know about the number game when I related A119 with Twin tower 9/11 attacks and other top natural calamities. Each day I used to read for 15 hours and the data went from deep religions to articles from scientific scholars. Such a thorough research I carried on for almost 2 years. I loved learning more about this secret society since the data that I went through was so mind blowing. Also the entire realization of Apocalypse made me really sprint on writing the book making it more fact based and authentic. I really don't like to scare people for no reason. So I started to find solutions for the same. At the same time I was busy working on finding the technology behind the Sun electric generator as I discussed in that chapter. The amount of data and research that went into this book, even 10 people combined could not write these diverse chapters. I did it all by myself. Even if they did, it requires an overall knowledge of everything to decode the whole Matrix. Whatever I know I made sure I put it all in one book so that nothing remains a mystery or secret to people. Also I had to give all facts and images from outside sources and then come to a conclusion. If I had not done that then you had to find out religious and scientific data from other sources which could have again created a huge confusion in your mind. But I made sure I gave all the references which I mentioned In the references section of my main book. I have given chapterwise links to all data from where exactly I got all this information. Most of these links are news articles, sanskrit and their english translations of verses from Purans, Hadiths, books of Bible, research papers from various universities and some of them are books on pole shifts that I took a reference to while writing my book. The Matrix is very powerful, if something happens to me atleast based on the information in my book people will take needful steps. The data that I found, to get that I did not hack into computers or it was present in some secret files but it was always available right on the internet. I don't call this a book, It's actually a joke on all your biologists, conspiracy theorists, astronomers, all your people who study religious books as to even when they saw all these verses and all this data was right infront of their eyes, they still chose to remain blind in both eyes. Things were already there, top 2-3 of every aspects and its movies all these things are well documented. I have only noticed the symmetry of these numbers. This symmetry was right in front of everyone, wasn't it? The biggest time consuming part were religious books especially Purans since I had to go through these long long chapters just to find that one important verse. Religious books are very huge and some of their texts were rare to find. I skipped and did not read what is written in the middle of the Purans or Bible or Hadiths. What matters is start and end, creation and destruction stories. Whatever happens in between is not of much consequence. Again, quick reading and keyword searching made me understand and go through all the data quickly. Whatever data I have given here, you could find it online but only after a deep research. But the conclusions I have come up after so much analysis, you need to break a brain to do that. That's why this is one of a kind book, that's why you can't compare or relate my book with anything else. The technologies that I have written in my book are not science, it's Utopia, it's magic. Also the Human Immortality chapter was the most time consuming of all since I could not figure out these deep biology definitions and other processes the first time I read them. I'm not a big science guy, I always get bored and it turned me off when I went through all this in school. I only read and write what is interesting. That is what has dedicated me to research about all this with great interest even when it was so complex. I did not take any help from anyone in writing any chapter from the book. I felt researching and understanding the concept myself was better than someone else helping me. That person probably would not have the same vision and mindset as I do. This could also have wasted my time. I really didn't have any time, and was not interested in taking these titles and degrees on these subjects first and then researching on them. On every topic I did focused research. That's how I was able to do everything so quickly. It took me a lot of work to arrange the questions and chapters in such a way so that you get a proper understanding of what this secret society is and you are led slowly and firmly towards the truth. It is not that when I started to write, all the facts were just crystal clear to me. The book itself went through multiple evolutions meaning continuous improvements. By going through numerous religious books and analyzing current facts in a logical way, this is the best I could get close to revealing their true identity and the way this secret society functions. They won't directly tell you who they are or what they have done. But they indirectly have told you through their numbers, movies and religious stories that I decoded and through that we came to know about them. Their only goal is to keep you in an illusion throughout countless years only to finally cause an apocalypse and restart the world. The only way we can win over them is to unite this World and invest our energies into collaboratively finding ways and solutions to these multiple apocalyptic problems. The Matrix is not an alien breed or someone from other planets. They are very much the creation of our own ancestors and a lesson that as technology advances, more and more of this World gets into our control, the more we have to increase a check and carefulness over the same. We all have an Utopia, a great future ahead of us. Let us all get prepared for my One World Order of a complete union of our planet Earth. Only I could know the feeling of how it feels to be the prophesied man that all people and their generations and generations have been waiting for centuries ! It's a great feeling for me since my arrival means a one unified beginning for all of humanity. Don't think I did this all for fame or money, I have kept this book free for all to read. Orelse who would even break his brain reading for countless hours each day decoding these religious books, figure out immortality or saving everyone from pole shifts. All this is just to save you all from the catastrophe that is about to be created by some really bad people out there.

Outro

At the start of the book you must have probably thought this to be another sci-fi story with an added touch of it being very real. But as you reached half the book, you clearly knew that I was not telling you some fairytalish story. I have designed this book in such a way that if you try to search the facts and religious data online, you would find it all available. But no matter how many facts and proofs I give you about artificially-created humans, they having a tower controlling climate, they having a computer to see the future,etc,etc, I can't physically prove that they exist no matter what. Due to that everything else mentioned in my book of they controlling our World will then become a fact. Through this computer they have control over our World to the minutest of atom. The Matrix is everywhere but it can't be seen, it can only be felt. From the first letter "A" you learn in school right upto your deathbed of you wishing to go to a mythical afterlife. If you are locked up during COVID-19 for months and you see the cops and army all over the streets, yes now you can feel the Matrix. If you are stunned seeing a flying saucer in the sky going passby, yes now you can feel the Matrix. If you are caught up in a situation of war and you need to run down to missile shelters, yes now you can feel the matrix. If you are in Japan on 11th March 2011 or 1st Jan 2024, caught up in an earthquake, cyclone or tornado, yes now you can feel the Matrix. You see poverty, people working day and night just for a pieces of paper, all their faces dull, yes now you can feel the Matrix. But let's say tomorrow the tank of immortality is remade or if the powerful solar technology is remade then yes all of the Matrix and each word written in my book will be proven 100% true. Don't do something crazy after reading and don't worry the World will go on and on forever. So eat those bloody blue pills and go to sleep. Even if it's about to end, I will save the World no matter what it takes ! If you read any book or watch a movie, you know that what you are reading or watching is not real. After you finish that you forget it. This is the first of its kind Sci-Reality book which shivers you to your very roots since you, the characters around you, the historical events and facts every aspect of it is absolutely real. Now you won't forget it anymore, you are very much a part of it! The biggest of the theology experts would praise me for decoding all their prophecies and books in all complete truth that they only used to just guess what it all meant. But some fools would say that I am hurting their religious sentiments. The definition of religious sentiments means the emotional and psychological aspects of religious belief and practice. If some random person uses foul language against your religion, finding faults in your customs and traditions, claiming those as bad just for the sake of criticism. That can be called as hurting religious sentiment. Analyzing the religious verses and coming to a logical conclusion is part of theology and decoding books is part of the field. But I still apologize if any sentiments were hurt. Today people don't fight wars with swords and horses. Today nations are fighting wars with nukes and bioweapons that can destroy the whole of humanity as well as other species and life on the planet. No matter how fiction you consider this book to be, an absolutely real message that I want to give you is that we must stop wars and for that to happen the whole World must financially and militarily unite, for that to happen we should all believe in one truth which is innovation and evolution. The goal of being a human is to enjoy every moment of life and not to study or struggle 9-5 just for pieces of paper. Currently the goals of my One World Order would be to unite all the scientists to rebuild a Tesla tower, Immortality and other technologies. Also to make every national leader sign an agreement that he will be uniting his nation with my One World Orders of Unity. We the youth of this World should take a stand and act according to this goal. The planet is currently heading towards technological greatness and after my preached immortality and other advanced technologies, we are heading towards Utopia/Satya Yug. But the kind of weapons are present on planet Earth and the way things are heading towards, Evolution into immortality or dissolution are the only 2 options humanity has. I leave the choice to you. This is my message to the artificially-created Matrix men, “ You are no Gods, you were all created by the man who evolved, you all are just a mistake of our creator. The Son of the creator has arrived just to fix this mistake. As you saw me on your computer 1000s of years ago, look I’m right here. I know you're out there. I can feel you now. I know that you're afraid... you're afraid of us. You're afraid of change. I don't know the future. But it is not long until I will also know it too. I didn't come here to tell you how this is going to end. I came here to tell you how it's all going to begin. I have shown these people what you don't want them to see. I'm going to create a World; a World without false rules and controls, without false borders or boundaries. A World where anything and everything is possible. I'm Neo, I've arrived to find and finally destroy you. Let us all join hands for the final destruction of the Matrix and to re-establish our Creator’s Immortal Kingdom!”
